

SCHOOL GIRLS REVEAL HANDINESS WITH NEEDLE
Miss Louise Toyer, of the Dunlap School, proudly displaying the costume she made for herself.

GRADE 8-B, COMPRISING GIRLS FROM EIGHT TO FIFTEEN, EXHIBIT THE GARMENTS THEY PLANNED AND SEWED ALL BY THEMSELVES

A SHIRTWAIST MAKING TRIO
Left to right are Misses Margaret Orr, Helen Gallagher and Evelyn Hansen, also of Dunlap School.

HORSE THAT COUNTS TAPS OF FIRE ALARM
Dick, of Truck No. 6, in service twenty-two years, has given proof that he can count up to ten.

DECOY DUCKS THAT BROUGHT RAID FROM A CRUISING EAGLE
A moment after this picture of a Philadelphia hunter in South Carolina was taken an eagle swooped down and carried off one of the ducks. Judge his feelings when he found it was a wooden one.

STARTING HUNT FOR TWO ARMY AVIATORS LOST IN MEXICO
Major Laham outlining to rescuing airmen routes they are to follow in searching for the missing men.

PHILADELPHIAN'S "DEER-SHINING" DEVICE
The head searchlight catches reflections in the quarry's eyes when hunting on water at night.

MISS ETHEL CAMPBELL, OF PHILADELPHIA, RIDING A "SEAHORSE," THE LATEST FAD OF THE MIDWINTER BATHERS IN THE SURF AT PALM BEACH

ONE OF THE "DIRECT RIGHTS OF WAY" ON THE SEA WHICH PRESIDENT WILSON MAY HAVE HAD IN MIND WHEN HE SUGGESTED THEIR NEUTRALIZATION—THE BOSPHORUS, THE EASTERN END OF THE TURKISH STRAITS