

Photo by Thompson.

"MELISANDE" AS A WAR NURSE
Marguerite Carre, famous star of the Maeterlinck-Debussy opera, as she appears at her post on hospital train.

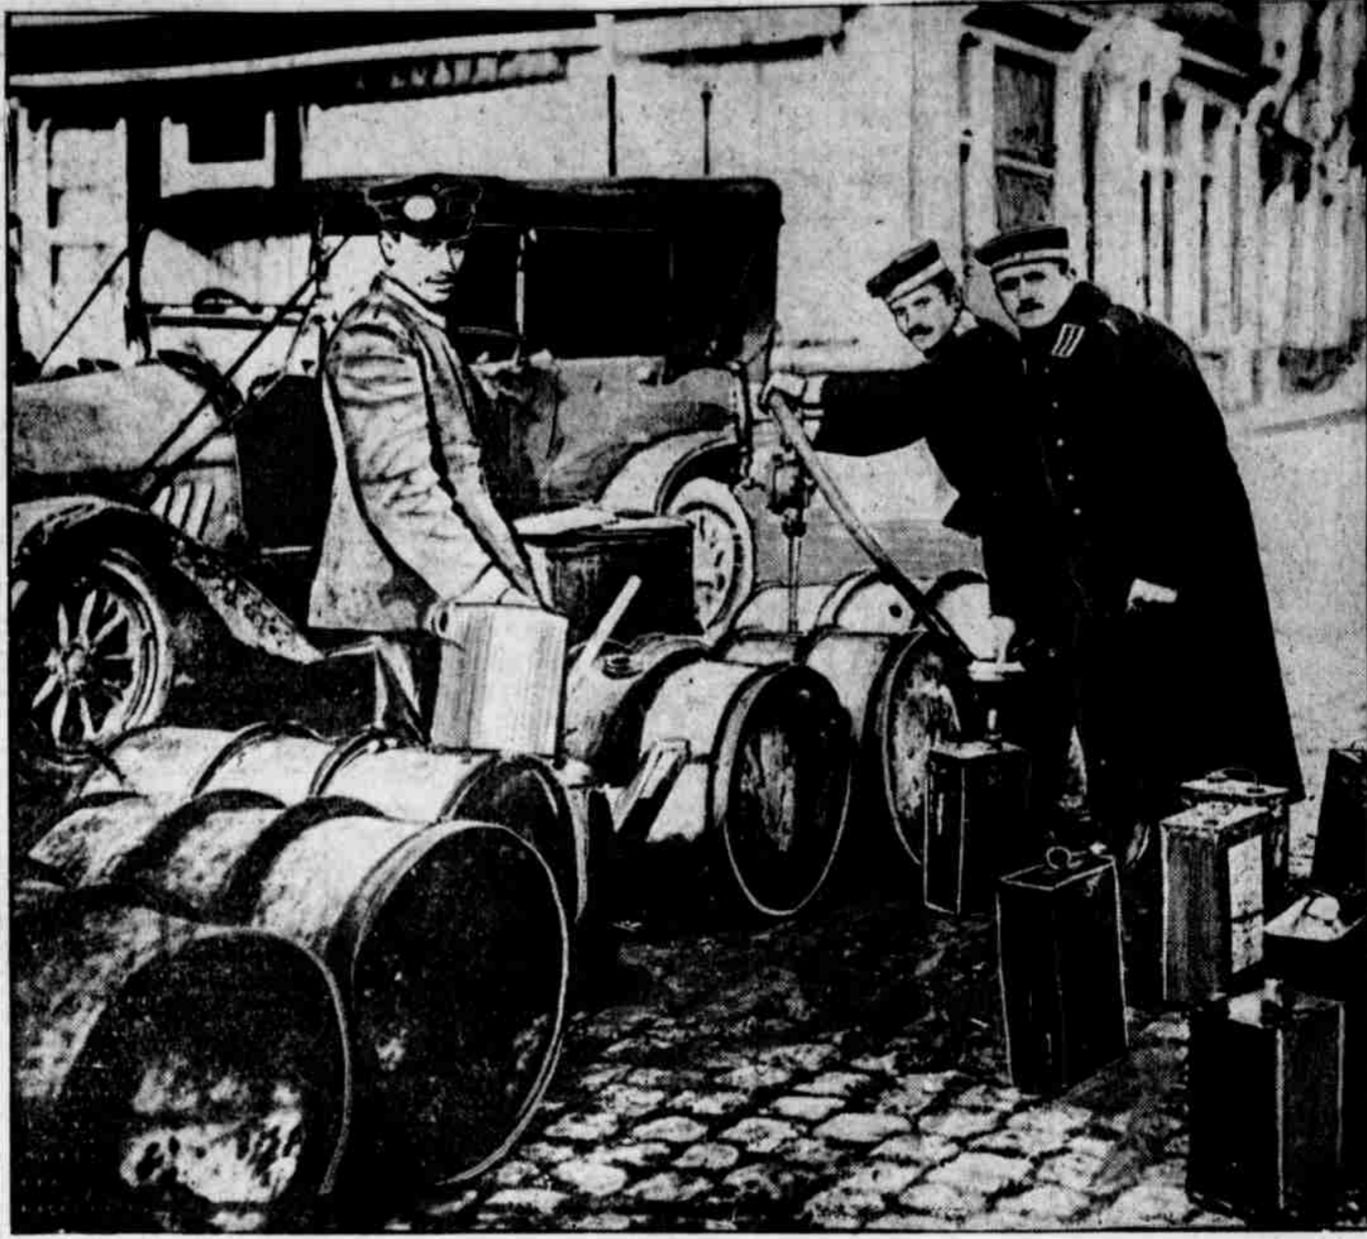

Photo by Topical Press.

GERMAN INVADERS, DESPITE DESTRUCTION OF MANY VALUABLE FIELDS, REAP A HARVEST OF MUCH-NEEDED OIL IN RUMANIA.

SHE SUCCUMBS TO THE MOVIE LURE
Mary Garden, the ever-interesting, has gone and signed for an appearance on the screen.

WOULD PUT SUNDAY FISHING ON LEGAL BASIS
James H. Maurer, Socialist member of the Legislature, has introduced a bill to that effect.

DAUGHTERS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION OPEN NEW QUARTERS ON SPRUCE STREET
Among those in the picture are Mrs. Thomas H. Fenton, Mrs. J. P. Donaldson, Mrs. Israel Johnson, Jr., Mrs. Robert Hogan, Miss F. A. Morse, Mrs. G. M. Bell, Mrs. W. G. Clark, Mrs. C. W. Nevin, Miss Maria Dobbins, Mrs. Thomas Potter, Jr., regent; Mrs. William Simpson, Jr., Mrs. L. W. Chase, Mrs. E. I. Smith.

SHIPPENSBURG BOASTS YOUNGEST BARBER IN STATE
John Sheperd is only ten years old and has to stand on a box when at work.

FIFTY YEARS ON THE JOB
On February 2 Henry O'Neil will have been with H. W. Butterworth & Sons Company for half a century. He doesn't smoke, chew or drink.

MME. HOMER AND HER BEAUTIFUL CHILDREN HOLD REUNION
The singer met her handsome daughters in this city today after a long absence. They came in from West Chester, where Mme. Homer spent much of her girlhood.

RODIN RENEWS HIS YOUTH
It was all a mistake about the sculptor, it transpired. He was not sick; merely married—for the second time at the age of seventy.