

Photo by Underwood & Underwood.
FRENCH MAYOR IS SAMARITAN TO WOUNDED ENEMY
 This scene was recently enacted in the courtyard of a farm house at St. Etienne-au-Temple and seems to indicate that hymns of hate are no longer sung even in the war-torn area.

Photo by Bain.
OFF ON A MISSION OF MERCY
 A remarkable picture of a French Red Cross dog clearing a trench at a bound in eagerness to rescue the wounded.

All that Tommy gets—his name on a board and above it the stoical letters, "Rip," which is as far as a Briton's emotion is allowed to go.

Photo by American Press.
A HERALD OF FAR-OFF SPRING

Snappy spring model in tan kersey weave, military cuffs and two trench pockets, declared to be "absolutely new."

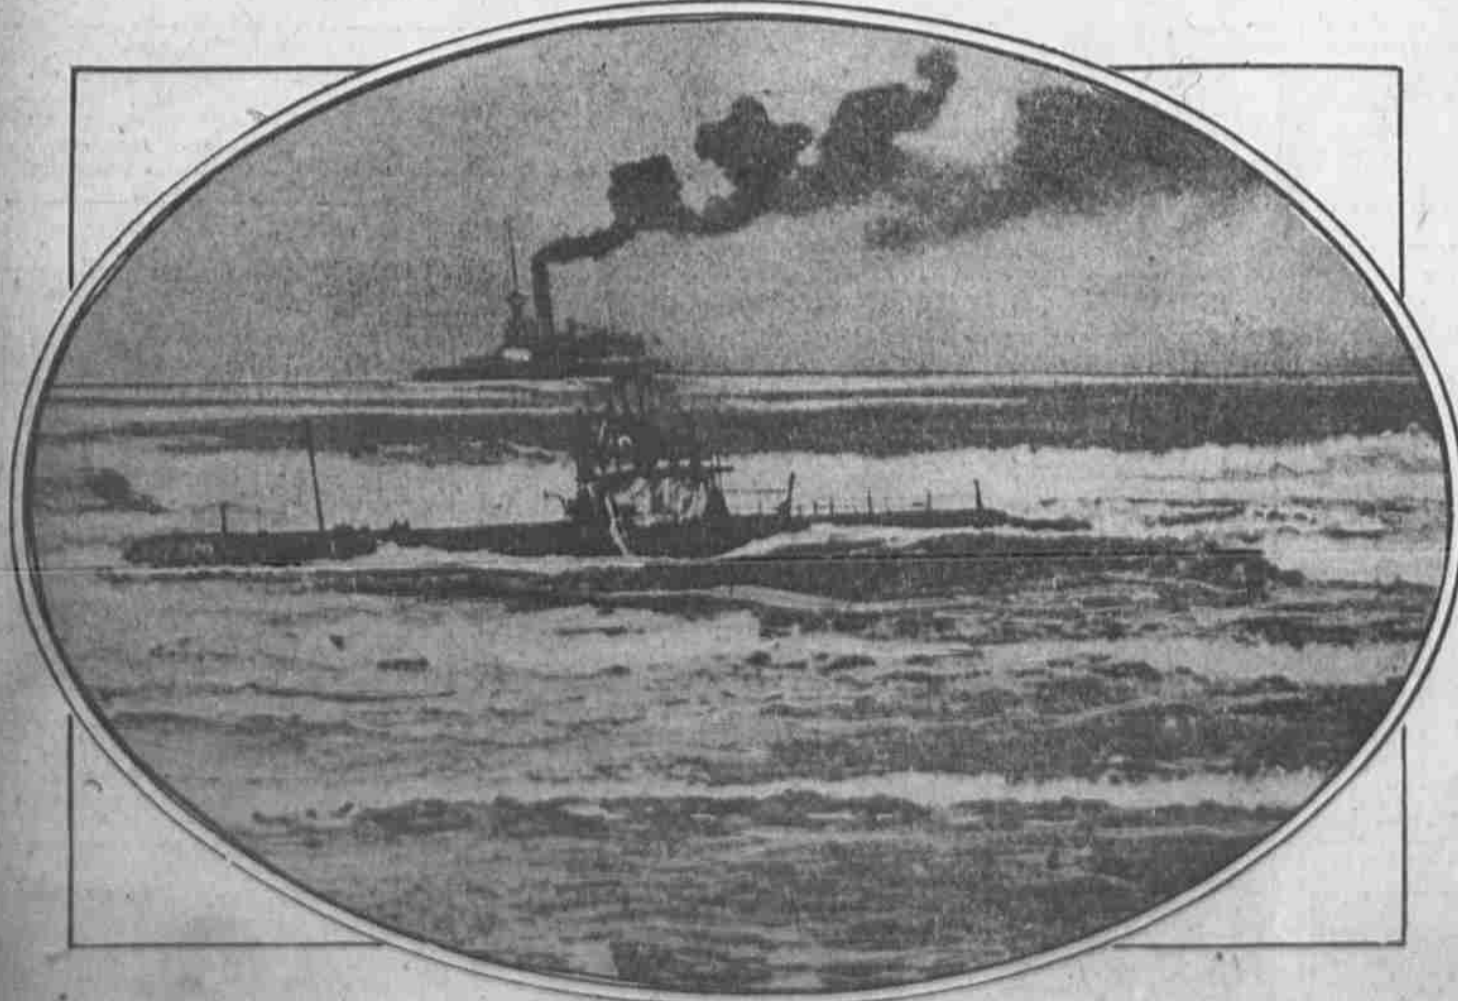

Photo by International Film Service.
PACIFIC COAST SUBMARINE, STRANDED, ROLLS HELPLESSLY IN BREAKERS
 The H-3 ran aground in Humboldt Bay, Cal., in a heavy fog. Her crew escaped. In the background the mother ship, the monitor Cheyenne, is standing by.

ST. ANDREW'S SUNDAY SCHOOL PUPILS IN BIBLICAL TABLEAUX
 One of the representations to be given tonight at the church, Thirty-sixth and Baring streets. Discovering Moses in the bulrushes are Anna Ellinger, Edna Abbott, Lillian Bell, Ruth Saylor and Doris Rea.