JUST GOSSIP ABOUT PEOPLE

Ambulance Film Will Be Shown at Stotesbury Home Tomorrow-Mr. Herrick Will Speak. Miss Frazer Is Introduced

pears, firstly, that Myron Herrick, late Ambassador to France, who did such wonderful work in Paris at the authreak of the present Great War, will be here from his Ohio home as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Stotesbury,and it is expected he will address the guests, for it is an invitation affair, you know. Mrs. Stotesbury did not like the idea of charging for any entertainment given on a Sunday, so she donated $1000 to the French committee for the use of the film. It was rather gratifying to learn that the film had been given originally by the French Government to an

of appreciation of the work done by the American boys

American in token

MISS RUTH ISRAEL Miss Israel is an extremely popular member of the younger set and takes an active interest in charity affairs.

m the Ambulance Field Service. Though the original re- | be Molly Thayer, Aimee Hutchiason. the Forrest Theater at 3:30. At the Merion showings there are to be two separate sets of aides, who will be dressed as trained nurses and will dispense books and programs. Leslie Bushnell, who was himself an ambulance driver, is to give a short talk at both entertainments. The ushers in the afternoon will be Virginia Roberts, Jean Thompson, Margaretta Myers, Eleanor Pepper, Elsa Reath, Sara Barringer, Sarah Neilson, Sarah Penrose, Mary Law and Peggy Thayer.

In the evening the ushers will be Emily Philler, Gay Tilghman, Miriam Roberts, Angela Naile, Edith Baily, Sylvia Barnes, Margaret Chrystie, Bertha Montgomery, Eleanore Gamble and Winifred Clarke.

On Tuesday afternoon Cornella Leidy will have charge of the ushers at the

And now comes great interest in the Flower Princess, the seventh annual ball and extravaganza to be given for the benefit of the School of Industrial Art and Philadelphia Museum, though I believe it is usually said the other way of talent for this presentation, and some imparted to mine ears that when soto muself for even to surprise the blase child of five in society. of today would be an achievement well worth remembering.

Those who are to appear of whom

Personals

Bome of those who will entertain at dinner before the dance to be held at the Huntingdon Valley Country Club this evening will be: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fox, of Philadelphia, who will have a dinner of twenty; Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Brock, of Abington, Pa., will entertain a dinner of sixteen guests, and Mr. Norman Brock will also entertain before the dance.

Announcements of the marriage of Miss Clarice Francis Frishmuth and Mr. Percy Allan Ransome, of New York, were sent aut yesterday by the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John C. W. Frishmuth, of Riverraday afternoon at the bride's home. Mr. and Mrs. Ransome will be at home at the De Lancey Apartments, Twenty-third and Pine streets, after December 1.

The Wayne branch of the American Red Cross held a public meeting at 3 o'clock last svening in the Saturday Clubhouse, Wayne, Mrs. William Kinnicutt Draper, secretary of the New York Chapter of the American Red Cross, spoke on the Red Cross work. After the meeting a reception was held in the headquarters of the Wayne branch; 105 West Lancaster avenue. The receiving party included the officers of the branch: Mrs. William Henry Brooks, Mrs. C. Howard Clark, Mrs. Robert S. Brodhead, Mrs. Horace B. Hare, Mrs. T. T. Watson, Mrs. C. C. Harrison, Mrs. William V. Alexander and Miss Grace Roberts.

and Mrs. Harry Chapman Thayer moved yesterday to their new home. Baga-telle, formerly the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Hartman Kuhn, of Bryn Mawr. Mrs. Thayer is entertaining her sister, Mrs. H. P. Umbsen, of San Francisco, for a few

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Radeliffe, of Wayns, antertained at an informal dance at their home last evening at 8:30 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Langdon Lea, of Bala, will a party to Princeton today to attend Yale-Princeton football game.

Mrs. Joshua Ash Pearson, of 414 West Price street, Germantown, will chaperon a motor party also.

Others who will motor to Princeton today to attend the Yale-Princeton game, will be Dr. and Mra. Robert Elmer, of Wayne, and a party of frienda. Mrs. Marion Dougherty will be one of a large party. Miss Evelyn Runk and Henry Abstit. whose marriage will take place in the Derty. Miss Evelyn Runk and Henry Abbutt, whose marriage will take place in the gring, will also motor up to the game, as will Mr. and Mrs. J. Hoss Pilling. Mr. and Mrs. Theodors Paul and a party of friends will go to the Cannon Club for luncheon leases the game. Miss Margaret Davis and Mr. Edward W. Taylor, Jr., will be members of a party that will go up in the morning and have luncheon at Princeton. Mr. and the Joseph Bunting and their family, of lunkindown, will also attend the game.

