

ILLUSTRATED Evening ~~Ledger~~ Ledger

SATURDAY
October 14, 1916

ARMED BAYONNE POLICE ADVANCING ON SUSPECTED SNIPER

Carrying repeating rifles and shotguns, the bluecoats surrounded houses in the fighting zone and fired as often as a head popped up from a roof or window. The working section of the town is virtually an armed camp.

CAVING ROOF KILLS FIREMAN
Ruins of Quaker City Waste Company's plant, at 913-921 West York street, where Frank Fredericks, ladderman of Truck Company No. 12, received mortal injuries.

UNRAPID TRANSIT
What citizens may have to resort to eventually, if the high-speed plans are further delayed.

WHERE THE RAINFALL FIGURES COME FROM
Big Chief Rainmaker Bliss and the measuring apparatus which furnishes one of the important items in the weather statistics column.

LUCKY OPENERS OF THE JERSEY DEER SEASON
George Williams, of Sicklerville (at left), fired the shot that brought down this five-“snagged” stag in the Weymouth district. It weighed 175 pounds.

SOME OF SWARTHMORE'S CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE GRIDIRON ENTERTAINMENT AT FRANKLIN FIELD THIS AFTERNOON, WHERE THE GARNET MINDED WITH THE RED AND BLUE

FRED DONNELLY

JUDGE ENDICOTT

HAROLD SMITH

Captain and Leader

First end.