

Photo by Underwood & Underwood.
FRENCH COLONEL GIVES PRISONERS "THIRD DEGREE"
 The chief feature of this picture is the expression on the colonel's face as he seeks to extract every particle of information from the two Germans.

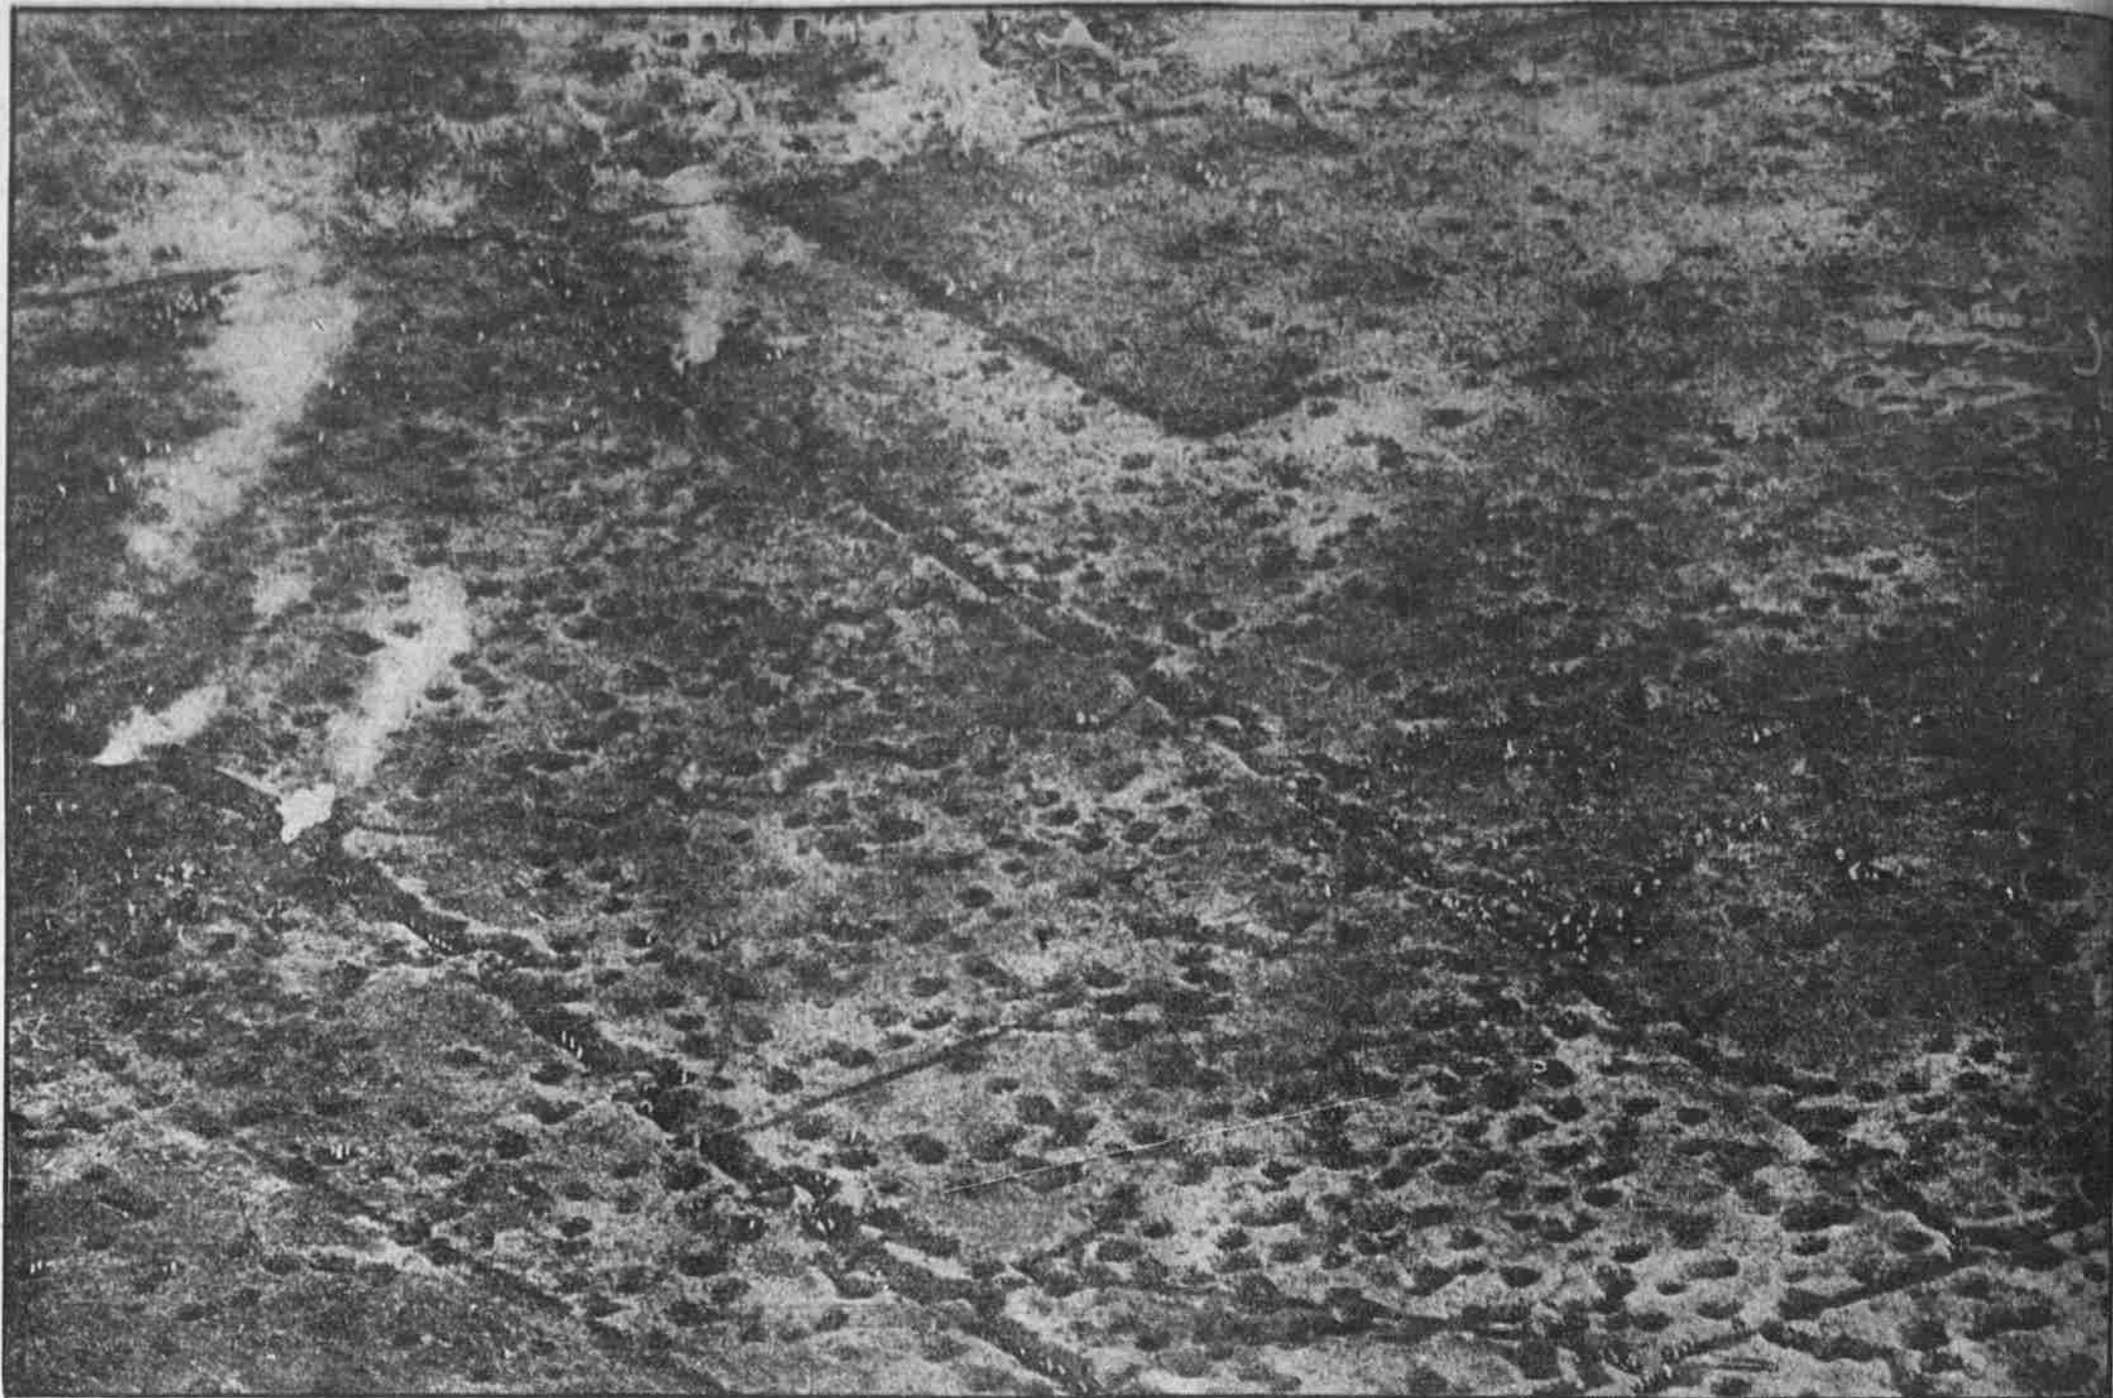

Photo by Underwood & Underwood.
ACTUAL PHOTOGRAPH OF BATTLE OF SOYECOURT IN PROGRESS AS SEEN FROM FRENCH AIRPLANE
 In the upper left of the photo is Soyecourt burning. Toward the village are the German troops flying before the French, who are hot after them. French soldiers are clearly visible running up the trenches and jumping from shellhole to shellhole. Bombs are exploding in German trenches and on the field near the village.

