EVENING LEDGER-PHILADELPHIA, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 1916

VITTORIOSA OFFENSIVA DEL GENERALE CADOBNA A GORIZIA E SUL CARSO

Gli Italiani Attaccano e Conquistano Poderose Linee di Difesa Nemiche-La Battaglia si Estende

PIU' DI 5000 PRIGIONIERI

ROMA, 2 Novembre

Un comunicato ufficiale pubblicato questa mattina dice che gli austriaci hanfo subito perdite gravisaime nella battaglia di mer-coledi e di ieri. Il 21mo reggimento della Landwebr austriaca rimase completamente

Sette brigate di fanteria e due reggimenti di Barmagileri furono landati all'assalto delle posizioni austriache a sud-est di Gori-sia, e gli attacchi furono particolarmente violenti contro le quote 207 e 308 che furono conquistate dopo accanita battaglia. Finora sollo stati catturati piu' di 5000 prigionisti. La prima giornata della nuova offensiva del generale Cadorna mulla fronte delle Alpi Giulie e dell'altopiano del Carno ha dato agli italiani il possesso di fortissime ed importanti posizioni tenute dagli sustriaci e 4731 prigionieri, oltre ad una quantita' di mitragliatrici, sei cannomi e abbondante materiale da guerra. Iniziata mercoledi', la nuova offensiva si e' avoita principalmente su due settori. E' tata eseguita da due gruppi principali, uno che si e' mosso dalle sue posizioni ad est di Gorizia per attaccare il poderoso sistema difensivo delle alture che dominano la citta', e un altro partito dalla linea del Vallone.

un altro partito dalla linea del Vallone. Carso, per attacenre se fortissime trin-austriache nel settore del Pecinka. L'avanzata delle truppe italiane e¹ stata rapidissima e violentissima, dopo un fuoco di artiglieria che aveva polverizzato le difese dei nemico. In algun#punti gli itali-difere dei nemico. In alcun Ppunti gli Itali-ani hanno avanzato per oirca un miglio. La battagila piu' violenta si e' svolta ad est di Gorizia dove alture che si erano di-mostrate finora un ostacolo serliasimo al l'avanzata verso est sono state conquistate con brillantissimi assalti alla baionetta. Piu' a sud, sul Carso, e precisamente sulla linea Oppacchiasella - Castagnevizza, gli Rallani hanno spezzato in diversi punti la inea di difesa nemica, mentre il centro conquistava le alture che circondano il monte Pecinka. Si ritiene che ora il generale Cadorna avanzera' direttamente sulla linea ferroviaria obe da Gorizia per San Daniele porta a Trieste. Ecco il rapporto del generale Cadorna pubblicato leri sera dal Ministero della Sulla fronte delle Alpi Giulie ieri le nostre truppe attaccarono le poderose difese nemiche sulle alture ad est di Gorizia ed una nuova fortissima linea stabilita sul Carso ad est del Vallone. Nella mattinata le nostre batterie di grossi calibri e di mortai da trincea aprirono un violentissimo fuoco sulle spere di difesa nemiche che furono sonvolte in parecchi punti. Un primo attacco della fanteria fu eseguito alle 11 a m.

11 a.m. A sud della strada Oppacchiasella-Castagnevizza la linea austriaca fu eccupata in diversi punti e fu manțe-Buta nonostante i violenti contrat-tacchi del nemico.

tacchi del nemico. Nella giornata di ieri noi prendem-mo 4731 prigionieri, compresi 22 uffi-dall; sei cannoni da 105 millimetri, molte mitragliatrici, animali da tras-porto, una quantita' di materiale da Fuerra e di munizioni. Aeropiani nemici hanno iasciato cadere bombe su parecchi villaggi della Dona del Basso Isonzo. A Pieris le bombe sustriache ucchero un soldato, un capitano e quattro uomini della Croce Rossa.

