

THE LAST FEW DAYS HAVE BEEN FULL OF JOY FOR THE YOUNG ONES. EVEN THE ALMOST TROPICAL RAIN DURING THE NIGHT DID NOT WASH AWAY ALL EVIDENCE OF SNOW.

SANTA HOLDS FORTH FROM MOTORSLEIGH ON TOP OF BIG HOTEL
 Twenty men were required to carry this Maxwell car to the Bellevue-Stratford roof, where gifts were distributed to members of the Walnut Street Business Association and feminine friends.

SCHOOLGIRLS COOK A TURKEY FOR THOSE WHO HAVEN'T ANY
 Pupils of the McCall School prepared the bird and all the fixin's and then served it to other children to whom fate had been less kind.

WIFE AND SON OF IRISH MARTYR IN AMERICA
 Mrs. Sheehy Sheffington, whose husband was killed by an army officer in the late spring, and son, Owen, have arrived in New York after a secret trip from Ireland.

COUNTRY CLUBS ENTERTAIN CADDIES AT A CHRISTMAS FEAST
 The Huntingdon Valley and Philmont Clubs had their hard-working little bag carriers as guests yesterday. Such a throng came to the former's dinner that the overflow had to be served on the porch.