CAMDEN opens the third week at the C head of the Eastern Basketball League with the slight margin of one game, four other teams-Jasper, De Nerl, Greystock and Reading-being tied with two won and two lost. Trenton is in last place, having landed but one clash in four starts.

It was a home week for all the contestants, each capturing the home attraction and by goodly scores in every instance but one, and that was at Reading on Saturday, when the Bears just emerged a winner, 34-59, over Camden. The Skeeters had just been away on a trip and had lost the previous evening to Carbondale by a big score vious evening to Carbondale by a big score, the State Leaguers dropping twenty-six field goals through the net.

Greystock and Jasper managed to win one, but the most gratifying news of the week, from a local standpoint, was the fine showing of the reconstructed be Netia against Trenton. Every man on Myers's payroll played sterling ball.

Speaking of Rough Basketball

Despite the desire of cage managers to eliminate roughness from the sport it is evident that the play in the Eastern League has been rougher than at any time since the inception of the organization.

The Jasper-Greystock affair on Friday night has been the subject of considerable comment, and at a fanning bee at Musical Fund Hall all sorts of suggestions were advanced to curb the players. After an hour's discussion it was unanimously agreed that no official can control the men if they want to rough it up when a grudge exists. Fogarty's Version

Joe Fogarty claims to have the solution of the problem, and his version is that always

JASPER SIGNS LEONARD; TO JUMP CENTER TONIGHT

Manager William Kennedy, of the Jasper, Manager William Kennedy, of the Jasper, Eastern League, five, announced this aftermoon that he had signed Chris Leonard, an Interstate League star, to jump center in the game at Trenton tonight, in the pince of Dave Kerr, who is on the injured list. Leonard was widely sought at various times by Eastern League magnates.

Dave Kerr has just undergone an operation for a locked knee, and the doctors at the Episcopal Hospital say he will be around in two weeks.

around in two weeks.

Manager Kennedy says he is in the dark as to the reports that Rube Cashman had jumped to the Wilkes-Barre State League

M'COY WILL BE DARCY'S FIRST OPPONENT, REPORT

NEW YORK, Jan. 22,—Al McCoy has announced that he would immediately start training for a bout with Les Darcy which will take place about six weeks hence, prob-ably at the Manhattan Casino. The exact date has not been set because of Darcy's theatrical engagements. McCoy Tom O'Rourke had offered $15,000 for the bout, $15,000 to go to Darcy and $10,000 to himself. Articles have been signed, and each of the men has posted $500 forfeit

WENCK HEARING AGAIN OFF; JAN. 27 NEW DATE

ALBANY, Jan. 22 .- The hearing before at BANY, Jan. 22.—The hearing before the Governor's counsel on charges preferred against Fred A. Wenck, chairman of the State Athletic Commission, again was postponed at the request of those who brought the charges—Harry Polick, Patrick P. Powers and John White. ers and John White.

The hearing, originally set for January 15, was to be held at 2 o'clock this after-boon. January 27 is the new date.

PASKERT SUITS HIMSELF; IS HOLD-OUT ON PHILS

CLEVELAND, Jan. 22 .- "Dode" Paskert CLEVELAND, Jan. 22.—"Dode" Paskert. reteran center fielder of the Phillies, has received a letter from Fultz, telling him to "stick." "Stick I shall," says Paskert: "I want to test the strength of the Fraternity and see if it doing me any good to pay in $18 a year. I also got my contract back from Philadelphia. It was the same acket that I returned to President Baker. There was no advance in salary. Baker told me to suit myself about signing, and I will." to suit myself about signing, and I will.

DICK HOBLITZELL IS TRUE TO PLAYERS' FRATERNITY

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Jan. 22.—An-souncement has been made by Richard Hoblitzell, first baseman of the Boston Red Sox, that he would stand by the Baseball Players' Fraternity in all its demands, but that he was opposed to an alliance of the fraternity with the American Federation of Labor. Hoblitzell is a director-at-large advanced by Willie Keenan as the only method to keep basketball clean. Read Jon's short speech:

"There is one rule in the book which will end it all, and it is up to the referee to enforce it. It has not been lived up to since the late Eliwood Rutschman worked in this

Fogarty's solution is found in Ruis XX, Section 1, and reads:

"There shall be no shouldering, tripping, striking, kicking, stugging or intentional or unuccessary roughness of any kind. Violation of this rule constitutes an offense, and the referee may, for the first offense, and shall, for the second offense, disqualify the offense, will be second offense. and shall, for the second offense, disqualify the offender, who will be suspended for the faxt game that his team is someduled to play. An offense is a violation of the rules whether committed unintentionally, igno-rantly or otherwise. The fact that an of-fense is made is the only guide for the offi-cial for calling the same."

