U. S. AGAIN TURNS TO LINCOLN TODAY

Nation, in War Crisis, Looks to Him in Observance of His Birthday

WHAT WOULD HE DO?

Memory of Lincoln Strengthens Nation

"LET us have faith that the right makes might; and in that faith let us do our duty as we understand

"With malice towards none, with charity for all, with firmness in the right, as God gives us to see the

"This Government of the people, by the people and for the people shall not perish from the earth."

"He being dend yet speaketh."—Hebrews,

Increased patriotism and greater devotion to the memory of Abraham Lincoln on this, the 168th anniversary of his birth, are evi-

How would be have faced the crisis with lermany." This is the question in every In response to Mayor Smith's proclama-

In response to Mayor Smith's proclamation asking the people of Philadelphia to observe Lincoin's Birthday fittingly, the city is a biaze of red, white and blue. Never before has the downtown business section are on view in many show cases and virtually every store appealed to by the Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce has redephia Chamber of Commerce has redephia chamber of Commerce of the stores of the stores of the commerce of delphia Chamber of Commerce has responded with a display. The stores closed at noon. All banks and savings institutions are closed, today being a legal holiday. The postoffice and substations suspended business at 1 o'clock and deliveries and collections were decreased.

At noon today the flag presented by the State of Kansas to Philadelphia February 12, 1916, was unfurled above 14 dependence Hall, and at the same time Governor Capper, of Kansas, "broke out" above the Capitol at Topeka the flag presented by Philadelphia to Kansas.

delphia to Kansas.

German auxiliary cruisers Prinz Eitel Friedrich and Kronprinz Wilhelm, interned at League Island, and the war-stranded Hamburg-American liners Prinz Oskar and Rhaetia, moored at the Christian street pier, flew the American flag on their topmasts today in tribute to Lincoln's mem-ory. The German ensign and varicolored signal flags fluttered in the rigging.

All the public schools in the city observed Lincoln's Birthday. At each of the high schools Lincoln's famous "Gettysburg Address" was read this morning. Officials of the Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce. Lincoln Club, Union League, University of Pennsylvania and historical and philosophi cal societies delivered Lincoln Day ad-dresses. The schools closed at noon.

Members of the Lincoln Club journeyed to the Lincoln Monument at the Green street entrance of Fairmount Park this morning and placed a wreath there. The club's committee appointed to address high school students consisted of George W. Ochs. George Washington Baker Hicks, William J. Conlen. Howard H. Lewis, Frank R. Shattuck and Thomas J. Norris. The club onight will dine at the Bellevue-Stratford. with former Mayor John Weaver presiding The principal speaker will be Senator-elect Josiah O. Wolcott, of Delaware. J. H. Eckersley is chairman of the committee in charge of the banquet.

At the Union League the exercises will begin at $:30 o'clock. Dr. James A. Mac-donald, editor of the Toronto Globe, will be fonald, editor of the Toronto Globe, will be the orator. Among the most interested of the celebrants will be Captain S Emlen Meigs, a Civil War veteran, eighty-nine years old. He is one of the few remain-ing Philadelphians who knew the martyred President. His home, at 1715 Locust street, is filled with mementoes of the "Greatest Lincoln's Birthday will be celebrated by the Junger Maennerchor with its sixty-mixth annual ball at the Turner Hall, Broad street and Columbia avenue, tonight. About 2500 invitations have been issued. William Ringle will act as master of ceremonies in the absence of John Frick, who is ill. Louis Elsenhalz is chairman of the com-

The Oak Lane Park Improvement Assowill observe the day with a pa-meeting in the Reformed Church, Sixty-sixth avenue and Seventh street, Oak lane Park, tonight. Edwin H. Abbott, president, will preside Addresses will be delivered by William Hastie Smith on "Abraham Lincoln, Patriot," and the Rev. Frank South of Oak Lane Park Methodist Church, on "Some Elements of Lincoln's Greatness."

The Germantown Club's annual dinner in honor of Lincoln will be held at the Germantown Boys' Club tonight. Among the speakers will be Thomas Raeburn White, William Draper Lewis, Colonel Shelon Potter, Franklin Spencer Edmonds and Prederick Gruenberg.

