

Photo by International Film Service.
WRECKS OF THE SUBMARINE H-3 AND IN THE DISTANCE THE CRUISER MILWAUKEE, WHICH STRANDED IN TRYING TO HELP THE LITTLE BOAT OFF THE COAST OF CALIFORNIA

$85,000 HOUSEBOAT FOR L. H. ARMOUR, CHICAGO, WHO IS SEEN AT RIGHT IN UPPER PICTURE, LAUNCHED AT MATHIS YARDS, CAMDEN. WITH MR. ARMOUR ARE MR. AND MRS. C. W. LITTLEFIELD AND MRS. FRANK HIBBARD

Photo by International Film Service.
PRESIDENT ISAAC SHARPLESS, OF HAVERFORD COLLEGE, PHOTOGRAPHED ON HIS RETURN FROM A TRIP TO ENGLAND

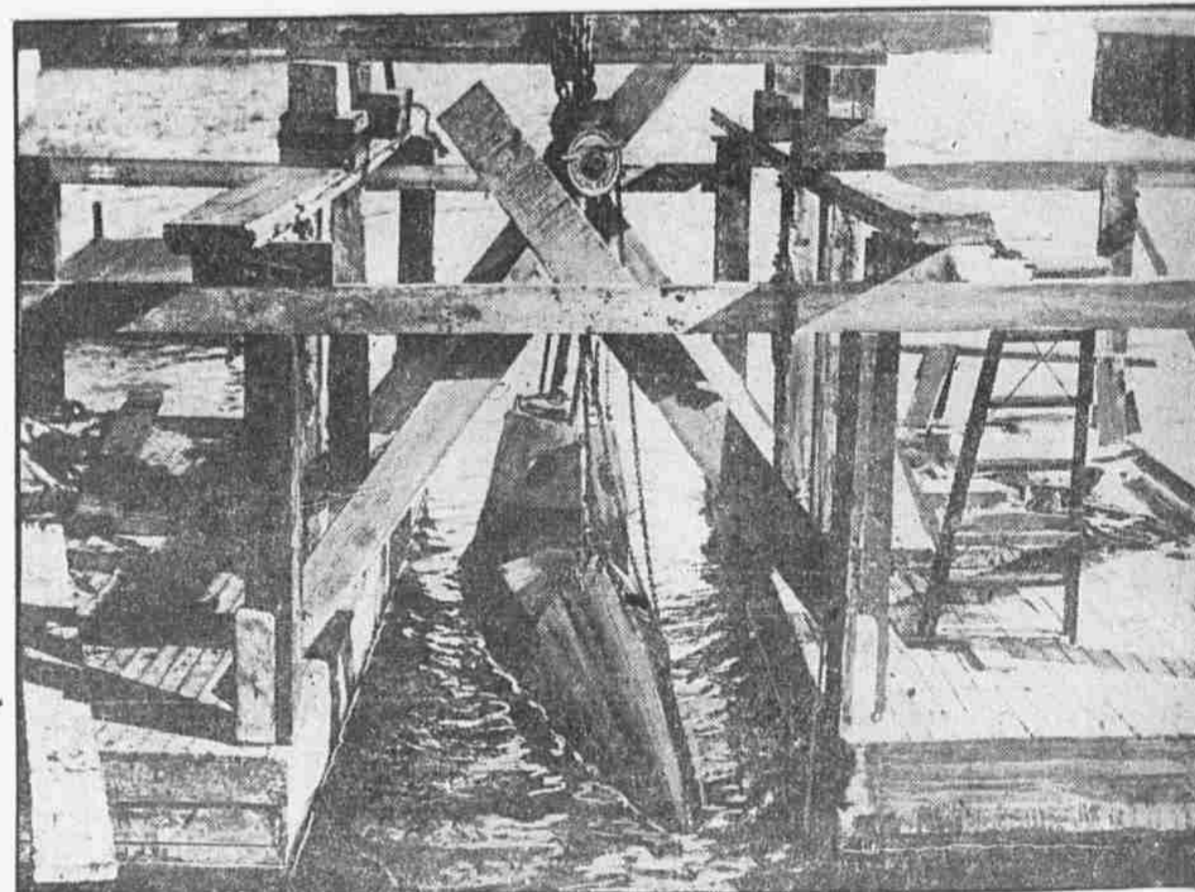

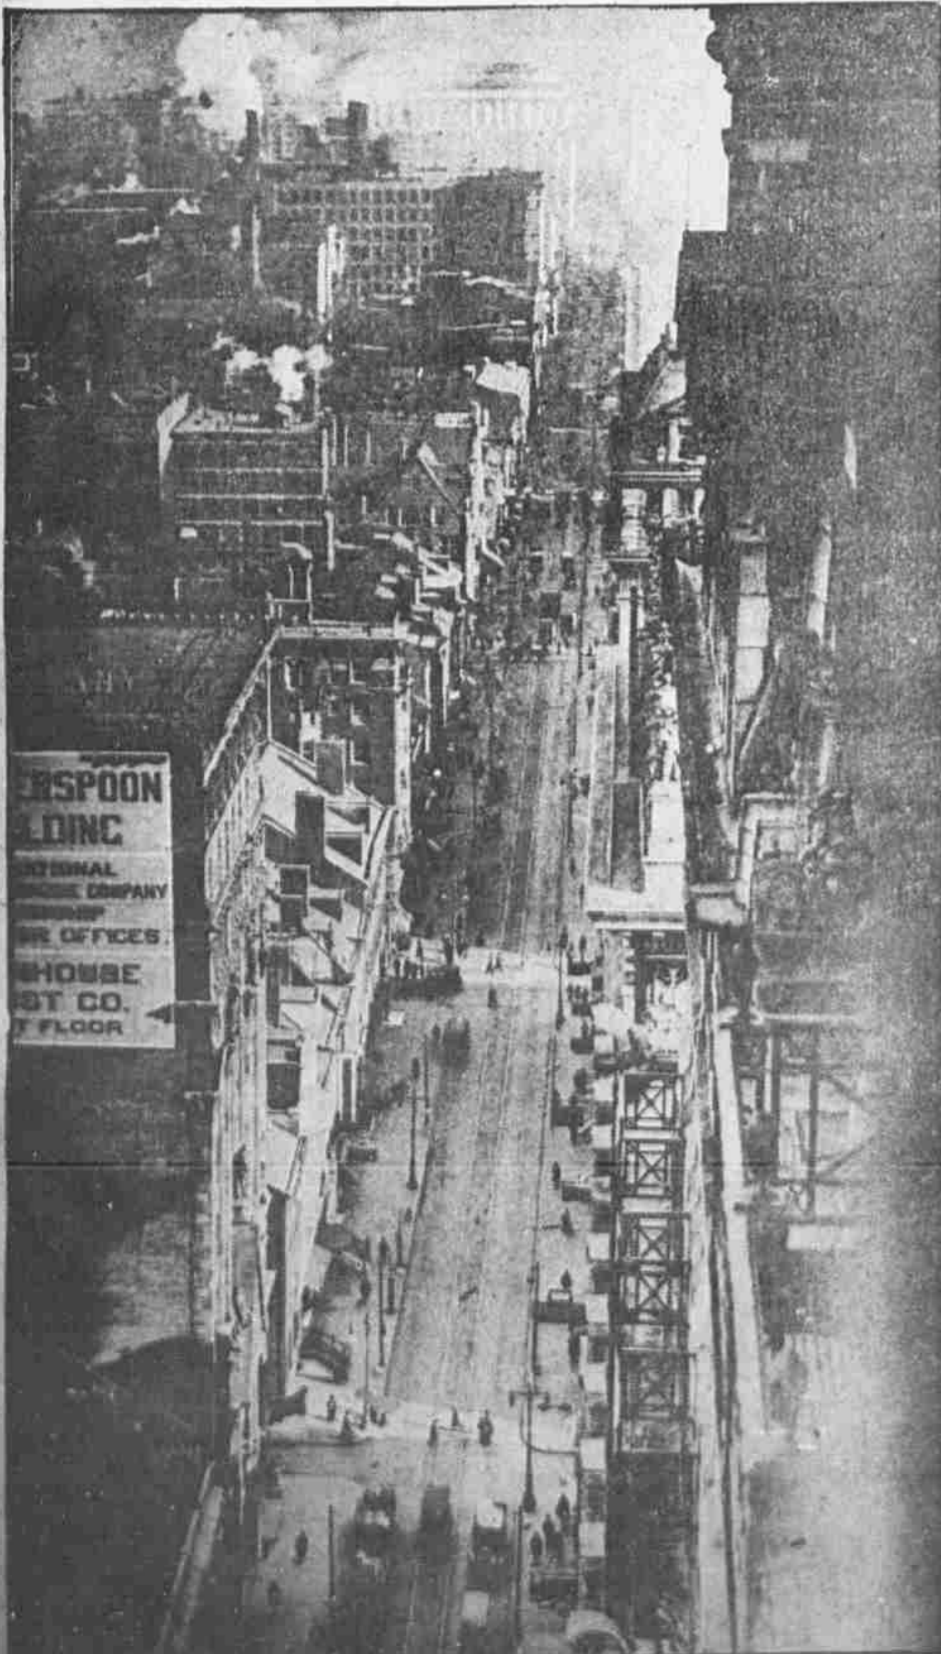

Photo by International Film Service.
"ONE-MAN SUBMARINE" RECENTLY TESTED BY UNITED STATES NAVY MAY BE TYPE GERMAN RAIDERS ARE CARRYING. IT IS TWENTY-FIVE FEET LONG AND ATTAINS HIGH SPEED WHEN RUN ON SURFACE

ANTHONY NELSON, OLD CIRCUS MAN, STAGES PIGEON ACT EVERY DAY AT NOON NEAR HIS RESTAURANT, FORTY-NINTH STREET AND WOODLAND AVENUE

WALNUT STREET THROUGH DECEMBER FOG
A vista looking east from the top of the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel

Photo by Underwood & Underwood.
AT THE ILLUSTRATORS' BALL IN NEW YORK
Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Cobb were among the prominent patrons at this annual gathering of celebrities.

BERNARD T. MILLIGAN, 3D, READING THE NEWS IN THE EVENING LEDGER DOWN ON THE BORDER

SIAMESE TWINS inseparably joined, are new arrivals at museum on Market street.

RUSSIANS NAVIGATE THE CAUCASUS ON THE SHIP OF THE DESERT
War camels are in extensive use by the English and Turks, but not everybody knows that the Russian army uses them in large numbers.