ITALIANS CAPTURE FOE'S LINES; CAPTURE 5000

antineed from Pase One liant soldiers, Lieutenant General Viadimir Sakharoff, to command the army of Rus-sians, Rumanians and Serbs that gave up Constants and Cernavoda to von fick-onsen. He has already arrived in Bucha-rent and will take command of the Do-brudia army at once, says a wireless dis-patch from the Rumanian capital.

patch from the Rumanian capital. General Sakharoff came into prominence during the successful Russian advance in Galica last summer. It was he who cap-tured Brody late in July. Sakharoff is the third general the Allies have sent to help Rumania. General Bietholet, a French-man, and General Bietholet, a French-man, ard General Biethover, a Russian, are in charge of the defense of the northern passes

The latest official news shows more ac-ticity in the northern Dobrudja. Russia announces that slong the whole front Rus-sian scouting detachments continue their activity. Constanza was bombarded today, probably by Russian warships of the Binck Sea squadron. The German official state-ment announces that the captured Ru-manian port was "shelled without suc-cess."

The location of the forces in the Dobrudia The location of the forces in the Doordala at present is not known exactly. Von Mack-ensen has stopped reperting the occupation of towns and villages since Bulgar troops were reported near Babadagh some days

GLN. VLADIMIR SAKHAROFF

One of Russia's leading com-manders, who has been sent to the Dobrudja to take charge of the defense against General Mackensen.

trenches west of Eaucourt was completely

On the right bank of the Meuse the night was relatively calm.

he swept down from the air, glided gracefully across the parade ground, and came

A courier from Long Branch hurried away with a letter Caristrom carried from to an easy stop.

of towns and villages since Bulgar troops ways. Evidently, however, the Entente army has stopped its retreat, and occupies a life balance loop, supported by the Russian and Rumanian fortresses of Tulcea. Macin and Braila. Von Mackensen's pursuit seems to have stopped also. He is, perhaps, waiting for heavy guns to come up over the poor roads of the Dobrudja. In Transylvania the Rumanians fought determinedly in the region south of Kron-stat and all the Teuton attacks were thrown back. East of the Ait River, south-east of Red Tower Pass, however, the Teu-tons, who have penetrated twelve miles into Rumania, are still advancing. The Rumanians are pursuing the Ba-marians who were routed west of the Jiu, and have captured more war, material. A Russian statement announces a Rumanian nounced on Tuesday.

afternoon.

BERLIN REPORTS ADVANCES ON TRANSYLVANIAN FRONT; RUSSIAN ATTACKS BROKEN

BERLIN, Nov. 3. Austro-German forces operating south-west of Predeal and southeast of Rothen-thurm Pass in the Rumanian theater of war have made a new advance, capturing 350 Rumanians, the War Office reported day. Following is the text of the official Army group of Archduke Cari—On Army group of Archduke Cari—On the southern boundary of Transylvania Russo-Rumanian attacks were repulsed by our fire or in bayonet fighting. Southwest of Predeal and southeast of Rothenthurm Pass we made an ad-vance, following up the enemy, and cap-tured more than 250 Rumanians. Balkan front—There is nothing to report.

Dankan Front-There is nothing to report. On Prince Leopold's front the Russians suffered exceptionally severe losses during fruitiess attempts, repeated seven times, to recapture the positions stormed by the Germans on October 30 west of Kraanolesie on the left bank of the Narayuvka, the offi-cial report said. ontinued from Page One yond the island, while New Yorkers from their skyscraper galleries watched. Then

FRENCH REOCCUPY ENTIRE RING OF VERDUN'S FORTS, PARIS REPORT ANNOUNCES

Mayor Thompson, of Chicago, for Prési-dent Wilson, while a postal clerk took a PARIS, Nov. 3. PARIS, Nov. 3. The French War Office today anyounced the evacuation by the Germans yesterday afternoon of Fort Yaux, the lass Verdun fort to be held by the Crown Prince. The statement added that "very violent ex-plosions were observed in the fort." Trench infantry last night occupied the fort without the loss of a single life, the report said. The War Office pointed out that the en-tire ring of outer forts of Verdun is now again completely in French hands. The text of the statement follows: South of the Somme a lively artillery battle raged in the sectors of Lifhons and chily. The French War Office today announced the evacuation by the Germans yesterday fort route to be held by the Crown Prince. The statement added that "very violent ex-plosions were observed in the fort." French infantry last night occupied the report said. The War Office pointed out that the en-tire ring of outer forts of Verdun is now scaln completely in French hands. The text of the statement follows: South of the Somme a lively artillery battle raged in the sectors of Linons and Chilly. A surprise attack against the German bag of mail from the aeroplane.