The Rotary Club will celebrate Lincoln's birthday with a "Ladies" Night" at the Bellevue-Stratford. Stewart C. McFariand will speak at the dinner, which will be followed by a reception and dance.

THE WEATHER

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.
For eastern Pennsylvania and New Jersey-Fair and continued cold tonight; Tuesday fair with rising temperature; moderate northwest winds becoming variable.

A large area of high barometer is centra Indiana and covers virtually all dis-from the Rocky Mountains eastward. The temperatures are below zero through-out the Middle West and promise to fall to zero or below along the Atlantic slope to zero or below along the Atlantic slope from Maryland northward tonight. A moderate reaction to warmer is reported from the Northern Piains States. Showers covered the southern half of the cotton belt during the last twenty-four hours, under the influence of a disturbance that is passing eastward over Florida this morning.

U. S. Weather Bureau Bulletin

observations taken at 8 a. m., eastern time. | Low | S | last Rain | Veloc | S | last Rain | Veloc | S | NW | 12 | Clear | S | Clear | Clear | S | Clear | .òì NW 19 NW 10 N 18 iń 18 12 NW 20 NB 12 NW 12 16

NOTABLES PAY TRIBUTE TO LINCOLN'S MEMORY

Sculptor Barnard Compares Face of Great Emancipator to Christ's at Exercises

CUMBERLAND GAP, Tenn., Feb. 12.— Dozens of big men from all parts of the country paid tribute to Lincoln here today in the Lincoln Day celebration at the Lin-coln Memorial University.

in the Lincoln Day celebration at the Liucoin Memorial University.
George Gray Barnard, sculptor of the Lincoln statue to be erected in Cincinnati, compared Lincoln's face to that of Christ.
"His face is infinitely nearer an expression of our Christ character than all the conventional pictures of the latter." Barnard said. "That symbolic head is the creation of artists, Lincoln's face the triumph of God through man and of man
through God."

"The guiding stars of our history are

through God:

"The guiding stars of our history are Washington, the founder, and Lincoln, the savior," Senator James E. Watson said.

"Without the one the republic could not have been established. Without the other it cauld not have been preserved."

Henry Clews, banker, told of the Lincoln he knew when he aided in the flotation of war loans during the Civil War times and characterized "his direct, incisive speech" as the highest form of eloquence.

Among others who spoke were Mayor William Hale Thompson, of Chicago; Congressman Charles H. Sloan, of Nebraska; Leslie M. Shaw, General Coleman du Pont, Congressman Scott Ferrieg and William P. Borland.

CARLISLE VETERAN CUT WOOD WITH LINCOLN

Philip Beidel Was Closely Associated With Martyred President on Illinois Farm

CARLISLE, Pa., Feb. 12.—To have been intimately associated with Abraham Lincoln for two years, and to have seen him in actual life in the period during his debates with Douglas, was the privilege of Philip Beidel, of Cariisle, who served three enlistments in the Union Army.

Mr. Beidel's mind today is as clear as it was more than half a century ago, when as a boy of sixteen he worked on the thou-sand-acre farm, near Macomb. Ill., of J. R. Simpson, a first cousin of Abraham Lincoln. Here it was that Mr. Lincoln came from his busy office in Springfield to study and ponder over the great questions that confronted the nation, in the seclusion of farm life. He recounts how they some-times drove to town in a blg two-horse farm wagon to meet Mr. Lincoln.

The house in which they lived was one story, with a ground floor, and the apartment in which Mr. Lincoln slept was partitioned from his by a coarse sheet or cur-tain of linen. By 8 o'clock Mr. Lincoln was always in bed and often arose at 3 o'clock in the morning. He erected a large trapeze in the yard on which he exercised and would often help with the plowing and wood cutting. This was in 1859-60.

