Woman Admits Aiding Husband to Escape From Camden Jail by Smuggling Revolver Into Prison

Mrs. Marion Ashbridge pleaded guilty today before Judge Boyle in Camden to the charge of aiding her husband, Wilson Ashbridge, to escape from the Camden County Jail on July 17, when he killed one keeper and wounded another. She will be sentenced next week.

Mrs. Ashbridge is accused of smuggling the revolver into the prison with which her husband did the shooting. He was being held for trial on the charge of killing Elizabeth Dunbar, an actress, on the corner of Ninth and Market streets, Camden, on January 22.

Non e' rita di importanza sulla fronte di battaglia, ad eccezione di attivita' delle artiglierie, attivita' che e' stata anche ostacolata dal cattivo tempo.

Nella zona di Gorizia il nemico diresse il fuoco delle sue batterie contro un nostro ospedale da campo, nonostante il fatto che la bandiera della Croce Rossa sventolava su di esso in modo visibilissimo. Sette pazienti che si trovavano ricoverati nell'ospedale rimasero uccisi ed undici rimasero feriti.

Il Corriere della Sera annuncia che un grosso sottomarino tedesco e' stato catturato dalle navi inglesi nel Mediterraneo. Una nave inglese, dragamine recentemente sbarcato in un porto italiano tredici marinai e due ufficiali del sottomarino, secondo le informazioni del Corriere.

NELLA RUMANIA La situazione nella Rumania continua ad essere grave. Le forze rumene che operano nella valle del Jiu sono state richiamate ed occupano ora le loro vecchie posizioni. Nella giornata di ieri, si sono avute azioni importanti neppure nella zona di Craiova dove gli austro-tedeschi hanno ottenuto i maggiori successi.

Il Ministero della Guerra germanico annuncia che i rinforzi russi sono giunti alla frontiera della Transilvania per aiutare i rumeni contro gli austro-tedeschi. Non si sa però in quale misura, la Russia abbia mandato questi rinforzi in Italia a Berlino si fanno rilevare le difficoltà delle operazioni nella zona montuosa della Transilvania, e siccome questo compito e' affidato ad un'agenzia semi-ufficiale e' probabile che si voglia preparare il pubblico ad un arresto delle operazioni. I tedeschi avrebbero esaurito per ora l'energia della loro offensiva sulla fronte rumena.

IL NUOVO IMPERATORE Il nuovo imperatore d'Austria ha lanciato un proclama alle popolazioni del suo impero. Egli afferma la sua inalterabile decisione di continuare la guerra sino alla fine e di continuare il lavoro lasciato a meta' dal defunto imperatore. Evidentemente egli agisce sotto la fortissima influenza di Guglielmo di Germania.

Il governo greco ha rifiutato definitivamente di consegnare agli alleati dell'Intesa le armi e le munizioni che sono in suo possesso. La consegna era stata chiesta dall'ammiraglio du Fournet, comandante della squadra alleata nell'Egeo. Si tratta di 18 batterie da campagna con un migliaio di proiettili per ciascuna, di medietta di montagna con altrettante munizioni, e di 40,000 fucili e 140 mitragliatrici.

I rappresentanti degli imper centrali e loro alleati che si trovano in Atene sono partiti da quella città forzatamente dall'ammiraglio du Fournet. Essi si esercitavano lo spionaggio a danno degli alleati.

Decision to Sink Greek Vessels Tantalum to Declaration of War

PARIS, Nov. 24.—A Havas dispatch from Athens says that the warning by Vice Admiral du Fournet to the German and other Ministers of the Central Powers, that they must quit Athens was the result of the German decision to sink all vessels transporting Greek revolutionary troops, which the Entente Powers regarded as a declaration of war against the Greek revolutionists.

The dispatch says the Turkish Minister asked the American Minister to take charge of Turkish interests in Athens.

OPERATION PERFORMED ON JOHN D. ARCHBOLD

Standard Oil President Suffers Sudden Attack of Appendicitis

NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—John D. Archbold, president of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, was operated on for appendicitis at his home in Tarrytown last night.

News of the operation was given out at the offices of the Standard Oil Company today.

Mr. Archbold passed a comfortable night and his condition is reassuring.

The attack on the oil magnate's health was sudden. He was at his office during the early part of the week and apparently in normal health. That he had been stricken was known only to his friends.

Mr. Archbold has played an important part in the building up of the gigantic oil industry controlled by the Standard, breaking away from home at the age of sixteen, with only $100 in his pocket, he has created for himself one of the greatest fortunes in America.

LIFE SAVERS RESCUE FOUR

Taken From Barge After All-Night Battle

NEWPORT, R. I., Nov. 24.—Government life savers took four persons from the barge Newark today after an all-night battle with a heavy sea. The rescued are Captain and Mrs. O. H. Anderson, of Jersey City; Benjamin Foley, of Boston, and Paul Vogt, of Jersey City. They were in a weakened condition from exposure and were hurried to a hospital.

The barge is owned by the Boston and New York Transportation Company and lost her rudder in a storm. If her anchors hold she will be saved, otherwise the rocks will tear her to pieces.

Our Winter Clothing for Men

We could picture it in the most glowing terms, tell you about how it is made, its smart style, what goes into it, where it comes from and the service it gives. But when all is said and done—there is no argument that can speak so forcefully or so convincingly to the modern business man as the thousands of Suits and Overcoats themselves, which are assembled here for his inspection.

Men's Overcoats, from $15.00 to $65.00 A very comprehensive collection of correct styles and fabrics. At $15.00, $18.00 and $20.00 there are Overcoats which will appeal particularly to the young man. Hosts of men, however, elect to pay $25.00, $27.50 and $30.00, realizing that at these prices it is possible for the manufacturer to give the best of tailoring at his command. The Stein-Block and Hart Schaffner & Marx styles at these prices are very distinctive—quick to appeal to men of critical tastes.

Men's Winter Suits, from $15.00 to $40.00 Those at the lower prices—$15.00, $18.00 and $20.00—are really remarkable value at the prices, considering present costs of materials and workmanship. The styles are exceptional, too—and will appeal to the young man or the man who feels young. Among the hundreds of different styles are those from the Stein-Block Co. and Hart Schaffner & Marx—$20.00, $25.00 and $30.00 seem to be the prices most favored.

Men's Suits Special! $12.50, $18.50, $25.00 Some special lots, others taken from stock and reduced. They are all smart in style and desirable—the $18.50 and $25.00 lots containing many Stein-Block and Hart Schaffner & Marx models. Suits worth $15.00, at $12.50; Suits worth $20.00 and $22.50, at $18.50; Suits worth $27.50 and $30.00, at $25.00. All regular sizes.

Overcoats Special! $16.50, $18.50, $21.50 Conservative styles. Those at $16.50 and $21.50 are in black and Oxford. The Overcoats at $18.50, in Oxford only. The Overcoats at $16.50 have seams piped with satin; the Overcoats at $18.50 and $21.50, full satin-lined. At present standards they are worth $20.00, $22.50 and $27.50 respectively—$16.50, $18.50 and $21.50.
