To All Our Friends

For the past twelve months we have been "plugging away" at the volumes and problems of a most remarkable year, one whose tax upon the business has been extraordinary.

Yet, at this Christmas time, we are glad for the opportunity to pause and express our thorough appreciation of the generous measure of co-operation that has been afforded us throughout the year by the telephone users of Greater Philadelphia, to whom our wish is for every holiday happiness and for even greater prosperity throughout the New Year.