Mus Elizabeth Hood Latts, of 3819 grace street, will also attend the Yalo-tilesson football game today and will beyond go to New York to be the guest Destor and Mrs. Norton at their immediately areas and Madacon avenue cour that when the guest had been a part of the guest that when the guest that we will be the guest better the

THE much talked of film, "Our American Boys in France," will be shown to morrow afternoon at the Stotesburys, and morrow afternoon at the Stotesburys, and fine they will both be principals, and their there are several very interesting facts theirs are the only names that have in connection with the showing, which bee-en divulged. While on the subject, came lately to my ears, and, somehow, you MUST may bee-en now, never bin. Pre acquired the habit of passing these It's fearfully incorrect not to, anyhow. bits along to you'all, my dears. It ap- you know, and the very latest pronunciation of aunt is "count." One must be English, if not a Bostonian, and either one would say bee-en for beans. so all is well. The chorus of the Flower Princess will be composed entirely of girls. Only a few of the men will be principals, which strikes my sense of humor; how does it strike yours? Elizabeth Latta is to be the fairy Cymbeline. Dorothy Norris will come on from New York to dance, and will wear a specially designed frock; fact, all the frocks, which will represent flowers and peacocks, have bee-en specially designed for the occa-

One feature will be the song "I Love You in Pink," by Miss Ellis and Mr. Freedley. The girls in this chorus will ceiver of the gift is not a townsman of whose engagement to Joe Thayer was just ours, a great many of us know him, announced; Margot Scull, Dorothy New-Harry Sleeper, of Boston. Besides the bold, Marion Taylor, Charlotte Rush, Euprivate performance at the Stotesburys genia Cassatt, Elsa Reath, Jean Thompthere will be two given on Monday at 3 son, Mary Brooke, Hannah Hobart and and at 8:30 o'clock at the Merion Cricket | Suzanne Elliott. In the climax of the Club, and again on Tuesday afternoon at first act there will be a ballet of peacocks; in this two groups will participate, directed respectively by Eleanor Hopkins and Valentine Mitchell. Dorothy Norris is to be the premiere danseuse. In Miss Mitchell's group will be Agnes Brockle, Lisa Norris, Lucile Carter, Betty Brock, Gainor Baird, Elizabeth McMichael, Ethel Huhn and Elizabeth Trotter; while in Miss Hopkins's group will be Jean Lillie, Margaretta Benson, Louisa Davis, Theodora Lillie, Edith Earle and Katharine Ogden. I think I'll have more to tell, too, as time goes on. The performance is to be given in the ballroom of the Bellevue-Stratford on December 6, and will be held in the afternoon and evening both. Lots of the kiddles will go to the afternoon performance, for it is a fairy tale, after all, which Alfred Barton has perpetrated this year, and certainly, from the costumes I have seen and the tunes I have heard, it will be some performance.

Among the debutante doings today will be the large tea which Mrs. Persifor Frazer will give for her granddaughter, Maria Frazer, who is the daughter of round. They have all sorts and kinds | Percy Frazer and his first wife, Mary Welsh, who afterward married Corlies whose timidity will not allow their names | Morgan and who died some five years to be made public yet will be among the ago. Maria was to have been introduced principals. One person on the committee by her aunt, but owing to the death of a near relative, the formal presentation clety heard who was to appear it would | could not be made by her, so Mrs. Frazer be surprised. This alone would be a consented to do the honors. Of course, Jack Frazer and his wife will assist in receiving this afternoon. Maria, I understand, is very pretty and has charming manners.

NANCY WYNNE.

and will be one of the soloists at the first meeting of the Science and Art Club at the home of Dr. and Mrs. William Beatty Jenlings, 6012 Greene street, Germantown Mrs. Francis McCullough will entertain party at the game.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver E. Cromwell speni days this week with Mr. and Mrs Edward F. Beale at their home in Strafford.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Bishop, of Ogston Columbus, N. J., are visiting their son-in-iaw and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John

Mrs. John P. Hollingsworth, who has been spending the summer at Chestnutwold Farm with her mother, Mrs. C. Howard Clark, left yesterday to join her husband on the border, where she will remain for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis W. Wheelock, Woodland avenue, Wyncote, entertained at an informal dance last Thursday evening in honor of their daughter, Miss Hope Wheeleck. About twenty guests were pres-

Miss Grace Walker, of Ambier, will en tertained at luncheon today, followed by a shower in honor of Miss Kathleen Carlin, of Jenkintown, whose marriage to Mr. James Heger, of Noble, will take place next Wed-nesday. The guests were a few intimate friends and the bridal party. Miss Carlin will entertain at tea on Monday afternoon from 4 until 6 o'clock at her home on Mather avenue, Jenkintown. The guests will also be the members of her bridal party and a few intimate friends.

