

MR. MURPHY, OF BEDFORD COUNTY
This potato, when found by its grower, A. Seas, of the county named, looked so human he almost expected it to talk.

SANTA CLAUS GIRL BEGINS HER ANNUAL LABORS
Miss Olive May Wilson has changed her name to Mrs. Birchall Hammer, but there has been no change in her anxiety to fill Christmas stockings. Her contributors this year include Mrs. Woodrow Wilson and Charles Chaplin.

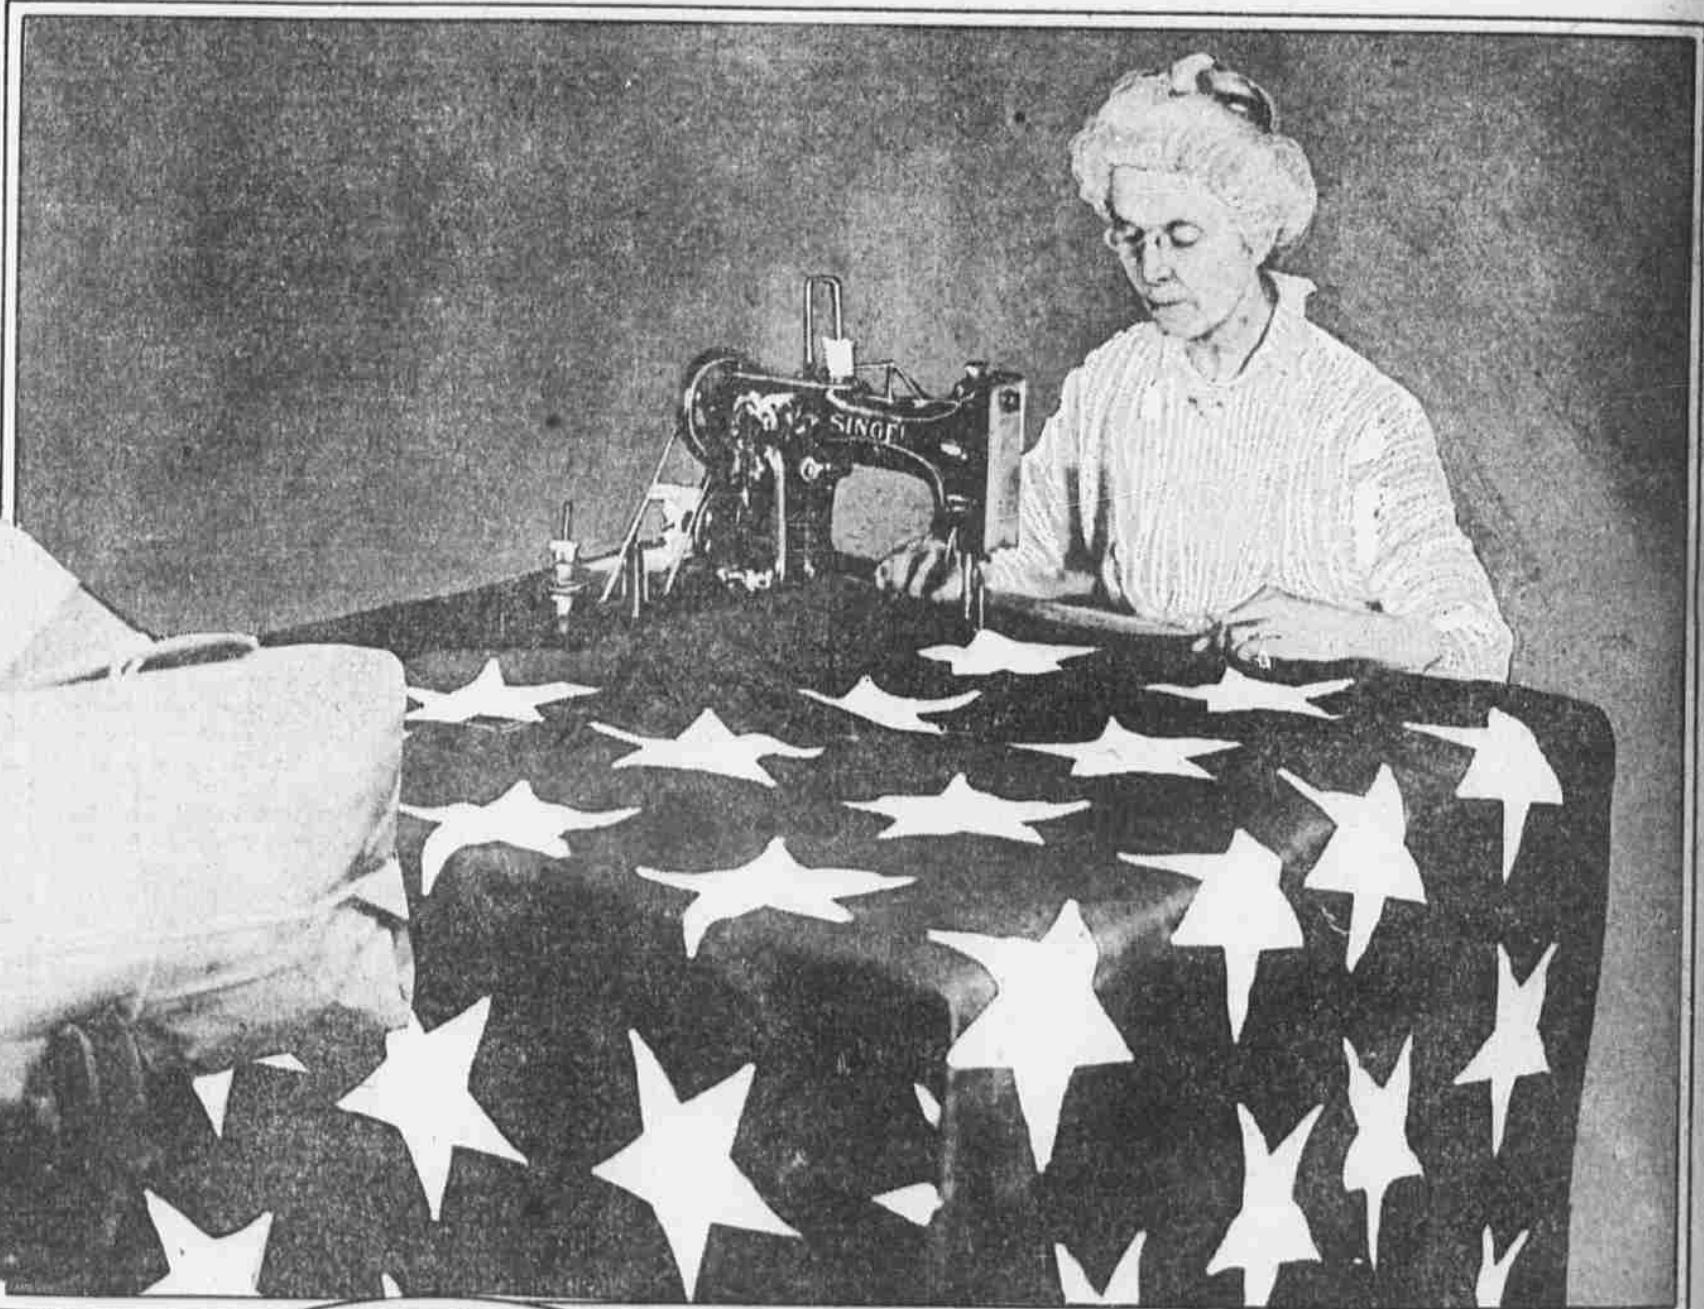

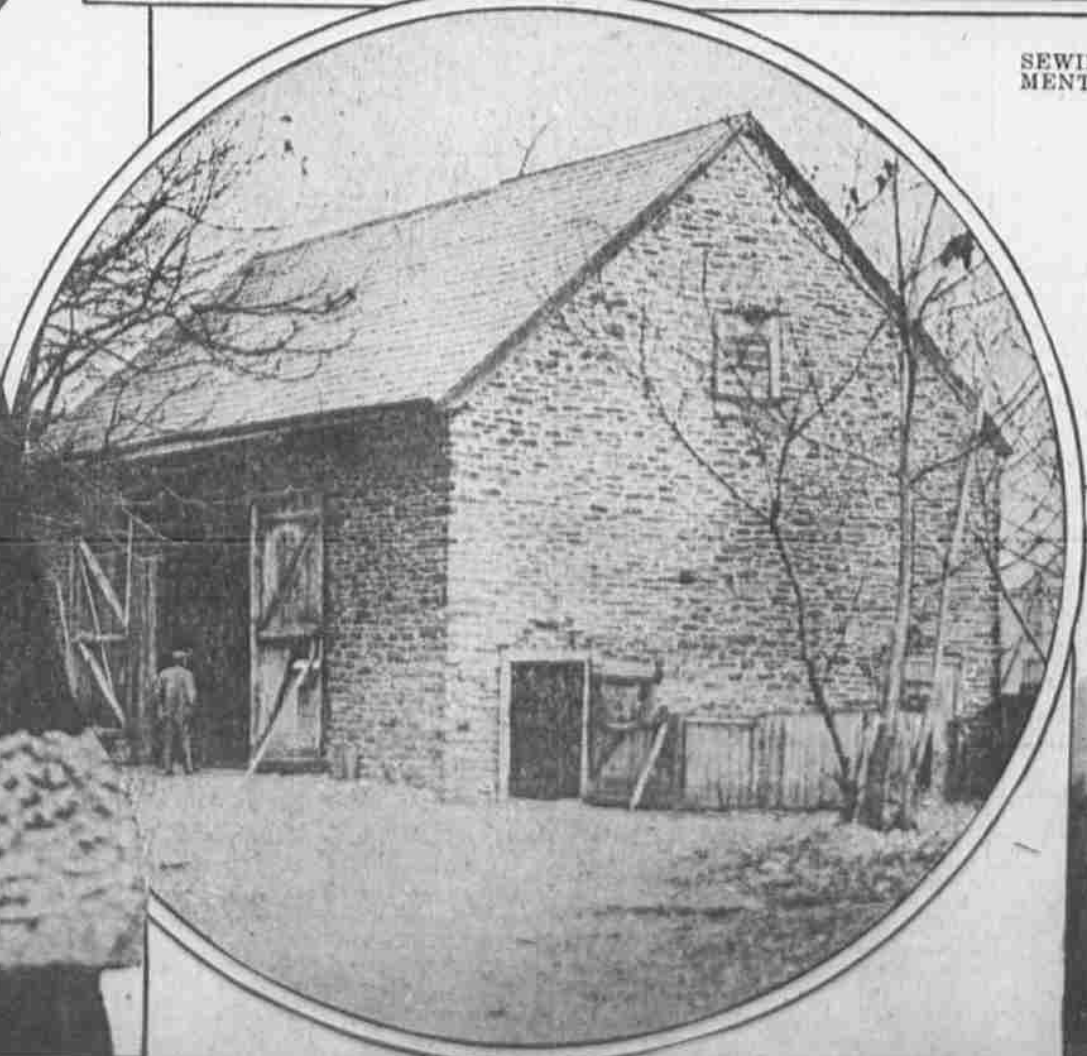

Photo by American Press Association
SEWING THE STARS ON THE STRIPES AT THE GOVERNMENT FACTORY IN THE BROOKLYN NAVY YARD, WHERE ALL THE ARMY AND NAVY FLAGS ARE NOW MANUFACTURED

FOUND! A HAPPY CHRISTMAS SHOPPER
Most persons on buying bent look harassed on account of the necessity of keeping so many different things in mind, but this one was so care-free the photographer asked her to pose.

HENRY ABRAMS MUST GIVE UP HIS HOME IN OLD COLONIAL BARN
Henry and his six cats, after a long and peaceful residence in the old pile at Eleventh street and Allegheny avenue, have been forced out by the march of progress. A garage is to be built on the site.