

FIFTY-FIVE YEARS A WORKMAN
Thomas Billingsfelt at eighty-two is still active in the ranks at the Baldwin Locomotive Works, where he is overseeing foreman in the brass foundry.

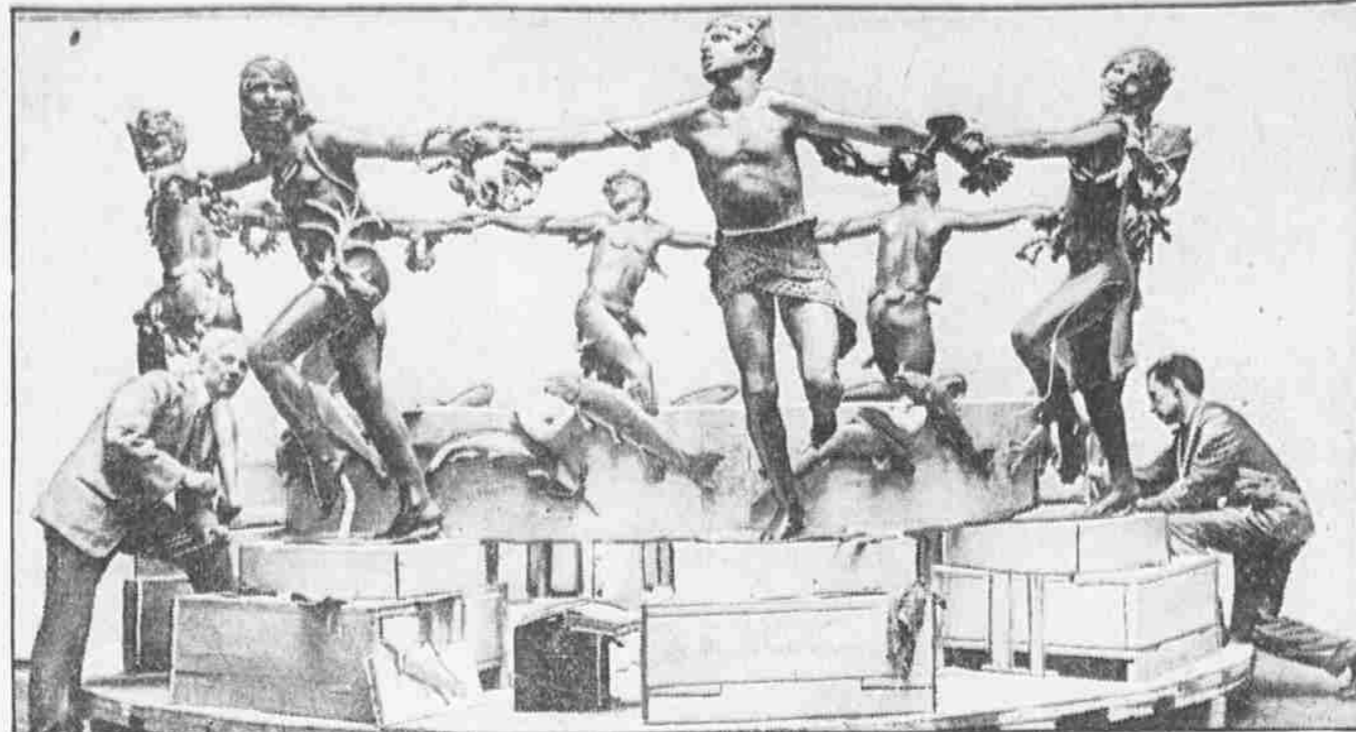

Photo by International Film Service.
"YOUTH" IS THE TITLE OF THIS SPIRITED FOUNTAIN GROUP BEING FINISHED BY A STIRLING CALDER, A NEW YORK SCULPTOR, FOR THE CITY OF INDIANAPOLIS, THE GIFT OF THE LATE RICHARD DEPEW

THE DAY'S PESSIMIST
"Continuous mental intoxicants are undermining the sturdiness of our younger generation," says Senator J. P. McCumber, of North Dakota.

EDITING PROOFS FOR THE SUFFRAGE PAPER WHILE HELPING TO PICKET THE WHITE HOUSE IS THE EXPLOIT OF MISS ALICE PAUL

HISTORIC RODNEY HOUSE, AT GERMANTOWN AVENUE AND DUVAL STREET, BEING REMOVED TO MAKE WAY FOR STORE BUILDINGS

WETZ, THE CHICAGO EGG KING, HAS MADE SO MUCH MONEY HE HAS QUIT THE BUSINESS TO GO SOUTH AND BASK IN THE SUN

Photo by Pach.
THE SPRING SKIRT WILL LOOK HOBBLED, BUT IS CUNNINGLY DESIGNED SO AS TO PERMIT THE WEARER TO MOVE

Photo by Underwood & Underwood.
MEANTIME LEISURED PERSONS ATTEND THE ANNUAL GATHERING AT PALM BEACH
Left to right: Charles Dana Gibson, the artist; Alfred Batchelor, of Boston; Mrs. Andrew Carnegie, 2d, of Pittsburgh; Miss Lynn Curtiss, and Mrs. Charles Dana Gibson.

