Harrisburg tailor who enjoys distinction of being official presser of Governor Brumbaugh's pants

"COURT" PANTS PRESSER SAYS "IT'S FUNNY"

"Isn't It?" Asks His Excellency's Tailor-("H. E." Refers to the Governor)

By a Staff Correspondent HARRISBURG, Feb. 5.—The official presser of the gubernatorial pants is enjoy-ing the exposures of Governor Brumbaugh's acceptance of State aid in his personal expenses and the threatened probe. "It's funny, isn't it?" he remarked to day while he posed for his photograph.

Fred S. Lack is the name of the man who smooths out the Governor's pants with a hot iron every day or two. He is a typical tailor, with such a flourishing business that he has to have three assistants to help him in his shop at 30 North Dewberry street. Lack today explained that he has no inerest in the probe.

"I was always paid," he said, and he added that he has made it a rule to charge Governor Brumbaugh the same price as ordinary customers—seventy-five cents for pressing a suit. That includes the vest, and the Governor, he said, always sent his vest along with his pants and coat. "I pressed the clothes of Governor Tener, too," he remar, ed with apparent pride. "But Tener sent his press clothes here, besides his ordinary suits."

The present Governor, he explained, sends him his sack suits and his frock coats only. He has pressed these clothes for Brumbaugh ever since the present Governor was inducted into office. "How big is Governor Brumbaugh?" the official gubernatorial tailor was asked.

official gubernatorial tailor was asked. "I don't know," he replied. "I never measured him and never throught of meas-uring his clothes, because he is about my size. I did measure Governor Tener's clothes, because Tener had such long legs." The tailor himself looks like he tips the scales at about 200 pounds. The symphony previously had been given the first prize at the Illinois Music Teachers' Convention in 1915. The Possibly a larger or chestra and an acoustically better aut-torium would unveil merits it did not see last night to possess. Beginning in the weary emotional stress of Russian (or per-haps Celitic) thought, it progressed throug a rather heavy "burlesque," passed into the vapid sentimentality of a large and con-cluded incoherently in allegro ma non troppo. ambies when it should stride, gyrates when it should be sprightly. In addition to the "Riens!" and "Mignon" overtures, Mr. Pfeiffer conducted the or-chestra in its accompaniment of Dorothy Goldsmith in the Lisst E flat major concerts for plano. The young artist is nicely suited to Papa Franz's methods and mannerisms. She plays with force, brilliant execution and little sentleness, for youth rarely knows the melting mood. The repeated praise to which Mr. Pfeiffer and his men are entitled for their delightful Sunday evening enter-tainments must, in this case, be tempered with a warning sesture. For there seems to be a chance that the fine pathos and warm sensibility of their address are likely to become too diluted with a slightly "previous" and drawling manner. Bome-times observable, the flaw did not greatly mar their otherwise capital performance. B. D. B. D.

CATHOLIC PHILOPATRIAN Literary Institute has indorsed the action of Presi-dent Wilson in breaking diplomatic rela-tions with Germany. A telegram to that effect was sent to Washington. At a meet-ing held at 1411 Arch street, James F. Her-ron, former president of the club, pointed to the fact that a Philopatrian was the first victim of the Civil War. He was, Wil-liam Powers, of the Sixth Massachusetts Regiment, killed in Baltimore. JEWISH WAR sufferers will be benefited through the concert given in the Metropoli-tan Opera House last night under the aus-pices of the Philadelphia Jewish World on the occasion of its third anniversary. THE HOWARD HOSPITAL treated 270 accident cases during January, according to the report of the board of managers. The number of patients detained at the hospital numbered 143. "BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH OF SATAN' was the subject of today's neonday address by S. D. Gordon, who continued his quiet talks at the Garrick Theatre. These meet-ings will continue until February 20. PROMPT DIAGNOSIS of throat infec-tions to determine the existence of diph-theria is being sought by Director Krusen, of the Department of Public Health and Charities. He advises families to call their physicians to obtain cultures to be sent to the nearest police station and relayed to the Board of Health laboratory so that in cases where the fests are positive the pa-tient may be isolated and the antitoxin ad-ministered immediately.

A "PILGRIMAGE OF PRAYER," to last until February 11, has been started by the Episcopal Diocese of Pennsylvania under the director of Bishop Rhinelander. A week of prayer was recently observed in England, pilgrims journeying from place to place, but its observance here will consist in the "plagrimage of the prayer" instead of the prayer.