Mrs. Cyrus Truxal, of Wayne, has re-turned from Lancaster, where she was the guest of her mother, Mrs. Tatnail, for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert North and their family, of New Haven, Coun. have taken a house at Jenkintown, which they are now and where they will make their occupying and when home in the future.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Vark Rose, of 622 West Rittenhouse street, Germantown, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Mary Billings Rose, to Mr. Philip Haviland Brocklesby, grandson of the late Dr. John Brocklesby, of Trinity College, Hartford, Mrs Samuel J. Levy announces the marriage of her son, Mr. Harry Bliss Levy, to Miss Lillian May Bradley, of Boston, Mans. on Monday afternoon, November 13, at The Brighton, Fifty-first and Locust atreets. On account of the recent death of Mr. Samuel J. Levy, only immediate members of the family were present. The Rev. Philip Endicott Osgood, vicar of the Church of the Mediator, officiated.

The Matines Musical Club announces a series of three dances, the first to take place on November 13, the second on December 15 and the last of the series on January 15 The dances will be given in the itoes Gardens of the Bellevus-Biratford under the patronage of the cocial committee of the club, the gardens are to be devoted to the club's reserve fund.

$65,000 JEWELS GONE FROM HARRIMAN HOME

Disappear From Safe in Fifth Avenue Residence of Railroad Man's Widow

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—A diamond and ruby necklace with pendant, valued at $50,000, and other gems valued at $15,000, have disappeared from a safe in Mrs. E. H. Harriman's home at Fifth avenue and Sixty-ninth street.

Mrs. Harriman reported her loss to Polica Commissioner Woods. Special detectives were assigned to the case with the atrictest orders to prevent publicity. The widow of the railroad man has also engaged the services of a private detec-tive agency. Neither private nor city de-tectives have gained any traces of the missing jewelry, nor been shie to advance a satisfactory theory in explanation of their mysterique disappearancs.

Mra Harriman discovered her loss when she was dressing for the opening of the Metropolitan opera last week. Intending to wear the diamond and ruby neckface, she unlocked a safe built into the walls of her Fifth avenue home.

Fifth avenue home.

In this safe she had locked not only the tecklace, but much of her other jewelry for weeks and perhaps months before. weeks and perhaps months before.

But when Mrs. Harriman opened the safe she found that the neckiace had disappeared. Search of the safe's contents showed also that a pair of pearl earrings had disappeared. The outside of the safe evidenced no marks of having been tampered with, it is said. She made a thorough search for the minsing pleces and, not finding them, went to the opera without saying a word to any one.

SEA CAPTAIN'S WIDOW TO WED

Mrs. Helen Reading Jarvis, Prominent in Woodbury Society, to Marry Naval Architect

Mrs. Helen Reading Jarvis, widow of Captain George Jarvis, who sank with the schooner Margaret May about five years ago, will be married tonight to Frederick Kierulf Morck, a well-known Norwegian caval architect

Mrs. Jarvis, who is the daughter of Dr George Evans Reading of Woodbury, N. J. was about twenty years of age when he susband, the commander of the ship, an ils two stepbrothers, Edwin and Ray-mond Jarvis, and the entire craw were frowned during a hurricane off Cape Hat-eras. Following the catastrophe Mrs. Jarvis devoted a great portion of her time to act and has produced several interesting sketches of more than ordinary merit. She is a student at the Academy of the Pins Arts, Philadelphia, Mrs. Jarvis is her of the Woodbury Country Clu her of the Woodbury Country Club and is socially prominent in that New Jersey mmunity and Philadelphia.

Mr. Morek is the sen of Mr. Hjalmer Morek, a large lumber merchant Morek, a large lumber merchant of Fred-ilstad. Norway, and descends from a amily that has figured completously in the naritime history of that country. He re-eived his naval architectural education at the University of Glasgow. He came to this country about three years ago to accept a position with the New York Shiphuilding company. At present he is connected with the Chester Shiphuilding Company, which ncern is now constructing a fleet of Noregian oll tankers. The wedding will take place in the hor The wedding will take place in the home of the bride's parenta, at Woodbury, at it o'clock. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Howard Strickert, of Christ Episcopal Church, Woodbury, Mrs. J. F. Hassan, of Duluth, a sister of the bride, will not as attendant, while Mr. Arvid Prisack, of Woodbury, an intimate friend of the bridegroom, will be the best man.

PLAN VANDERBILT MEMORIAL

Granite Column Will Be Erected by British Coaching Club

LONDON, Nov. 18 .- A granite column to the memory of Alfred G. Vanderbilt, who was drowned when the Lusitania sank, is e erected in Holmwood Common, Dork by the London Coaching Club. The spot chosen is close to the main road on which Vanderbilt used to drive his ceach in his Brighton venture. The plan has been submitted to the Dorking Council, and it is intended to erect smaller memorials at other places on the route. Lord Leconfield is interesting himself in the scheme.

