LONDON STOCK MARKET

Business Is Slow-Americans Waver, but Are Listless

LONDON, Jan. 27 .- There was no feature to the stock markets today. While steady, they were slow and of the usual week-end character.

The gilt-edged section was dull and un-changed. Foreigners were idle but firm. Brazilian. Argentine. Chilian and Chinese pecurities are expected to be requisitioned first by the Treasury.

These descriptions were cheerful and some of them were stronger, dealers being desirous of making quotations at which issues will be loaned or sold to the Gov-ernment as high as possible.

Americans wavered, but were listless. Home rails were sustained. Oils were caster. In sympathy with the staple, rub-bers were dull. Allied bonds were good. Japanese moved upward on the China-Japan settlement.
