SCRAPPLE

The Young Lady Across the Way

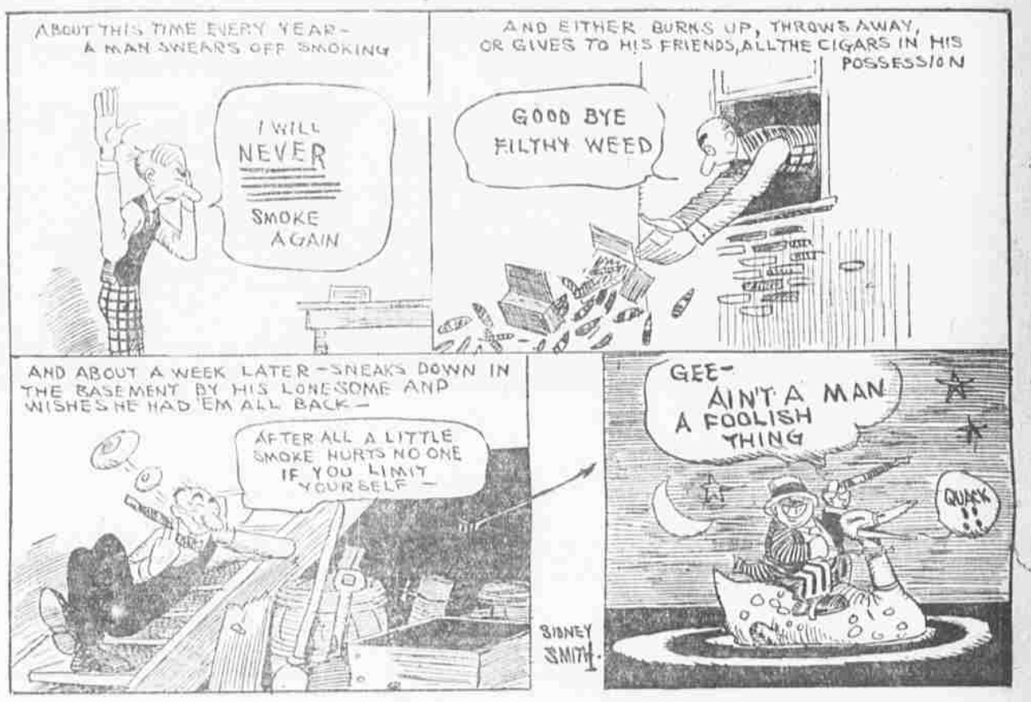
The young lady across the way says she supposes it would be better to have the war go on than to patch up an arrangement that would be merely temporary, and what she would hope for is a really precarious peace.

War Regulations

In some suburbs of Germany grocers are not allowed to sell eggs unless the purchaser will prove, by showing what is left of the previous packet, that he really needs it. If nothing is left of the previous packet he just shows the grocer his neighbors.

THE PADDED CELL

AIN'T A MAN A FOOLISH THING?



Unprofitable

Lett—One never loses anything by keeping an engagement punctually.

Scott—Except half an hour's time waiting for the other fellow.

Experience Teaches

Spiffer—I have often wondered at your brilliancy, your ardours at repartee.

Whiffles—It is more than a dollar, and I'm [illegible] for you. I'm nearly broke myself.