James A. Cunningham

James A. Cunningham, connected with he sales department of the Welsbach Comany, died suddenly this morning at hi ome, 475 Linden street, Camden. Mr. inningham, who was fifty-nine years old, survived by a daughter. Funeral arangements have not as yet been con

Weddings

EASTLAKE-LEVY The marriage of Miss Caro Levy, daugh-er of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Levy, of 2297 Wal-sut street, and Mr. Donald Eggleston Eastke, of Chestnut Hill, will take place this vening at the home of the bride. Miss Levy will be given in marriage by her father, and will wear a gown of white satin made with a court train. She will wear the vell which was worn by her greatgreat-grandmother. Miss Theodora Lopez, of Sumter, S. C., will be maid of honor and will wear a blue satin gown: the brides-maids will be Miss Frances Stone, of New orleans; Miss Dorita Morse, Miss Franc

Beatty, Miss Marie Collins, Miss Mary Vir-graia Levy, of New Orleans, a ccusin of the bride, and Miss Mabel Eastlake, a sister of he bridegroom. Mr. Eastlake will have Mr. Harold H Cupitt as best man, and Master Roger East ake, Jr., will act as page. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Floyd W. Tomkins and will be followed by a small reception for the families and immediate Mr. and Mrs. Eastlake will be at home after January 1 at 2207 Walnut street. PECK-RADLEY.

An interesting home wedding will be solemnized this evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Stone Radley, of 3 Sharpless road, Oak Lane, when they daughter, Miss Helen Hormann Radley, will Sharpless road. Oak Lane, when their daughter, Miss Helen Hormann Radley, will become the bride of Mr. Edwin Daniel Peck, of New York, The ceremony will be performed at 7:20 o'clock by the Rev. Edward J. Humeston, of the Oak Lane Presbyterian Church. Miss Radley, who will be given in marriage by her father, will wear a gown of white duchesses satin and sliver lace, with a court train fastened at the shoulders. Her tuile veil will be edged with orange blossoms, and orchids and illies of the valley will form the bridal bouquet. Mrs. Albert Paul de Sanno, Jr., will attend as matron of honor. The bridesmaids will be Miss Gertrude E. Porter of Lawrence, Mass.; Miss Lillian M. Peck of Boston, Mass.; Miss Euchemia Cowan, of this city, Little Miss Helen Dorothes de Sanno will be the flower girl. Mr. Peck will have his brother, Mr. Leonard R. Peck, as best man, and the ushers will include Mr. John Geoffrey Radley, Mr. Albert de Sanno, Jr., Mr. Grenville G. Abernethy and Mr. Henry Erwin, of New York. A reception for 100 guests will fol-

Albert de Sanno. Jr., Mr. Grenville G.
Abernethy and Mr. Henry Erwin, of New York. A reception for 100 guests will fol-low the cersmony. After December I Mr. and Mrs. Peck will be at home at the Hol-ley, West Washington square, New York.

DARWIN WAS RIGHT

"TOO RAW, TOO RAW,"

CRY AT DANCING STUNI

High Alumni Smoker Leaves

Stage After Yells of

Disapproval

Scene—Turngemelude Hall.
Time—Last night (latte).
Dramatis Personae—Several hundred slumnt of the Northeast High School, scrambling for hats and overcosts after the bound, but unusual, slumns! vandeville and smoker.

Smiler.

First alumnus—"It was too raw entirely;
what will my wife say if she hears of tir.
Second alumnus—"th, I don't know. It was merely a Fermin dame. I've seen worse at the Academy of Fin Arts."

stage at Turngemeinde Hall last night.

The dancer had been advertised on the

MEN SHOW DISPLEASURE

her hardly knowing what to say or do

TWO THOUSAND IN AUDIENCE

men were in the audience, and that many formance. Everybody had a good time and

MRS. A. J. .DREXEL GETS WRIT:

If He Starts Suit He'll Go to Jail, Says

Judge

LONDON, Nov. 18. — Mrs. Anthony J Drexel's application for an injunction is the British courts to prevent her husband rom serving her with papers in an action the French courts was granted.

The Judge, in granting the injunction, remarked that "If Mr. Drexel comes within reach of these courts he will spend his time

A London court awarded a yearly allowance of $50,000 to Mrs. Drexel last June under a separation agreement. Late in October Mrs. Drexel sued for her injunction.

MRS. BOISSEVAIN NEAR DEATH

Blood Transfusion Does Noted Suffrage Leader No Good

NEW YORK, Nov. 18 .- Three members

WILL EXHIBIT PENNELL WORKS

Sketch of Bethlehem Steel Plant to Be Shown in London and Other Capitals

LONDON, Nov. 18.—The Corporation of London has acceded to the request that the drawings of Joseph Pennell, the Ameri-

the drawings of Joseph Pennell, the American artist, which are illustrative of the work done in munition factories and foundries, shall be shown in the Gulid Hall. It is the hope of the Government that the drawings to be shown may make possible a realization of the immensity of the work. After being shown in London they will be taken to the chief cities in the Empire and then to Petrograd, Rome, Paris and New York. The catalog will contain an introduction by H. G. Wells.