When Sunday came Mr. Lincoln always went to the Methodist church with the Simpson family, seated on boards across a large wagon bed filled with straw, and on their return would eat enormously of the dinner, after which he would smoke his other, after which he would smoot his pipe or take a long walk alone. While cider and wine were always around, the future President rever tasted either. After Mr. Lincoln was elected to the presidency, Mr. Beidel saw him but once, and that was in front of the Capitol at Washington while reviewing troops. Upon this occasion Mr. Beidel's commany was the this occasion Mr. Beidel's company was the "color company" and was at rest in front of the President. He said, "I'll go shake bands with the President and see if he remembers me." when to his surprise Mr. Lincoln saw him coming and called our, "Come here, Philip; give me a shake of your hand. How did you get here? Good-Be a good roldier."

LINCOLN'S BIRTHPLACE ADDS MEED OF TRIBUTE

home town of Abraham Lincoln dropped its every-day pursuits to do homage to its greatest son today on the 118th anniversary of the Emancinator's birth.

Official machinery was at standstill, the two chambers of the Illinois Assembly were deserted and the State departments were unoccupied. Tonight officialdom will meet for the Lincoln Centennial Associa-tion banquet, an observance which will be attended by leaders of national and State importance.

The speakers will be President John

Grier Hibben, of Princeton University, and United States Senator Thomas Sterling, of South Dakota.

South Dakota.

A thin little line of the men who fought for Lincoln in the sixtles, accompanied by their wives and Spanish-American War veterans, marched to Lincoln's tomb, in Old Ridge Cemetery, this morning and held brief, simple services in honor of the dead.

TRIBUTE PAID BY GERMAN SHIPS AT HOBOKEN, N. J.

HOBOKEN, Feb. 12 .- Though diplomatic relations between Germany and America are broken, the commanders of the self-interned German ships here are today pay-ing tribute to Abraham Lincoln.

ing tribute to Abraham Lincoln.

From the masthead of every German liner the Stars and Stripes is flying. The Vaterland, biggest of the Hamburg-American liners, has four American flags whipping the breeze, one at each mast. At the entrance to the Hamburg-American pler there is a huge red, white and blue banner. Hiver street—in the heart of the German district here—is ablaze with the national

HONOR PAID LINCOLN'S MEMORY AT CENTRAL HIGH

Dr. Robert Ellis Thompson Eulogizes Great Emancipator, and School Is Closed at Noon

Robert Ellis Thompson, president of the entral High School, was the chief speaker

Central High School, was the chief speaker at exercises paying tribute to Lincoln at the school today.

"President Lincoln always found or portunity to give words of cheer in the darkest hours of the Civil War," said President Thompson, describing the optimism and sympathy of the great emancipator. The power of Lincoln's memory is growing upon the nation as years are added to the time of his death he said.

of his death, he said.

Doctor Thompson pointed out Lincoln's democratic spirit as an object lesson for the 1600 pupils who heard the address. Following the reading of a commemo-rative ode, the students sang "The Star Spangled Banner." The school closed at

NORMAL GIRLS MARK DAY

Lincoln Day exercises at the Philadelphia Normal School, Thirteenth and Spring Garden streets, were marked by the singing of "America" by 700 girls. George W. Ochs of America by low arts.

Was the chief speaker.

Miss Eleanor Offins gave a piano solo and Miss Frances Rose a vocal solo. Miss Helen Baldwin, member of the faculty, gave several recitations from Walt Whitman.

Students Honor Lincoln

Students in the Southern High School for Students in the Southern High School for Girls and Boys, at Broad street and Snyder avenue, observed the birthday of Abraham Lincoln by holding patriotic exercises in their respective classrooms. Every room in the building was decorated with the national colors and partraits of Lincoln. There were recitations dealing with Lincoln's life, while instructors mentioned interesting features relating to Lincoln's birthard features relating to Lincoln's birthard features.

LINCOLN CORTEGE HERE SOLEMN AND REVERENT

Driver of Hearse Recalls Chestnut Street Lined With Mourners for Blocks

THRONGS GREATLY AWED

ALBERT LA RUE Driver of the car on which the body of Abraham Lincoln was borne to during the seventy-eight years he has lived, but none that approached for reverence and magnitude the throng that watched in silence and with bare heads, the body of Lincoln borne to independence Hall after his assassination.

Independence Hall.

