HAPPINESS BEAUTY'S BEST AID By LUCREZIA BORI

Prima Donna of the Metropelitan Opera Company, have noticed the in-creased good looks of turing the holiday and a state of the few drops on yourself.

I have never believed in an extrava-ant use of perfume, but I hope that you ril "douse" your friends with the scent amed "happiness." and by so doing in-rease your own beauty and charm.

LOOK ON "BRIGHT SIDE" .

LOOK ON "BRIGHT SIDE", The there are always some women who, are when the world is gay with the ballday spirit, find it hard to be happy They allow themselves to be overwhelmed by the annoyances and disappointments that treep upon one even during this time of peace and good will. As a result, new mes appear about the mouth and on the brow, eyes become lusterless and sad of appremion, completions loss their brillancy of coloring and smoothness of teature—in truth the most luxuriant head of hair will begin to show signs of fading beauty if

FIRST WHITE HOUSE RECEPTION A NOVELTY

Only 1000 Guests Instead of Usual 2500 or 3500, and All Have Good Time

BEGINS AND ENDS EARLY

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20 .- The 1000 invited guests who attended the first White House reception last night felt a whole lot better today than any of the 2500 or 2500 who on White House occasions in past years have literally jammed themselves about in the executive mansion from 0:30 p. m. to 12:30 or 1:30 a. m.

They weren't so sleepy and had fewer bruises to nurse.

Incidentally there was never such a nelsy fanfare of Marine Band trumpeting to sunce to the feet-weary guests who had been on file for an hour that the President and his official family were in line to receive them as was played last night. Many of the eldest inhabitants and most regularly at-tending reception guests remarked on the extra lung work of the horn blowers and the special pressure employed by the fiddla Then there are ripe fruits, which as ripe figs and ripe clives, which are holiday deli-cacies. The ripe clives can be used in

There were several Wilsonian innovations. Where other receptions have started at 9:30 or thereabouts, with the East Room actually crowded and buiging at doors and windows, last night's affair began promptly at nine with the big parlor only comfortably filled by the guests converging into the single file line that filed past the President. Mrs. Wilson and the ladies of the Cabinet.

Where there have been heretofore linger-by squads in the East Room, Blue Room, sate dining room and corridors (but mostly is the dining room) until way past midnight, duty one was back home—or ought to have ben—and the White House tucked away for the night by midnight.

It was called a Judiciary reception, but really wasn't. The White House social solor this year decided it would be better "apread the butter thinner and make it # really wasn't. farther" in the matter of guests; so hereafter none of the remaining receptions will bring more than 1000 or 1500 guests at a This makes "foraging for food" at the buffet tables much easier and offers fewer opportunities for spilling one's coffee on a debutante's unprotected back. Still another innovation was the inviting of officials and citizens from all circles to meet the Judges and Justices. Uncle Joe Cannon, with his usually swinging left hand alled in his left hind pocket, and Mrs. Thomas Walsh, widow of the mining king and wearing enough jewels to ransom Berbia, were as prominent, or more so, than any induce there any Judges there.

HAPPINESS is an unrivaled help in mak-ing a woman beautiful and charming. I have seen the plainest of faces become anomishingly beautiful in moments of great baselness. Coming here from Fittaburgh, David Wark Griffith, creator of "Avenging Con-science," "The Birth of a Nation" and "In-tolerance," is in Phinadelphia today to su-pervise the opening of his newest and largest film production. Another interesting bit of news is that Theda Bara is to do "The Darling of Paris," suggested by Hugo's "Note Dumme." The advertisements are so retisent about the part she will enacts that those who have followed Mms Bara's ambittously versatile path might think she had Quasimodo or Claude Frolis in mind for her character. On his return from Lon-don, where he went to stage a version of "The Folles," he will jump into the screen game with both feet. Incidentally, it might be remarked that the Black Diamond comedies, which give rest to the Paramount program and are frequently shown at the Stanley Theatre, seem to be about the only pictures which consist almost exclusively of trick stuff. Of course, Sennett and his assistants are constantly "pullug" double printing and constantly "pulling" double printing and the like, but not in the fantastic manner used in the B. D. offerings.