Among the sketches to be exhibited to

Among the sketches to be exhibited in London's Guild Hall will be included, in all probability, the drawings Mr. Pennell made of the Esthlehem Steel Works in October, man spy and summarily ordered to leave the yards. 1915, when he was suspected of being a Ge

What's Doing Tonight

COURT THREATENS HUSBAND

than a few minutes.

stood the order.

were turned away.

opyright, Life Pub. Co., reproduced by special THE FIRST BOMB THROWER

BIG JUMP IN DEATH RECORD

36 Total During Week, as Against 454 Last Year-Heart and Lung Diseases Chief Cause

Deaths throughout the city during the reck numbered 536, as compared with 459 last week and 454 during the corresponding week last year. The principal causes of the increase include heart and lung diseases and an unusual number of dipatheria vic

The deaths were divided as follows Males, 294; females, 242; boys, 78, and girls, 62. The causes of death were:

yphold faver carlet faver

BEQUEST FOR CLERGY RELIEF Will of Louisa H. Foggo Strengthens

il other visient deaths .

Fund Louisa H. Foggo, Tenth and Clinton streets, by her will probated today, leaves that portion of her $25,000 estate located in the Hermuda Islands to the General Clergy Relief Fund of New York to be apiled to the relief of permanently disabled lergymen. That part of the estate in this ountry goes to relatives.

Country goes to relatives.

Other wills probated were those of Charles R. Miller, 55 North Second street, which, in private bequests, disposes of property valued at $7700; John B. Taylor, 2223 Woodland avenue, $6750; Sophie Keller, 231 Brown street, $5100, and William Falls, 1028 Daly street, $2800.

The personalty of the estate of Francis Kelly has been appraised at $24.718.21; Sarah Worthington $7275.50 and Mary A. Harper $2301.47.

KELLER ENGAGEMENT DENIED

Blind Girl's Secretary, Reported Fiance, Calls Story Untrue

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 18.—Mrs. Inex Milhelland Bolssovaln is reported by her physicians to be in an extremely critical condition. They said probably no more blood transfusions would be made, as ap-parently they did her no good. WRENTHAM, Mass. Nov. 18.—Miss Helen Keller, one of the world's most famous women, who, it was reported, was soon to marry her secretary. Peter Fagan, will not marry him, according to her companion, Mrs. Annie S. Macey.

Mrs. Keller, mother of the blind woman; Mrs. Keller, mother of the blind woman; or many the report.

a result of the strenuous time in the West, according to Miss Alice Paul, national chairman of the Woman's party. enying the report.
Fagan said that despite the statement "When the men speakers go out on such ong campaign trips," Miss Paul declared. f the registrar of Boston that he had made application for a marriage license to wed Mins Keller ten days ago, he had never They have private cars and physical direc-tors to care for them. Our girls traveled on small allowances, often taking upper berths and going without many of the comforts of

FARRAR NOT TO RETIRE Maestro Campanini Denies Temporary Absence From Opera

CHICAGO, Nov. 18 .- Rumors that Miss Geraldine Parrar, soprano, would retire from the stage temporarily "for an interest-ing reason" were denied here today by Cleofonts Campanini, director of the Chiscago Grand Opera Company, with which Miss Farrar is appearing. "Good publicity" was his comment. "As far as I know Miss Farrar has no intention of resigning."

Miss Parrar in private life is Mrs. Lou Tellegen. She was married last February.

HER WEDDING A HUGE JOKE More Fun Than Cage Full of Monkeys.

Now She Seeks Divorce NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—If Mrs. Augusta Baum, a modiste, 'idn't have such a keen sense of humor she wouldn't be seeking a divorce. "I had known my husband only fortycight hours, but I thought it a great joke to get married," said she today. "I couldn't stop laughing during the ceremony. It was funniar than a cage full of monkeys."

Mrs. Baum charges that her husband represented himself as a scaliny man, but proved different. He is an equitet.

HEART OF THE SUNSET By REX BEACH

CHAPTER XXIX-(Continued)

HE FELT called upon to tell Alaire the truth about himself; but with her in his arms he had no strength of purpose; her every endearment made him the more aware of his weakness. Again he asked himself when and how he could bear to tell her? Not come Consults not now when himself when and how he could bear to the her? Not now. Certainly not now, when ahe was trembling under his carcasses.

"I've been busy, too," she was saying. "I sent Juan to the village to learn the news, and it's not very nice. It's good we stopped here. He says Nuevo Fueblo has been destroyed and the Federal forces are all movements. ing south, away from the border. So our troubles aren't over yet. We must reach the river tonight."

the river tonight."

