WILSON LEAGUE PLAN WOULD DRAW U. S. INTO WAR, GARDNER ASSERTS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.

An international court and a league to en-force peace, as proposed by President Wil-son in his recent address before the United States Senate, might draw the United States into a European or an Asiatic war, Representative Augustus P. Gardner, Mas-sachusetts, declared before the National Security League here today. Gardner denounced the President's speech, derided the idea of a "peace without victory," and dealed the practicality of "concert of nations" to enforce "a lasting Dente
