"Thank you," replied Charlle Chick, as he sauntored forth into the lot. By and by he saw something moving toward him, Remembering what his mother had said, he looked and saw that the ob-lert had two legs. Sure enough! If was Buddle from the big house coming to feed the chickens.

Such a scampering in the hen yard: Charlie was soon surrounded by a lot of other chickens, all bent on having their share of corn. When he and his mother had eaten their fill, they both went back to the coop and Charlie said: "I saw Buddle coming and I knew that he may a friend hereine he had two here:

the Hahnemann Hospital and Medical College, Among additional patronesses and boxholders are found the names of Mrs. Edward T. Statesbury, who, though absent herself from the city, has taken tickets for the affair and will send some one in her place; Mrs. Harry B. French. Mrs. Gibson Bell, Mrs. Harry C. Potter. Mrs. William T. Carter, Mrs. William Horstmann and several ethers.

THE recital is under the auspices of I the Board of Women Managers, an organization of energetic women who devote much of their time to the interests of the hospital and college. The direct supervision of the affair is in the hands of the board's committee on entertainment, which is composed of the following: Mrs. Ciarence Eartlett, chairman; Mrs. W. J. Montgomery, Mrs. William P. Barba, Mrs. T. H. Carmich el, Mrs. Jay Gates, Mrs. Jeseph S. Mcaulloch, Mrs. Walter Madeira, Mrs. Biddle R. Marsden Mrs. Dorothy Potter, Mrs. Howard Cameron Potts, Mrs. George C. Thomas, Jr. and Mrs. John H. Whittaker,

A touch of particular interest is given the program for the recital by the fact that the operatic contralto will sing four songs written by her gifted husband, Sidney Homer.