Other players share the views of the Grey's captain, and agree that it would help the game by excluding the offenders.

Dave Kerr Out

The decrors at the Episcopal Hospital bave decided, according to reports, that Dave Kerr, the big young center of the Jewels, will be out of action for some time, as he is suffering with a floating cartilege and an operation for the removal of the same will no doubt be necessary. If the same is undertaken it will be at east three weeks before he will get back

The rumors that Hough will return to the me-un on Thursday are untrue. Rube ashman wrenched his shoulder in the Freystock game Friday night, so it is a welly badly crippied combination that will Journey to Trenten this evening. No new players are being secured to help out, as the owners of the Kensington squad are hoping the operation on Kerr will yet be avoided.

The Referees' Strike

The "strike" of the Eastern League bas-ketball efficials will hardly occur. It was a detriment to the officials chances of get-ting an increase when the matter became public, and the subject was not broached n the proper manner.

Hearing all sides, one is convinced that certain remarks have been, as usual in all such cases, enlarged upon. Referee Kelly made a mistake in going to President Scheffer, as it is purely a matter for the board of governors to decide.

Now that so much publicity has been accorded the subject, it is not exactly known how the league will view it when it comes up for consideration at the monthly meeting at Cooper Hall on Friday night. Had a petition been prepared by the officials stating the reasons for granting an increase and duly stered by officials stating the reasons for granting an increase and duly signed been presented, the writer is certain it would have gone through. Possibly, when the facts in the case are all gone over, the board of managers will still hold the same view. Whether it is granted or not, this is certain, the men are worth it, and virtually every manager, has admitted this.

President Scheffer thinks the officials are worthy of an increase, but cannot be recon-ciled to the manner in which it was started. The league head says Referee Kelly stipu-President Scheffer thinks the officials are lated an increase of $2, making $9 in all, but all three officials have asked for $10

That Kid Williams is really the best ban-tam in the world; superior in the ring to Pete Herman, and that the Baltimore bearcat could regain his lost haurels if he were given the opportunity, is the belief of Billy McCarney, of this city. Billy is home for a short stay and will return in a few days a short stay and will return in a row days to Kansas City, where he will stape a match between Williams and Benny McNeil, as Englishman. The latter is the same boxet who twice knocked out Benny Chayez. Be-sides promoting bouts in Kansas City, Mcfarney also is endeavoring to bring about the dethronement of Jess Willard with Carl Morris doing the dethroning. Billy says the original White Hope has improved no much sines taking him in tow that he hasn't the slightest doubt the Oklahor could win from the Kansan.

Wille Jackson will box at the Olympia the second week in February. As yet no opponent has been selected for him. Johnny Nelson is unilous for another crack at the jumping Jack Vew Yorler.

Nat C. Goodwin has gone and incorporated himself. The oft-wedded character player, whose once-wife, Maxine Elliott, has signed with Goldwyn, is now part of the Nat C. Goodwin Film Company, under the laws of Wisconsin. Mr. Goodwin will put up a studie on his ranch at San Juanita, Cal. It is his plan to produce on the screen many of his big stage successes. Inasmuch as "Cameo Kirby," "Nathan Hale," "When We Were Twenty-one" and various others of his repertory have already been done, one would think the task a little difficult. Few persons remember Goodwin's entry North store, which has resulted in hundreds of poor families receiving planos in the last few years, is made possible through the large numbers of old planos received by the store in exchange for the Lester player-plano. These planos formerly were sold, but the idea of supplying the foundations for musical education for children appealed to the management. few persons remember Goodwin's entry into pictures, with a curiously crude production of "Oliver Twist," in which he acted very well indeed. That was about five years ago,

The girl was found unconscious in her room, with a bullet wound in the right temple. A revolver was lying close to the body. The girl was taken to the Chester Hondial, where she died.

According to Fleyas, he quarreled with his intended bride over a proposed trip to a nearby town. She pressed him to ramain, but he was obdurate, and after she left the door of his room, he says, he heard a shor. This was contradicted in part by the board. Roscoe Arbuckle, the noted Fatty, after months of silence, is again in the mince-ple arena. He will produce two-reel farces, beginning the first of March, for Paramount. He will appear in these also. Fatty has been one of the most popular figures in nimdom for several years.

The fourth Mary Pickford-Arteraft release will be "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm," by Kate Douglas Wiggin. It was played on the stage by Edith Taliaferro, who is now in the movies. The story is concerned with the adventures of a poor New England child, a sort of inoffensive forerunner of "Pollyanna."
