Democrat Says He Believes Charges of Both G. O. P. Factions True

WANTS CONGRESS TO AID

Proposals From Palmer for Thorough Investigation

"CONGRESSIONAL investigation should be made of both Brumbaugh and Penrose, and of the charges they make in the factional fight. "Both, I think, are telling the "Both, I think, are telling the truth about each other.

"Since the truth is out, it is due the people of this State that conditions revealed by the telling be eliminated.
"Charges have been made. Now is the time for some one to prove them.

"Investigate Penrose at Washington and Brombaugh at Harrisburg.

"If the Governor fails to get a square deal at Harrisburg let him call on the Senate in Washington.

There's real justice in Washington.

"If Penrose wants a real investigation and not a farcical one let him follow us, the Democrats.

"We want no Penrose-picked juries."

A congressional investigation of both Governor Brumbaugh and Senator Penessis being urged by Democratic National Committeeman A. Mitchell Painter:

Mr. Painter, in a call to acros coincident with the opening of Democratic bend-quarters for the coming gubermitorial campaign, proposes that sine Senator Penross intends to investigate Brumbaugh at Harrisburg, the Governor should, through his friends in Congress, call for an investigation of Penross in Washington.

"I believe that the charges hutled against each other by the faction light are true. Mr. Fainter said. "I know that Justice can be obtained in Washington I would like to see both sets fully investigated.

"I would have Senator Fenross, Governor Brumbaugh, Atterney General Brown and others on each aide subpoenaed and asked to prove the accusations the, have made.

"If Penross limits this investigation to the probing of the Governor and the Sante Department. It will be very clear to the people of this State that his motives are purely political and that his professions of reform and hone-cleaning are luvicocitical.

Mr. Palmer's statement was bound after announcement had been made that I cover leaders were considering the retaining of ex-Judge James Gay Gordon and Junes Scarlet, the Capital scraft investment. I help a commission investigate the princip help a commission investigate the pathemal activities of the Governor.

It was announced also that Corus M. Palmer of Pottsville, probably will succeed Thomas F. McNichol as chalrman of the House Elections Committee.

National Committees and Falmer's call for a congressional investigation of the Brumbaugh charges against Secator Pennas included a suggestion that E. Lowery Humes, Federal Destrict Attorney for western Pennsylvania, successful investigator of the brewers' faush' famil could be at material service in that aveged Mr. Palmer also said that the Democratic members of the State Legislature would light straight down the line to try to make the proposed Penrose investigation of the Brumbaugh administration as fair and exhaustive as possible. Mr. Palmer said.

WILL DO ALL IN POWER

WILL DO ALL IN POWER "We Democrate at Harrisburg and Washington will do all in our power to aid in an honest investigation. We want no Penrose-picked juries, however. Let us have a sharp, double-selged investigation. If Senator Penrose wants a real and not a farcical furgity for him follow us. The program in this connection of our friends at Harrisshure is this:

"If the Saria resolution is voted down, en we will await the introduction of the solution providing for the Penrose joint that, which would give equal representation to all elements. If that in turn is voted down, we will inside that the Leonocratic in the House, and not Senator Penrose, shall name the Democrats to serve on the Pen-

British Freighter Hit 26 Times in Battle With Submarine in Mediterranean

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—With her hull riddled with twenty-six shell holes the British stemmiship Lindenhall came into port today and her arew told of a Ilvely running fight with a German submarine in the Mediterranean. For more than two hours the undersea fighter purpued the recighter, while she maneuvered and took eachty-six shorts at the Udioat with a twelve-pound cannon, mounted on her stern as she fled. Finally the vessel escaped when she slipped behind an island near Falermo and the submarine lost sight of her.

Captain Hugh Jones substantiated his story by pointing to a shell ranged in the wall of the steward's cabin and pointed to other shell-made holes throughout the

The speed of the two ships was about the beat.

The speed of the two ships was about the same, Captain Jones said, and the submarine never was nearer to the Lindenhall than two miles. None of the shells from the British vessel struck home. The twelve-point cannon was removed from the stern of the boat at Cibraltar as she left the Mediterranean.