Although more than a half century has passed since Mr. La Rue guided the hearse on which the body of the martyred Presi-dent was carried and threaded it on its way through the parrow lane in the streets blackened with speciators, he remembers the casion clearly.

"Men who cordoned the streets," said Mr La Rue this morning at his home, 3242 North Seventeenth street, "were forced to North Seventeenth street, "were forced to hold their guns above their heads to keep back the crowds. The crowd pressed for-ward with eagerness, becoming more in-tense to catch a glimpae of the casket." The cortege left the station, Mr. La Rue explained, and Slowly started on its way down Chestnut street. From his seat, which was as high as the second story of the buildthe long square leading to Independence "When we neared Independence Hall," he remarked. "the men, women and children were massed two squares away on the side

Early the following morning, said Mr. La Rue, the body was started on its way to New York. Although dawn had not yet broken, bands accompanied the procession and people leaned from their windows to pay tribute, while the flat car, specially built for the occasion, wound its way to the depot at Third and Berks streets.

streets. They had waited there since early morning and but a comparatively few

Mr. La Rue was but twenty-six years old at the time and had just started in business for himself, being engaged specially for the task of safely taking the body on its jour-ner with his own to. ney with his own team.

GEORGE W. OCHS PRAISES PRESIDENT'S WAR COURSE

What Lincoln Would Have Done, Says Ex-Publisher, in Address to William Penn School Girls

Praise for President Wilson and the opinion that he spoke the words which Lin-coin would have spoken was voiced today by George W. Ochs, former publisher of the Public Ledger, in an address at the Wil-liam Penn High School for Girls. Mr. Ochs denounced the actions of Ger-many in unsparing language. "After two years of patience," he said, "we are notified that the sea shall no longer be free and that the sea shall no longer be free and that the German sea wolf has been ordered to roam at large and destroy, without warning, any ships bound for ports of enemies in brutal defiance of the law of nations, of humanity and of God.

"This was the crowning act of barbarism by a nation which seems to have gone mad either from furious hate or desperate from inevitable defeat."

The speaker referred to Germany as a

"frantic maniac," and said that if diplo-matic relations had not been severed it would have meant national humiliation, with the confession that we are a nation of poltroons, and the avowal and boast that America stood as champion of liberty and guaranter of international rights was sound-ing brass, tinkling cymbals and empty vaorings of a debilitated, deteriorating race.
Mr. Ochs's address was received with prolonged applause.
Miss Annie Goldberg read a paper on the

Lincoln Memorial at Hodgensville, Ky. 'A poem, "Lincoln, the Man of the People." poem, "Lincoln, the Man of the People," written by Edwin Markham, was read by Fully 1200 girls participated in the exerwhich concluded with the singing of The Star-Spangled Banner."

GIRARD COLLEGE PUPILS OBSERVE LINCOLN DAY

Speaker Points Out Analogy of "Backwoods President's" Early Days to Those of Students

The 1700 pupils at Girard College observed the anniversary of the "Backwoods Presidents" birth with exercises in the chapel this morning.

Charles L. Meehan, introduced by Dr. Cheesman A. Herrick, president of the school, delivered the chief address. He spoke to boys who, like Lincoln, have homes lacking in wealth and luxury, but who, like Lincoln, possess the honor of scholarship. Joseph M. Jameson, vice president of the institution, offered prayer. "The Lincoln Centennial" and other patriotic airs were played by the Girard College band. Prizes were distributed. were distributed.

LINCOLN DAY AT HIGH SCHOOLS

James Carr and E. J. Cattell Speak to Boys and Girls

Lincoln Day exercises were held today in the West Philadelphia High School for Boys and the West Philadelphia High School for Boys and the West Philadelphia High School for Giris at Forty-seventh and Walnut and Forty-eighth and Walnut streets.

James Carr, attorney and student of the life of Lincoln, addressed the boys. E. J. Cattell, City Statistician and a personal friend of Lincoln, related some anecdotes of their friendship. Charles C. Heyl, principal, dismissed school for the day.

E. J. Cattell also spoke before the students at the Giris' High School. G. W. B. Hicks, secretary of the convention committee of the Chamber of Commerce, told stories from the life of Lincoln. Singing of patriotic songs accompanied by the school orchastra competes the product of the convention of the convention committee of the Chamber of Lincoln.

