Mrs. Bumpus wondered what on earth had frightened her hushand and she looked and looked. Finally she had to go and get her glasses. Looking again, she saw Misser Elephant coming in the distance.

Hhe was so delighted at seeing him that she ran out to greet the big fellow, "My dear Mister Elephant. I'm so delighted to see you! Many, many thanks for moving us! I knew you would do it when I asked you." "Ahem! Ahum!" began Mister Elephant. "Are you aware that your husband has done me a great injustice! De you know that he has eaten—yes. "Still," went on Mrs. Elephant, "One good turn deserves another!" "But there is nothing to TURN—the rope is gone—but where is your good husband?"

Mrs. Bumpus rushed into the house and upstairs to the bed where she had left Billy. Peeking under the bedclothes, she made a startling discovery.

For the best Evening Lemms scrapbooks the following prizes will be awarded December 20: First prize, 15 second, 15; third, 22 and fifteen prizes of 11 each.

As the scrapbooks are to be exhibited from December 10 to December 20 at the Christman Rainhow Exhibition, to be held at 605 Cheshut street, they must be sent or brought to the club before December 10.

fiet a composition book or make one out of pieces of wrapping paper cut the size of a composition book and tied at the edges with ribbon or string. There are three different wars for you to make your acrapbook.

First, Cut stories or talks from Farmer Smith's Rainbow Club News and Illustrate them with pictures cut from any part of the Evening Labour.

Second Cut pictures from the back page. Second Cut pictures from the back page of the Eventso Litters or from the Inside pages and write stories, poems or compositions about these pictures.

HOW TO MAKE THE SCHAPBOOKS

Third. Cut stories or talks from the Rain-haw Club News and illustrate them with your drawings; for instance, in a story about Billy Rumpus, draw the picture of a goat.

IMPORTANT—Scrapbooks must be at least ten pages long and each page must be from a different date of the Evening Laisua. The date from which you take your picture and club news must appear at the top of each page.

It is not necessary to buy the Evening Laisua in order to compete. ADDRESS FARMER SMITH, EVENING LEDGES, Philadelphia.

Ruth's Experience (A True Story)
By MALVINA KAY HOLCOMBE, Crnwyd. Ruth was going in bathing. As a fact, the always went in bathing in the after-she always went in bathing in the afternoon.

They usually went in, did the Warrens, in front of the house, but today they went in in a place called the guily. At low tide you tould wade ever to the sandbar, it was now nearly high tide. Eleanor was already in with a little girl called Delphine. Jeannette, who was only eight years old, stayed with her mother, but Eleanor and Delphine were already out to the sandbar. Ruth, with her brother Alexander, had just come in, and the two girls awam toward shore to mest them. Then they all started out to the bar again.

Soon Eleanor told Ruth to see how deep it was. It was up to her eyes! Ruth had always imagined herself a good swimmer, but now at the point of this real danger she was helpless.

It just happened that her brother was a spinning swimmer, and he managed to push that and Delphins toward the shore. Then is went back for Eleanor.

They certainly did not wenture out to the ser again.
