

Photo by Evening Ledger Staff Photographer.
IMPRESSIVE PANORAMA OF PHILADELPHIA AS A SHIPPING CENTER
At the right is a view of the waterfront and the Catharine street piers from the topmost point of Spreckels's Sugar Refinery, Meadow and Reed streets. Above, huge terminal freight shed and yards of the Pennsylvania Railroad, where goods are exchanged between car and ship at the river between Reed street and Washington avenue. Below is a typical Delaware River snapshot.

MISS ESTHER KAGEL AND PARTNER DO A FEW FANCY SKATING TURNS IN FAIRMOUNT PARK.

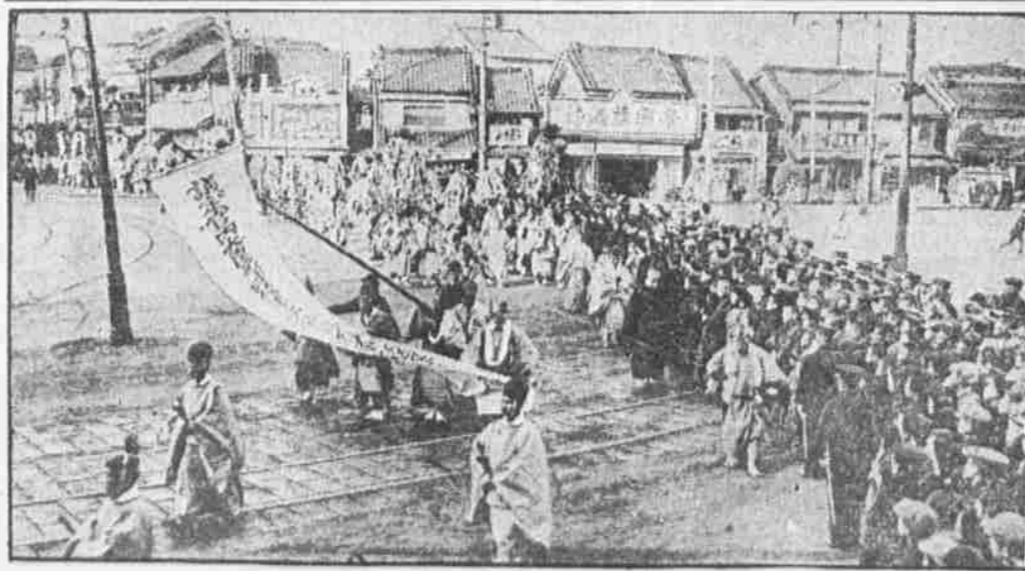

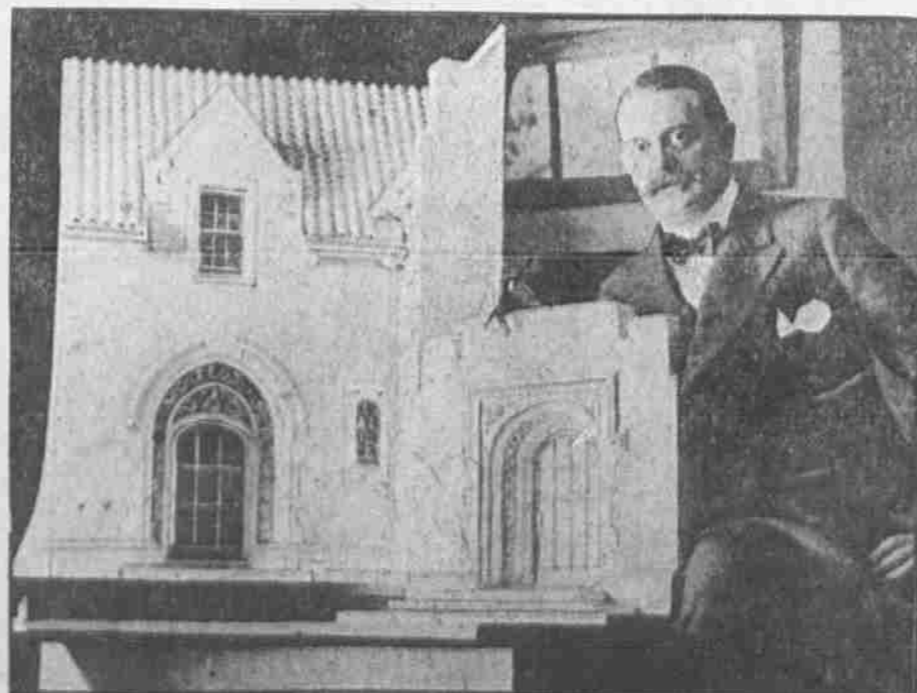

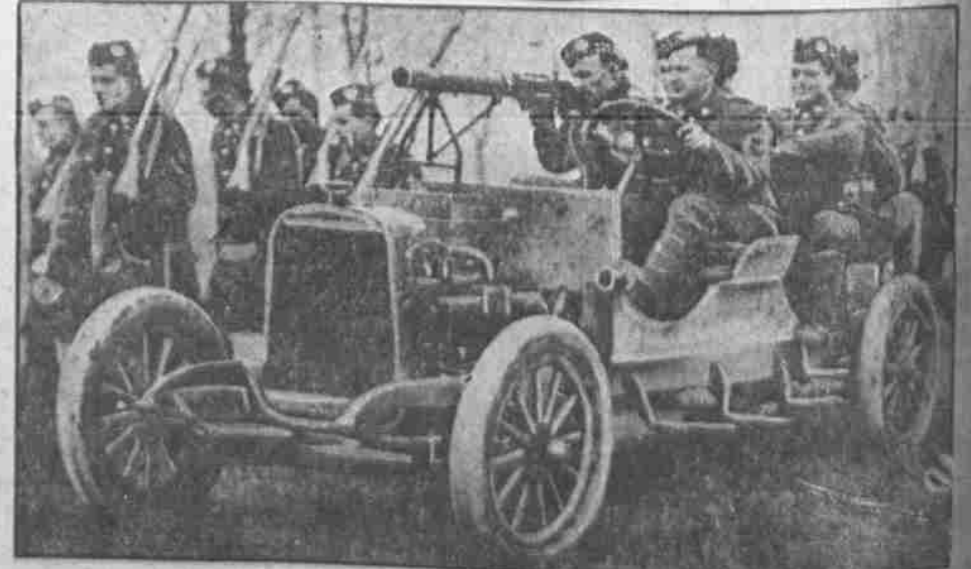

Photo by International Film Service.
BANNERS INSCRIBED WITH HIS RANK AND TITLE ARE CARRIED AT THE TOKIO FUNERAL OF PRINCE OYAMA, ONE OF JAPAN'S CELEBRATED MEN

MODELS FOR THE VIOLET AND NARCISSUS BUILDINGS BEING PLANNED BY ALBERT KELSEY IN HIS ARCHITECTURAL ANTHOLOGY, WHICH HE IS WORKING OUT FOR CARSON COLLEGE, FLOURTOWN.

MACHINE GUN DRILL BY THE 241ST CANADIAN VOLUNTEERS, IN WHICH ARE MANY AMERICANS, AT WINDSOR, ONT., ACROSS THE RIVER FROM DETROIT