PREACHER HURT ON ICE AFTER CHURCH BLAZE

$40,000 Damage Done Walnut Street Presbyterian Building by Flames

Ids, which formed on the steps of the Walnut Street Persbyterian Church, Thirty-ninth street pear Walnut, which was badly samaged by fire early today, caused the Rev. Frank Werner to fall and suffer severe injuries white he was extending his sympathy to the Rev. J. A. MacCallum, paster of the damaged church.

A passing automobile took Doctor Werser, who is paster of Mount Calvary Presbyterian Chapel, to the Presbyterian Hospital. He suffered a concussion of the brain in addition to bruises.

The fire, which started in a small building in the rear, caused $10,000 damage.

The good work of the firemen saved the edifice from destruction. With the thermometer five degrees above zero they worked perseveringly, and were coated with ice from head to foot before the flames were finally conquered.

with ice that conquered.

It is believed that crossed electric-light wires in a Sunday school building in the rear started the blaze. Fanned by a flerce wind, it quickly spread to the church.

street, who was passing in an automobite, turned in an alarm. When the firemen arrived the rear of the church was burning. By heroic work they managed to keep the sames from spreading beyond this point. The pipe organ and much of the interior turnlahing were destroyed, causing a loss of about $40,000.

For nearly two blocks around the church the street was flooded with water, which quickly turned to ice. It made a mammoth skating pand for youngsters in the neigh

The site of the Walnut Street Church was previously occupied by the First Church of Hamiltonville, which was creeted causeh of Hamiltonville, which was creeted during Revolutionary times. The old Hamiltonville Church during the country's struggle for freedom was used as a meeting place by the wives of the soldiers, who there awaited news from the front and also made bandages for the wounded.

The present church was built in 1855.

Mr. McCallum said that the work of re-building would be started at the earliest pos-sible moment. Among his first callers today was the Rev. James R. Swain, pastor of Woodland Presbyterian Church, Porty-sec-end and Pine streets. He offered the use of his church to the congregation of the Walnut Street Church until the damage caused by the fire is repaired.

$16,500,000 SOUGHT IN EDUCATION FIELD

Harvard and Princeton Universities and Pennsylvania State College Start Campaigns

Campaigns to obtain a total of $16,500,-600 have been started simultaneously by Harvard and Princeton Universities and the Pennsylvania State College, and friends and alumni of these institutions in this city have already received pleas for assistance in the work.

Princeton is seeking $3,000,000 for an endowment fund for professors' sataries and the purchase of books for the university library. President Hibben, in his annual report, called attention to the fact that members of the faculty had been affected by the high cost of living and that the increase in salaries which men in business had received were needed to the same extent by workers in the siduational world.

The State College is seeking a $3,500,000 ppropriation at the flext session of the self-lature. This institution is a purely ablic one and depends upon the State Government for its support. The fact that 2600 are now studying there, free of will be impressed upon members of salature when State College makes leation for adequate funds, felphia alumni of Harvard are insted in the country-wide campaign to freshold in the country-wine campaign to failse $10.006,000 as a permanent endowment for the University. Plans for the move-ment have been announced by Thomas W. Lamant, of the class of 1852, and member of the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co. Mr. s chairman of the committee that fact the campaign. It is the in-f the committee to reach every one of the 40,600 living alumni. Harvard's paign will probably be the most extensive over undertaken by any educational institution.

Although the actual solicitation has not yet been undertaken either by Harvard or Princaton, a large number of Philadelphians are actively engaged in the work. Generous contributions are expected from several wealthy regidents of this city. The Harvard and Princeton Clubs of Philadelphia will take a leading part in the campaigns of the two universities.

The number of graduates of the Pennsylvania State College in this city is also large. The success which many of them have attained in their professions will be used as an argument for a liberal appropriation from the Legislature. The enrollment at State in 1900 was 354 and the student body is now about ten times as great.

Temple Furnace Manager Quits READING, Pa., Jan. 12.—Albert Broden, superintendent of the Temple furnaces of the Reading Iron Company at Temple, near here, announced his resignation today, to become effective February 1, when he will leave on a pleasure trip to California and the West Indies. He has been with the company for years.