Greek Insurgents Reported Marching on Larissa, Big Railway Center

LONDON, Nov. 3.—Civil war has broken out in Greece. Heavy fighting is in prog-ress between Venizelist revolutionary forces and loyalist troops in Thessaly. The rebel army that occupied Katorina is reported to be marching on Larissa, the great fail-road center in Thessaly. Dispatches from Athens today state that King Constantine is taking military meas-ures for the protection of the Greek cap-ital.

Sentence

irise for the protection of the Greek capital.
(Katorina is an important city on the suff of Salonica, forty-five fulles south-west of Salonica. It is the same distance from Larissa. Larissa is only 130 miles north of Athens and is connected with Athens by the main railway in Greece.)
The Venizelist army, which numbers 10,-000 is well equipped. It was supplied with arms and ammunition by the Allies to be used against Bulgaria.
Lobdon newspapers today bittery criticised the Allied military authorities in Greece for allowing King Constantine to send troops over the Piracus-Larissa Railing tha rebels in Thessaly. It was pointed out that this railway line has aiready been taken over by the Allies for their exclusive use.

MACKEY LEASES THEATER

Will Offer Election Returns to Friends at Special "Show"

Yesterday, under the violence of our bom-bardment which had been maintained for several days, and without awaiting an at-tack from our infantry, whose pressure be-came more and more intense, the enemy evacuated Fort Vaux in the course of the afternoon. Harry A. Mackey, chairman of the Work-en's Compensation Board, has entered Harry A. Mackey, chairman of the Work-men's Compensation Board, has entered the theatrical field. He has leased the Fifty-second Street Theater for a "one-night stand" next Tuesday. He proposes to stage the election returns for his friends of the Forty-sixth Ward, and while a "standing room only" house hight easily be obtained. Mr. Mackey has decided to limit the attendance to those persons to whom he has issued tickets. Mr. Mackey has not annofmed the full Three very violent explosions were erved in the fort. berred in the fort. During the night our infantry, which had advanced within a very short distances, occupied the important work without the loss of a single life. The entire ring of outer forts of Verdun is now once more in our hands and is firm-iy held by our troops.

whom he has issued tickets. Mr. Mackey has not announced the full program, but his former association with the Department of Supplies is accepted by his friends as guarantee that the specifica-There is nothing to report from the rest a will be met by an ample appropria-know about a GLOVE.

FOWNE

LONDON, Nov. 3.—British troops cap-tured a German trench east of Gueudecourt in a resumption of fighting on the Somme front yesterday. General Haig reported to-day. The position was secured last night. It is not much BERLIN, Nov. 8.—The block of build-ings in the village of Sailly-Saillisel, recent-ly captured by the troops of the Bavarian Crown Prince, were lost again yesterday morning, the War Office admitted today in its official report. At other parts of the front France-British attacks failed, the statement said. With regard to the opera-tions at Verdun, the report mersily says: "The French fire against Fort Vaux de-creased toward the evening." trouble to ask for Fownes gloves by name-and you'll have no trouble with style, fit or comfort when AIRMAN ENDS FLIGHT you get what you ask CHICAGO TO NEW YORK for. Try it.

STORE OPENS DAILY AT $:30 A. M. & CLOSES AT $:30 P. M. Women's $1.25 Gloves $1 Men Who Would Save a HATS TRIMMED FREE OF CHARGE ; Duplex; Two Clasp Dollar on Their Hat In' white, gray, biscuit, chamois and pongee colors. Also in white, grey, sand, tan & binck. Can Choose From a Fine Big Collection of $1.50 French Kid Gloves, $1.39 Regular $2.98 HATS In all the Latest Styles $1.98 ONE YELLOW TRADING STAMP WITH EVERY 10c Two clasp, in white-some with black b PURCHASE ALL DAY

ONE DAY

Floor Covering Specials

Lace Curtain Specials

One, two and three pairs of a

STOVES, HOUSEPURNISHINGS

pattern