"Yes, by all means."

"Juan is going with us as guide."

"You arranged everything while I snoosed, ch? I'm sahamed of myself."

Alaire nodded, then pretended to frown darkly. "You ought to be," she told him. "While you were asleep I read your mail "My mail?" Dave was puzzled.

"Exactly. Have you forgotten that your ockots were full of unopened letters?"
"Oh, those! They came just as I was caying Joneaville, and I haven't had my 'Star Entertainer" at Northeast

"I'm going to read all your love letters," she told him, threateningly.

"Yes, and you're going to write all of them, toe," he laughed.

But she shook a warning finger in his face. "I told you I'm a fealous person. I'm going to know all about you, past, present SLOW, DREAMY MUSIC

"Alaire! My darling!" he cried, and his face stiffened as if with pain.
Still in a joyous mood, she teased him.
"You had better tremble, I've found you ut, deceiver. I know who you really are."

"Who am 17" "Don't you know?" Dave shook his head.

"Really? Have you never read your ther's will?" Law rose to his elbow, then swung his The truth of the matter is, however, that legs to the floor. "What are you talking about?" he asked. the woman wors spangles. Nevertheless the proverbial pin could have been heard to For answer Alaire handed him the frayed avelope and its contents. drop, and cigars and cigarettes were held He examined it and then said, heavily: I see! I was expecting this. It seems I've motionless in suspense, when the "star entertainer" of the smoker appeared on the een carrying it around all this time-'Why don't you read it?" she insisted There's light enough there by the window supposed you knew all about it or uldn't have joked with you."

program as "Madam La Grace, Persian and Oriental Dancer." The music was slow and dreamy, and even the lights appeared to dim as the woman in spangles advanced on the stage before what appeared to be an enthusiastic audience of two thousand, including several professors. He opened his lips to speak, but, seeing something in her eyes, he stepped to the window and read swiftly. A moment and then he uttered a cry.

"Alaire" he exclaimed, hoarsely, "Read this— My eyes— O God!" Wonderingly, she took the sheets from his shaking hands and read aloud the para-Audiences are fickle. This one expressed its displeasure—that is, most of it did—be-fore the dancer had been on the stage more graph he indicated: Fifth: I bequeath to my adopted son, David, offspring of the unfortunate Amer-ican woman who died in my house at Es-"Too raw! Too raw!" came cries from many parts of the audience mingled with other yells of disapproval. The dancer seemed to hesitate and men looked at each

Again Dave cried out and knelt at Alaire's feet, his arms about her knees, his face buried in her dress. His shoulders were heaving and his whole body was Shocked, frightened, Alaire tried to raise

Suddenly the situation was taken in hand by William B. Koelle, '98, chairman of the program committee, who hastly moved to one end of the stage and the bespangled Madame La Grace retired. lm, but he encircled her in a tighter em-Mr. Koelle, who is an architect, of 435 West Bringhurst street, later denied that the dance had been "too raw," "I have seen worse at the Academy of Fine Arts," she implored. "Have I hurt you so?" te said. Others in the audience disagreed

It was a long time before he could make known the significance of that paragraph, with him and said the dance should not have been put on the program. Mr. Koelle admitted that the dance had and when he finally managed to tell her about the terrible fear that had lain so eavily upon his soul it was in broken, hoking words which showed his deep emoexceeded his expectations, and said it was the fault of the booking agency which pro-vided the talent for the smoker. They had asked for a Persian dancer, he explained, but the agency evidently had misunderion. The story was out at last, however, and he stood over her transfigured.

Alaire lifted her arms and placed them upon his shoulders. "Were you going to give me up for that?—for a shadow?" As one man suggested; "The purpose of the smoker was to raise money for ath-letics at the high school, but as near as I had made up my mind. couldn't have dared marry you last night, but—I never expected to see today's sun I didn't think it would make much differ-ence. It was more than a shadow, Alaire I can see it's likely to raise 'Cain' in the was real. I was mad-stark staring Nevertheless, several of those in charge of the affairs today said that it was the mad—or in a fair way of becoming so. I suppose I brooded too much. Those violent spells, those wild moments I sometimes have, made me think it must be true. I most successful smoker that the alumni as-sociation ever held. Charles C. Whitenack, who sold the tickets, said that at least 2000 dare say they are no more than temper, but they seemed to prove all that Elisworth

"I was so busy at the door," he said, "that I did not get a chance to see the per-"You must have thought me a very cowardly woman," she told him. "It wouldn't have made the slightest difference to me, Dave. We would have met it together when it came, just as we'll meet everything now everybody seemed to leave in a happy frame of mind."

Among those who took part in the entertalnment was "Mike" Dorizas, the Univertalnment was "Mike" Dorizas, the Univertalned the Univertalnment was "Mike" Dorizas, the Univertalnment

They were standing beside the window peechiess, oblivious to all except their great eve, when Dolores entered to tell them that supper was ready and that the horses were addled.