WEAVER URGES PUPILS TO FORM LINCOLN CLUB

Former, Mayor Gives Advice in Address at Northeast Manual Training School Former Mayor John Weaver today called upon the students of the Northeast Manual Training School. Eighth street and Lebigh avenue, to organize a Lincoln Club to study the character and emulate the example of the martyred President.

Mr. Weaver was the orator at the Lincoln's Birthday exercises at the school which some 2000 students participated. quoted copiously from Lincoln's second in-augural address and other speeches and declared Lincoln to be the greatest of all the Presidents of the United States. Andrew J. Morrison, principal of the chool, was unable because of illness, to achool, was unable because of inness, in attend, but sent a letter of regret, which was read, A Bible rending by the Rev. J. T. Stevenson, of the school faculty, singing of the school song and a brief address by Prof. A. O. Michener completed the formal Hubert J. McCormack, president of the school community afid a member of the January graduating class, presented athletic honors to members of the Soccet, cross-country, baseball and football teams. The school letter was awarded to each member of the first team in each sport, while

Dearth of Sugar Real, Says Grocer

numerals were bestowed upon the class

not the best, and that is hampering shipments considerably. If housewives would only buy what sugar they actually need, the situation would be great

REFINERS SUPPLY SCANT A representative of the George M. Dunlap

The refiners virtually are not supply ing anything at the present time. They are not able to supply any, for they have no help with which to turn out

A lot of stores have no sugar at all today. We have raised the price only in instances where housewives have shown a tendency to buy more than they actually needed.

In discussing the sugar situation today an official of the Grocers Supply Company demands. It is true we are getting some from the refiners here, but very little. What little we have been able to get hold of 's coming from New York. The shortage is very serious.

The W. J. McCahan Refining Company is used down tight by the strike, according a representative of the company today

We are not making any sugar, he said, and there is no indication that we will be able to make any until this strike is settled. I understand that the Pennsylvania Sugar Company had some men working sesterday, and that the Franklin Company has obtained a few shipments from New York to meet the demands of their trade here. There is an actual shortage in Philadelphia, which is likely to last for some time.

A representative of the sales office of the Pennsylvania Sugar Company, at 135 South Second street, said today that while the ompany had a few men at work yesterday he plant is not turning out enough sugar o meet the demands. He continued:

The outlook today is not very good. A couple more men returned to work yesterday at the refinery, but the story published in morning papers to the effeet that we are turning out enough sugar to meet the demand is wrong. We were greatly embarrassed by this report. Hotels and restaurants all ever the city have been calling us up today and clamoring for sugar. But we are making so very little sugar that it has no effect on the situation. We are un-able to handle the situation at all.

Mr. Robinson, of Robinson & Crawford, said that his company had sufficient sugar to meet the demands of customers. Mr. Robinson admitted, however, that his npany had a considerable stock on hand when the strike was called. He stated that he had obtained some sugar today from the Franklin Refinery.

George H. Frazier, president of the Franklin Sugar Refining Company, issued a statement in which he say that deliveries from the Franklin Company has "sub-stantially" resumed normal proportions. Wholesalers and jobbers state, however, that they have been able to get very little sugar from the local refineries during the last week, and have obtained the most of their supply from New York. Mr. Frazier

On the afternoon of Wednesday, January 31, a part of the employes of this company voluntarily left their work and a portion of them are now on strike. This fact necessarily impaired temporarily the deliveries of refined sugars to the local trade, but deliv-eries have now substantially assumed normal proportions, and there is an ample supply of refined sugars to take care of the business.

NO STRIKE SETTLEMENT

It was rumored today that the W. J. Mc-Cahan Reflining Company showed a dis-position to make concessions to the strikers. but report has it that the Franklin Refining Company and the Pennsylvania Sugar Com-pany refused to join in such a settlement.

