TOO PROUD TO BULLY

Let us help him. Not fight him

PACIFISTS MAKE PROPAGANDA BY POSTER
The newly opened peace headquarters at Eleventh and Chestnut streets are well nigh covered with pictorial arguments. Left to right are Mrs. J. Q. Marshall and Mrs. J. R. Lewis.

BUY YOUR TURKEY EARLY

This specimen was quoted at thirty-four cents per pound, dressed. Since there are disturbing rumors of a possible rise to forty cents before Thanksgiving Day, it would pay thrifty citizens to do their own turkey fattening in the backyard or hire a space in a cold storage plant.

APPLES ARE PLENTIFUL IN THE DOWNTOWN MARKETS

These were quoted at sixty-five cents a basket, warranted to be of best quality for immediate transference to the teeth. Holiday "fixin's," of course, are going to cost more this season, too.