CHAPTER XXX

THE DAWN

JUAN GARCIA proved to be a good guide, and he saved the refugees many miles on heir road to the Rio Grande. But every arm and every village was a menace, and at first they were forced to make numerous detours. As the night grew older, however, they rode a straighter course, urging their torses to the limit, hoping against hope to reach the border before daylight evertook them. This they might have done had it not been for Father O'Malley and Dolores who were unused to the saddle and unable to maintain the pace Juan set for them.

About midnight the party stopped on the crest of a flinty ridge to give their horses breath and to estimate their progress. The right was fine and clear; outlined against the sky were the stalks of countless sotol clants standing slim and bare, like the upight lances of an army at rest; ahead the oad meandered across a mesa, covered ith grama grass and black, formless blots

Father O'Malley groaned and shifted his reight. "Juan tells me we'll never reach tomero by morning at this rate," he said: and Dave was forced to agree. "I think you and he and Alaire had better go on and eave Dolores and me to follow as best we of the weman's Hughes campaign tour, in addition to Mrs. Boissevain, broke down as Dolores plaintively seconded this sugges ion. I would rather be burned at the take than suffer these agonies," she con-"My bones are broken. The devil She began to weep softly. "Go, senora

RELIGIOUS NOTICES

Bugillat

The Rev. H. C. STONE will preach 7:30 o. m. Becital, 7:15 p. m. Organ Recital, 7:15 p. m. PHANK CROXTON, basso, will assist the chorus in the evening, CLARENCE REYNOLDS, Director.

Chestnut st. west of 40th.

FIRST CHURCH OF THE BRETHMEN (Dunker), for Cardale and Daughin sta, Presceing 10:30 a. m. and 7:65 g. m. Burday School. 230 p. m. Prayer Mesting each Wednesday evaning.

ALFRED W. MARTIN on "Jeremiah, Prophe of the Righer Patriotism," Broad St., Theater Sunday, II a. m. Public invited.

AT THE PRIENDLY CHURCH di), and Jefferson etc.

ANIEL E. WEIGLE, Pacter, sunday mersing service, 16:50,
this School, 250 s. m.
treining service at 7:45,
ermon: "Steathanly, Why Not Mow?" of this test and mean, ducational modern pictures. petter, about of Culvernity of Pennsylvania | HOLN COMMUNION, Constant along $15 and Coppright, 1818, by Harper & Brothers Save yourself! It is my accuract fat stomach that hinders me. Tell Benito that I perished breathing his name, and see to it, when he remarries, that he retains none of my treasures."

Alaire reassured her by saying: "We won't leave you. Be brave and make the "Yes, grit your teeth and hold on," Dave echoed. "We'll manage to make it some-echoed. "We'll manage to make it some-how,"

But progress was far slower than it should have been, and the sider woman continued to lag behind, voicing her dis-tress in groans and immentations. The priest, who was made of sterner stuff, did his best to bear his tortures cheerfully. In spite of their efforts the first rosy heralds of dawn discovered them still a long way from the river and just entering a more thickly settled country. Daylight came swiftly, and Juan finally gave them warning.

warning.

"We can't go on; the danger is too great." he told them. "If the soldiers are still in Romero, what then?"

"Have you no friends hereabouts who would take us in?" Dave inquired.

The Mexican shook his head.

Dave considered for a moment. "You must hide here." he told his companions, "while I ride on to Romero and see what can be done. I suspect Blanco's troops have left, and in that case everything will be all right."

have left, and in that case everything willbe all right."

"Suppose they haven't?" Alaire inquired.
All night she had been in the lightest of moods, and had steadily refused to take their perils seriously. Now her smile chased the frown from her husband's face.

"Well, perhaps I'll have breakfast with them," he laughed.

"Silly. I won't let you go," she told him, firmly; and, reading the expression in her face, he felt a diazy wonder. "We'll find a nice secluded spot; then we'll sit down and wait for night to come. We'll pretend we're having a pienic."

Dolores sighed at the suggestion. "That Dolores sighed at the suggestion. "That would be heaven, but there can be no sitting down for me."

(CONCLUDED MONDAY)

HONOR VETERAN SONG WRITER Musical Service to Be Held Tomorrow

for William J. Kirkpatrick, Now 75 Years Old A musical service in honor of William Kirkpatrick, veteran musical composer, who is 75 years old, will be held tomorrow evening in the Grace Methodist Church, Broad and Master streets Mr. Kirkpatrick is the composer of 117 different songbooks and his compositions have been sung all over the world. The program tomorrow night will consist mainly of his hymns and anthems. The veteran musician has compiled a special cities of 120 of his heat-known hymns for edition of 120 of his best-known hymns for the meeting and these will be presented as souvenirs to the attendants. Among those who will assist in the program tomorrow night will be B. D. Ackley, Dr. Adam Gelbel, Prof. J. Lincoln Hall, Prof. F. Nevin Wiest, Frederick Anne, C. S. Myross and Mrs. R. Caster.