SPECIAL GRAND JURY TO PROBE COAL JUMP

U. S. District Attorney to Present Evidence Against Alleged Price Boosters

A special Federal Grand Jury will be ummoned to hear the mass of evidence collected by Department of Justic investigators relative to the increased prices of coal in Philadelphia.

Announcement to this effect has been nade by United States Attorney Francis Fisher Kane, who said that he would probably ask for several indictments on "conspiracy" charges within the next few weeks The special jury will be called early next month, it was said, but the exact date has not been made public. It is known, however, that special agents of the Department of Justice have been investigating the "boost" in coal and food prices In this city for the last two months.

The investigation in this city is being made by Special Agent Todd Daniel. It is known that many coal dealers have been questioned. Mr. Kane said that the evi-dence was massive and that a special jury would be required to handle it. The next regular session of the Federal Grand Jury is next March. Mr. Kane said, however, that the special grand jury will be called that the special grand jury will be called early in February.

District Attorney Rotan, who is co-operating with Mr. Kane in the coal investigation, said again today that he will bring suit in cases where the evidence is strong enough to warrant it.

It is known that several local dealers held a special meeting before the price of coal that the price of the price of coal that the price of th was raised twenty-five cents a ton, last December. The increase was discussed, it was said, but no action was taken at the meeting. After adjournment, however, the representatives of the coal dealers gathered nformally and made plans for the increase.

Mr Rotan said that such action would be liegal and that he can secure convictions if evidence can be obtained to that effect.

Found Frozen to Death

HARRISBURG. Jan. 12.—David Dink, aged forty-five, was found frozen to death on a cinder dump this morning near the Harrisburg Pipe and Pipe Bending Company's works. It was the coldest night of the winter.

An Electric Washing Machine placed in your home on free trial.

A good-sized washing done in one hour costs only 2c for electricity.

Everything from finest laces to heaviest blankets washed marvelously clean and without a bit of injury to anything.

Charges for public laundry work have advanced. Prices on the Thor Elec-tric Washing and Wringing Machine will advance January 15th.

Orders taken before the 15th will be at the old price -$5 down, $5 per month.

JUDGE BRUMM DEAD:

Schuylkill County Jurist Was Stricken by Paralysis New Year's Day

POTTSVILLE, Pa., Jan. 15. - Judge harles N. Brumm, who was stricken with aralysis while visiting friends New Year's Day, in dead at Minersville. Only the remarkable physical strength and ruggedness for which Judge Brumm was noted enabled him to keep up the struggle this long. He had been unconscious ever since the stroke, although at times he showed indications of understanding conversations directed toward him. For terry-eight hours he was kept alive by the use of oxygen until his death last night.

Judge Brumm while talking to a friend January I suddenly remarked that he was unable to raise his right arm to his head. A moment afterward he fell speechies off his chair. Several times thereafter he showed signs of rallying, but these periods were brief, and when precimonia set in a few days ago he sank very rapidly.

Judge Brumm was born on June 5, 1808, and when he become a candidate for Judge is 1208 it was sirged against blin that he was too old to be elected to an office with with a ten-year tenure. He was required of the Republicana, however, and defeated by the Republicana, however, and defeated W. Schales, the Democratic nominee.

We Really should not reduce these Clothes at all!

The Suits and Overcoats we are now selling at reductions from our low original prices cannot be matched next year for anything like the prices that are now reduced!

I But, we planned this Clearance Sale in the regular way, so let the band play on! We'll have goods next year. and we'll buy the woolens for them as reasonably as it will be possible to buy them-but, we can tell you right now that we shall not be able to give you at the old prices as good fabrics in Suits and Overcoats as there are this minute in these clothes! If the public at large appreciated the fabric and woolen situation as it actually is, we should need the assistance of the Police Department to regulate the throngs that would besiege our doors to get the clothes in this Reduction Sale! The likes of some of the fabrics and patterns in these wonderful Perry stocks do not exist anywhere else than right here today! It's a certainty that many of them will not again be on sale anywhere until a year after the war!

Those are the facts. The clothing trade knows it. Perry's tell you about it; and the only reason for advising you to get in on this Event Now is the desire for your future good will by way of appreciation!
