

Photo from Press Publishing Company.
CANADA'S "BANTAM" REGIMENT OF LITTLE FELLOWS STARTS FOR FRANCE

Copyright Underwood & Underwood
VICTORIOUS ITALIANS LEAVE CAPTURED CITY FOR MORE FIGHTING
Italian troops that figured in the capture of Gorizia are seen starting for the battle line again after a well-deserved rest inside the city which they fought so hard to win.

PROMINENT FIGURES IN THE CENTRAL BUSINESS DISTRICT
J. B. Bonner and J. Max Barnard.

OUT TO SNIFF THE OCTOBER AIR
Bracing autumn weather brought old Leo out of his den for a stroll in his miniature parade grounds at the Zoological Gardens.

ENJOYING THE FALL WEATHER IN AN ESTHETIC WAY
Miss Mildred Waiz, Philadelphia dancer, expresses her terpsichorean joy just like the nymphs used to do.

PLANNING IMPROVEMENTS ON THE WATER FRONT
James E. Jefferson, Superintendent of City Bridges, at the left, confers with his chief, George S. Webster, Director of the Department of Wharves, Docks and Ferries.

OFFICERS REVIEW FIRST INFANTRY IN MUSTERING-OUT CEREMONIES
The First Pennsylvania Infantry became a regiment in the National Guard again today at the armory. The reviewing officers are Colonel C. C. Allen, Major General W. P. Bowman, retired; Captains E. M. Mitchell and Lieutenant Hunt.