

THE CANYONS OF PHILADELPHIA
By Staff Photographer.
One of a series of new photographs which will be reproduced on this page. This is Broad street, just south of City Hall, looking northward from the top of the Manufacturers' Club building.

FEMINE SIDE OF THE AMERICAN-MEXICAN COMMISSIONERS AT THE SHORE
By Staff Photographer.
Though their fathers may disagree at times, there is much amity between the daughters of the various commissioners in session at Atlantic City. On the right is Miss Gray, daughter of Judge George Gray, Delaware, whose companions are the Misses Marie and Dolores Bonillas, daughters of Senor Ignacio Bonillas, of Mexico.

PROMINENT IN EDUCATIONAL CIRCLES
Thomas Hughes is a favorite with the city's school teachers. He is paymaster for the Board of Education.

HOW AN ICE POOL IS MADE FOR THE BIG THEATRICAL SKATING SCENES
A section of the stage flooring is lifted out and the bottom of the hole is lined with pipes filled with certain chemicals. Then water is turned on, and there you are. This is what the Hippodrome show has done to the dignified stage of the Metropolitan Opera House.

MILITARY HONORS FOR BODY OF TROOPER KILLED AT EL PASO
The funeral of Joseph Burchill, who lost his life at a cavalry maneuver, was held today from his home, 1129 Brown street. A detachment of national guardsmen acted as escort.
