FRENCH SOLDIERS PHOTOGRAPH ENEMY BEHIND TRENCHES
The remarkable photograph, taken from the French trenches looking across "no-man's land," shows the Kaiser's soldiers through the barbed wire peering over the ledge of their own trenches.

LEADING FIGURES AT CONVENTION OF ORNITHOLOGISTS
The thirty-fourth annual convention of the American Ornithologists' Union will close its two days' session at the Academy of Natural Sciences today. Among the prominent members who attended were Louis Agassiz Fuertes, the noted bird artist, of Ithaca, N. Y.; Mrs. Thomas B. Hill, of Philadelphia, and, in the insert, Herbert K. Job, of West Haven, Conn., an authority on the rearing of wild fowl.
