

RAISING THE 1917 SIGN ABOVE THE PORTALS OF CITY HALL

Photo by International Film Service.
MRS. BEN LINDSEY TO BECOME FILM STAR
The handsome wife of the Denver Juvenile Court's famous Judge is to appear in a series of pictures dealing with her husband's work among boys.

HITCH YOUR WAGON TO A GREAT DANE
Such is the advice of young Charlie McCans, whose huge dog delights in whisking him and sleigh over the snow of West Philadelphia streets.

THE CHRISTMAS-WINDOW NECK
Illustrating the cause of the ailment afflicting shoppers who explore the length of Market and Chestnut streets seeking suggestions for Christmas gifts.

TO MOTHER OF DEAD SAILOR BOY GOES THE "V. C."
Mrs. Carrawall, mother of the boy celebrated in the report of the battle of Jutland, exhibits the Victoria Cross to British tars.

FIREMEN MAKE THEIR OWN CHRISTMAS GIFTS
George Adelman (left), Wesley Ogden and Louis Krause (right), in their workshop in the hayloft of their station, showing how they have devoted their off hours to the designing of Christmas presents for their small chums. All are laddermen attached to Truck No. 12, at Park avenue and Centre street.