

THE LAMP IN THE SUBWAY DARKNESS
This striking picture of a workman cutting his way through a heavy girder of solid steel with an oxyacetylene torch was made under City Hall by an EVENING LEDGER photographer by the aid of the light cast by the billions of sparks which fly from the white-hot burner.

"INDIVIDUAL CUPS" ARE PROVIDED ON THE NEW DRINKING FOUNTAIN ERECTED BY THE PENNSYLVANIA SOCIETY FOR THE PREVENTION OF CRUELTY TO ANIMALS

BAY AND IMPERIAL DOCKYARDS OF KIEL HARBOR, WHERE GERMANY IS REPORTED TO BE PUSHING THROUGH MANY NEW AND LARGE SUBMARINES FOR UNRESTRICTED CAMPAIGN

HOW ALLIED MERCHANT SHIPS ARM FOR "DEFENSE"

The photograph shows the White Star liner Cedric, flying the British flag, with a 6-inch gun mounted aft. It is this method of armament against which Germany has protested vigorously ever since the war began, and which is the immediate cause of the resumption of a "ruthless U-boat policy."

Senator William C. Sproul, who introduced the resolution for the Drumbagh probe.

E. R. Cox (left), defeated candidate for Speaker, talking it over with E. J. Hart, Scranton correspondent, and Michael Smith Bennett.

Senator Edwin H. Vore is discovered wearing a grimly illigent expression.

Photos by Evening Ledger Staff Photographers