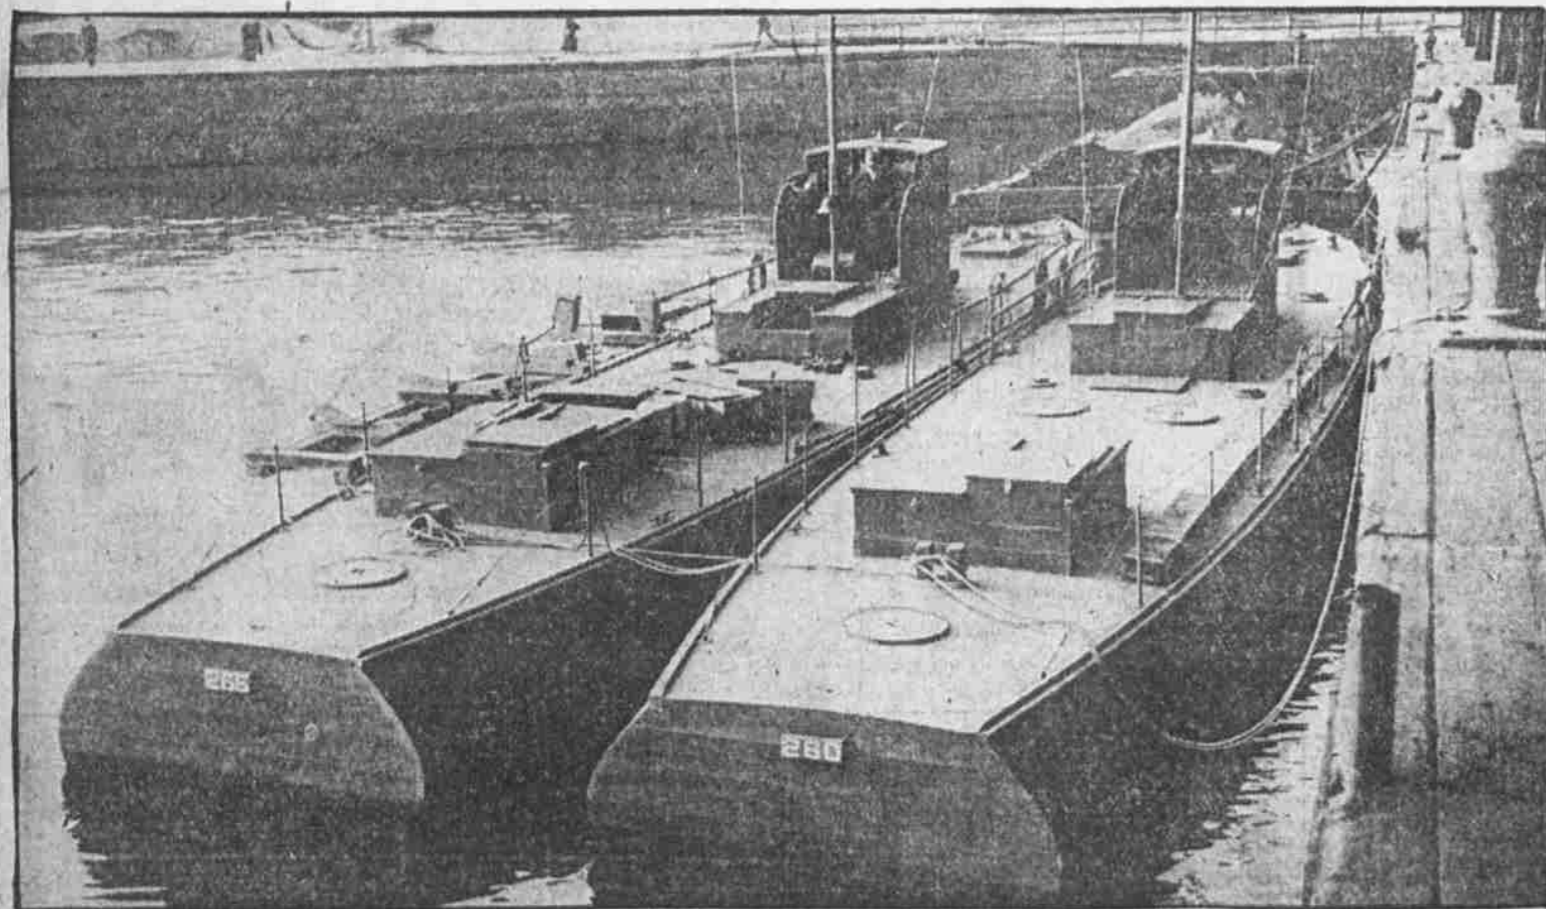

Photo by Underwood & Underwood.
SUBMARINE CHASERS FOR RUSSIA READY IN BROOKLYN YARD
 Submarine chasers built for the Russian navy. These boats are similar to the "mosquito fleet," which has been organized for the protection of our shores. These boats have great speed and will be armed with a three-inch gun.

Photo by Evening Ledger Staff Photographer.
YOUNGSTERS WHO PROMISED TO BE GOOD GET CHRISTMAS TREE IN COURT
 Scenes of riotous joy took place in the new Municipal Court building yesterday when Judge Raymond MacNeill (center) presided over the distribution of gifts to young probationers.

Photo by Underwood & Underwood.
COLLECTING HARVEST OF GERMAN HELMETS AFTER A BATTLE
 These grim mementoes of men who were a short time before alive and active are being sorted by a French soldier for their metal and valuable trimmings.

Photo by International Film Service.
UNITED STATES CUTTER PULLS ABANDONED BRAZILIAN SHIP OUT OF STORM
 The Seneca is sending a line to the listing Nephthys, which the former found and towed into port through a storm that carried both 100 miles out at sea.