FARMER SMITH'S RAINBOW CLUB WHERE THE PAPER . DOLLS CAME FROM

They walk into a room and take in everything at a glance. Such persons, be By Farmer Smith I have noticed that such people are large over their eyes or their eyes are deep set. This may have nothing to do with it; BUT you will notice a child about five years old wrinkling up his brow, showing that he is beginning ally she yawned and opened her eyes. All was very still in the paper doll box. This is the story Graceful Gertrude told

I am writing this for the great army of little mothers who have to take ome Harry: care of little brothers and sisters. I want them to OBSERVE those in their In the long, long ago, before the moo shone even, there lived upon the earth a little girl who was very poor and very sick. Years before her father had been very wealthy, owning a lot of flocks and herds besides a beautiful house where the little girl lived, even though her father was poor These are not opinions, but facts which I have OBSERVED in the last Now, when this girl was very little she had seen a doll—a real doll, and she had longed and longed for it. Every time she asked her father for it he would say:

"Child, dost thou not know that I am a poor man and have no money with which to buy thee a doll—such foolishness:" Hour by hour the little girl lay on her sick hed and looked at—what do you sup-

Little Miss Helena Ulmor, of West Oxford street, sends in the following interesting report: "Friday evening the club held its Halloween party, at which the following members were present: Ottlile Ulmer, president; Emma Sucky, vice president; Minnle Sucky, which the following the following members were present: Ottlile Ulmer, president; Emma Sucky, vice president; Minnle Sucky, white the following the foll The wallpaper, of course!