The big drive of housewives on the fast-depleting sugar stock of the city began Saturday and continued today. Scores of grocers are entirely out of the staple and those that have a supply on hand are parceling it out carefully to customers. A representative of the Mitchell, Fletcher

A representative of the Mitchell, Fletcher Company s.dd:
Our st. & is getting lower rapidly and there seems to be no immediate prospect of replenishing our supply. We are limiting our customers to four pounds each. We have turned down hundreds of orders for half-barrel and 100-pound lots. If the famine continues much longer householders will be obliged to use substitutes in their coffee—syrups or rock candy. The supply coming in from New York is not sufficient to meet the demand.

DEMANDS TOO HEAVY

An official of a wholesale firm said: We are very short; we are getting a little bit in from New York; but there is not enough to go around. We may be able to get some from Boston this week. Many of the retailers haven't a bag of sugar in their stores today. Up-State conditions are bad. There is virtually no sugar in Harrisburg, and there is a famine in Bethlehem and Wilmington experienced a little relief last Saturday when three car-loads reached that city. Condensed milk manufacturers are feeling the

Girls' School Honors Lincoln

The girls of the Germantown High School The girls of the Germantown High School presented a special Lincoln Day program today at the High School. Germantown avenue and High street. The speaker of the day was Frank R. Shattuck, a Philadelphia attorney, who addressed the students on the subject "Lincoln, the Embodiment of Patriotism." Extracts from the speeches and writings of Lincoln were given by eight girls. The program was filled with patriotic songs, ending with "America."

Coldest Day of Year in New York

NEW YORK, Feb. 12 .- Cold weather records for the year were broken today when the mercury dropped to three above zero here. The coldest previous day was Febru-ary 3, when it was five above egro. Ice filled the rivers, and harbor boats and tugs had to pick their way through the foce

SOLEMNITY OF PATAGONIAN CAVIES DRIVES EVEN OWLS TO LAUGHTER

Which Ought to Give You an Idea of What Is the Most Solemn Creature in World-Hyena at Zoo Also in Outburst of Homeric Ha! Ha!

As the most undemonstrative living thing in the world, the owl has had to surrender its laurels to this Patagonian Cavy, which is a recent arrival at the Zoo. The odd little animal is so self-possessed that he never even winks.

Said the owl to the cavy.
"You've taken my gravy.
I used to be rated as solemn as sin;
But now when I'm near you.
I don't even queer so,
"That owl is a laughin," they cry from within,"

Quoth the cavy to the owi:
"That cavernous Jow! Is actually humarous—not at all sad—
Just gaze at my eye.
In hoasting of gloominess—don't make me
and:

WHAT is the "solemnest" living thing in the world? The owl, of course-what a foolish ques-

Ha! Ha!—thought you would fall into that old, moss-grown owl trap. You are wrong, dead wrong; the suprem-icy of the owl as the most solemn living hing on this earth has been shattered there are two of them, a male and a female, at the Zoo.

The Patagonian cavy carries more real unadulterated solemnity in his facial ex-pression than the combined solemnity of a Supreme Court Judge, a family physician, Hungarian monk, a Seventh Day Adven-ist and an undertaker,

We admit that the owl-does look some solfrequent eye-blinks.

Nothing, absolutely nothing, interrupts the solemnity of the Patagonian cavy. It is something sublime in its endurance. It suggests antiquity, Babylonian tradition and eternal life.

The cavy has eyes as big as ragian coat.

emn visitors from the south had a astonishing effect on the hyena. The animal nearly laughed himself to looking at the cavies and they were of to remove him to another cage where could not look upon the countenances the two solemn little heasts. Soon at the animals arrived at the Zoo they w entered into a solemnity contest. In of words, they were placed beside an owl, to see if they really had anything on owl in the matter of solemnity. A challenge of the contest of the con owl in the matter of solemnity. A visitor to the Zoo happened to look the cage which contained the owl and cavies, and he said to his mother, "Co over here, ma. and see that owl law That was proof enough for the Zoo keep blink a lash. At the bottom of the like orbs of the cavy seems to lie the wisdom of the world. If you look enough into those dark, brown depin can conjure up the outline of the mids, the face of Pharaoh and the pof Cleopatra.

