

Photo by Underwood & Underwood.

PAINTING THE SHIP'S SIDES

One of the biggest jobs of the many big jobs that are necessary in the upkeep of a navy, especially when the ship happens to be the dreadnought Pennsylvania, as it is in this case.

Photo by Underwood & Underwood.

WRECK OF THE GERMAN U-BOAT 20, WHICH RAN ASHORE ON THE COAST OF JUTLAND AND WAS THEN ABANDONED.

YOUNGEST OF THE CHAPLIN IMITATORS

Little Louis Martin, who lives on North Fifth street, offers this interesting impersonation at the age of eleven months.

SCHOOLGIRLS GET AN INSIDE GLIMPSE OF THE FIREMAN'S LIFE
Pupils of the Girls' Normal School included a visit to the headquarters of Engine Company 26, Tenth and Buttonwood streets, yesterday as part of their day's studies.

MEN AND WOMEN WHO WILL TAKE A PROMINENT PART IN THIS WEEK'S SESSIONS OF THE PENNSYLVANIA STATE GRANGE, PATRONS OF HUSBANDRY

Left to right are Mrs. Ella Seafoss, Mrs. C. H. Dildine, Mrs. John A. McSparran, Mrs. William Armstrong, Mrs. R. S. Rankin, C. H. Dildine, William Benninger, William Armstrong and R. S. Rankin.