RELIGIOUS BREVITIES

The Rev. Dr. Edwin Heyl Delk will preach wice tomorrow at St. Matthew's Lutheran hurch. His topic in the morning will be on The Spiritualizing of Love, and at S. Sa The Doubter and How to Treat Him."

The Rev. J. Gray Relton, D. D., will preach at both the morning and evening services is the tope of the topic of the evening.

A. J. Drawni Biddie, head of the Bible classes that hear his name, will be in New England during the next week to take an active par in the work of the classes there. Meetings will also be held tomorrow atternoon at many churches in the city.

Dr. Adam Geibel, the blind musician, will address the North Branch Y. M.C. A. men's moeting tomorrow atternoon on The Real Basis of a True Manhood.

The Board of Rome Missions of the Refor Chrisch has adopted the program for Home sion Week, which opens tomorrow and tinues for a week. A week from tomorrow been set apart as Domestic Mission Day. The Right Rev. Philip R. McDevitt, Bishop of Harrisburg, will be tendered a reception dur-gr the special exercises to be held at a like College during four days of Thanksgiving set in hears of the golden jubiles of Brether lipiums. Blakon McDevitt will also celebrate aclerna pentifical mass.

The Rev. George Chalmers Richmon preach tomorrow night at 3 o'clock at Eldrider's clinical jecture hall. 1811 Lozan square, on "Receiving Christ Into Own Soult."

RELIGIOUS NOTICES

Presbyterion HOPE, 83d and Wharton sts., Minister, the Rev. J. GRAY HOLTON, D. D.; Rev. WILLIAM TAYLON CALDWELL, Assistant 1018 s. m., Dector Bolton, thems. "Knowing God." 748. Doctor Holton, thems. "End of Brits." Methodist Episcopul

COLUMBIA AVE., cor. 25th st.—Rev. E. V. HART, D. D. Services 10:30, 7:30; S. S. 2:50. Protestant Episcopal CHURCH OF THE HOLY APOSTLES

21st and Christian and Rev. OKONGE HEMBERT TOOP, D. D. Rector Rev. OKONGE HEMBERT TOOP, D. D. Rector Sunday School and Bible Classes 10 p. m. The Rector will present it the second by m. Marning—Socialism and the Church. Evening—Stiffing the Voice of the Church. CHURCH OF ST. LUKE AND THE EPIPHANT

13th et below Sprace. Rev. DAVID M. STEELLE, Rector, 8:50 a. m.—Holy Communion, 10:50 a. m.—Surday School, 11:50 a. m.—Morning Prayer and Sermon, 4:50 p. m.—Evening Prayer, authem and ac-Rector will preach at both Services.

T. JAMES'S CHURCH
Twenty-second and Walnut etc.
Rev. JOHN MCCKRIDGE, D. D., Becter.
8:00 a. m.—Holy Communion.
11:50 a. m.—Holy Communion and Morning prayer, with Sermon.
4:50 p. m.—Special service, under the auapices of the binard of Religious Education.
Freather, D. D., president of Holar College.

10. p. resident of Holar College.
11:50 a. m. and 2:45 p. m.—Sunday School.

Socialist Liverary Society CHARLES W. CAFFIN will speak on "Master Pictures" (Blustrated), temorrow S.p.m., at Broad St. Theater. Music by Hahn String Gusriet. Public invited. Second year, 1916-1917, Philadelphia School of Social Science commences, November 6, 1916. Details as to courses may be chiained by writing to Mrs. Rosa Laddon Hanna, secretary, 423 S. Broad st. Voltarian

FIRST UNITARIAN, 2125 Chestnut at 10 km, manulay School; 11 s. m. Ravy A.P. Rues (CRED, of Springfield, Mass. will preach our 'The Permitence of Personality.' Anthanas (Beloal). Now Praise the Lord, by 21 kWest, and 'He Watching Over Israel. In Mondelsons. Philip IL George Organist.

BERMANTOWN UNITARIAN SOCIETY.

Young Men's Christian Association

Ethical Culture

Lutherne

APPIST TEMPLE, Broad and Berks sts. RUSSELL H. CONWELL will preach 19:30

CHESTNUT STREET BAPTIST CHURCH

OBORGE D. ADAMS. D. D. Pastor, 9:45 a. m. —Brotherhood of A. and P. 10:30 a. m. —Worship and Sermon by Pastor. 7:35 p. m. —Worship and Sermon by Pastor. 7:35 p. m. —Worship and Sermon by Pastor. SPECIAL MUSICAL PROGRAM