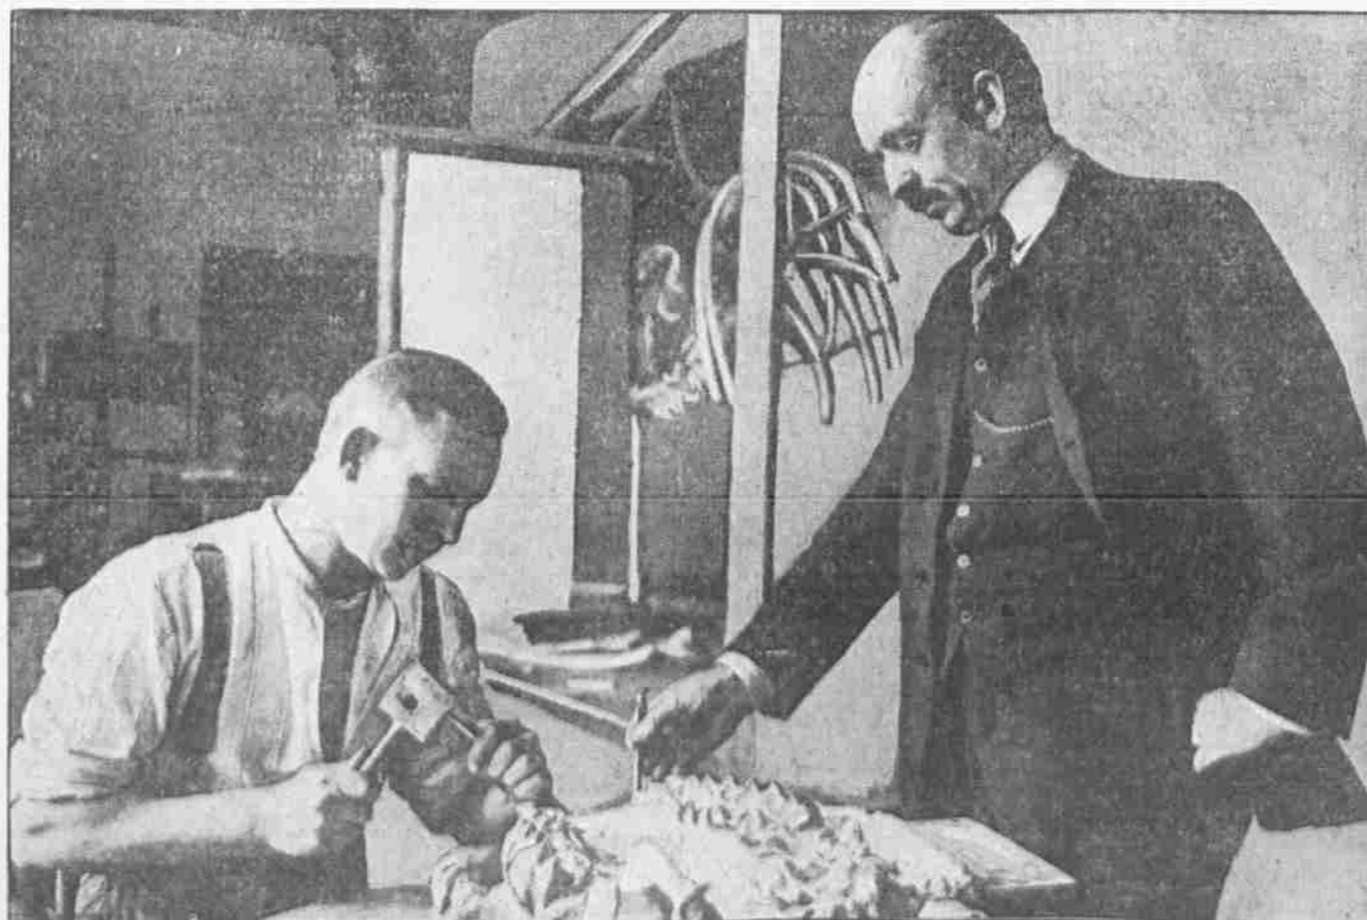

Photo by Clineinst.
SKULL OF A MEGACHIROPS, WHICH THEY DECLARE TO BE 2,500,000,000 YEARS OLD, FOUND IN DAKOTA. ENGAGES ATTENTION OF EXPERTS AT WASHINGTON NATIONAL MUSEUM

Photo by Evening Ledger Staff Photographers.
"MUGGING" (TAKING THE PHOTOGRAPH) OF AN UNWILLING PRISONER AT THE DETECTIVE BUREAU, CITY HALL