When the fair cavies were broughte Zoo from South America they placed in a cage next to a hyena. The

on the cavies yet, and there is not m chance, for the Zoo has no laughing jack WILSON THANKS STUDENTS that the Patagonian cavy is quite the me solemn living thing in the world, T keepers haven't tried a Jaughing jacks

Offer of Services in Case of War Pleases President

STATE COLLEGE, Pa., Feb. 12,—President Wilson and Governor Brumbaugh have both written to A. W. Roberts, colonel of the cadet regiment at the Pennsylvania State College, thanking him for the offer of 2200 students, all with military training, who have volunteered to serve in case of hostilities with Germany, President Wilson's acknowledgment follows:

May I not thank you for your kind

May I not thank you for your kind telegram of February 6, and tell you and the students of the Pennsylvania State College that I am gratified and heartened by your generous assurances? ened by your generous assurances; Governor Brumbaugh expressed his ap-preciation of the patriotic spirit manifested by the students in offering to the Com-monwealth their services for the preserva-tion of national rights.

11 HELD IN PETROGRAD PLOT

Labor Leaders Arrested on Charge of Planning a Revolution

PETROGRAD, Feb. 12.—Eleven members of the workmen group of the Central Military and Industrial Committee of Petrograd have been arrested, charged with belonging to revolutionary parties and fomenting a labor movement with the ultimate aim of transforming Russian into a social-democratic republic. This official announcement was made yesterday.

Four other persons have been placed un-der arrest. It is alleged that they consti-tute a group whose object is to organize demonstrations with the intention of committing excesses.

Highwaymen Hurl Victim From Bridge The cavy has eyes as Mg as raglan coat buttons, big, solemn, wondering eyes of funercal depths, and swept away forever by the Patagonian cavy?

The Patagonian cavy?

The Patagonian cavy is an animal a little bigger than our native rabbit, and

Mawson & DeMany

1115 Chestnut Street (Opposite Keith's)

Final Fur Reductions

We Begin the Second Week of This One-Half-Off Sale With An Entire Readjustment and Regrouping of All the Remaining Broken Lots. They Must Go-Former Prices Are Given No Consideration Whatever. Read Every Item Carefully

Fur Coats

7 Russian Pony 50.00 8 French 65.00 5 French Seal Coats..... 85.00 8 Natural Muskrat Coats 97.00 6 Hudson Seal Coats. ... 110.00 6 Hudson Seal Coats....135.00 67.50 5 Hudson Seal Coats....150,00 2 Caracul Coats150.00 74.50 9 Hudson Seal Coats... 190.00 5 Hudson Seal Coats... 230.00 4 Hudson Seal Coats... 290.00 2 Mole Coats... 325.00 4 Hudson Seal Coats... 350.00 3 Hudson Seal Coats... 450.00 1 Mole Coat... 490.00 94.50 162.50 225,00

E. Sato

Fur Sets
Regular	y Now
5 Natural Raccoon Sets. 39.00	19.50
4 Beaver Sets 59.00	29.50
6 Australian Opossum
Sets 42.00	21.00
9 Nutria Sets 55.00	27.50
5 Brown Fox Sets 59.00	29.50
5 Red Fox Sets 98.00	49.00
1 Hudson Seal Set125.00	62.50
4 Cross Fox Sets 160.00	78.50
1 Pointed Fox Set 190.00	95.00
1 Blended Mink Set300.00	125.00
1 Hudson Seal and Ermine Set	125.00
3 Hudson Bay and Sable	33553
Sets350.00	175.00
2 Silver Fox Sets650.00	325.00
2 Silver Fox Sets650.00 1 Hudson Bay and Sable
Set 1000.00	500.00

Scarfs

	- 11	egularly	20.00
5	Natural Raccoon Scarfs	10.00	3.50
7	Black Fox Scarfs	15.00	6.50
5	Hudson Seal Scarfs	14.50	6.50
6	Skunk Scarfs	15.00	7.50
3	Nat. Raccoon Scarfs	17.00	8.50
5	Skunk Scarfs	24.00	12.00
6	Skunk Scarfs	27.00	13.50
3	Red Fox Scarfs	29.00	14.50
6	Black Fox Scarfs	29.00	14.50
5	Hudson Seal Scarfs	32.00	16.00
7	Ermine Scarfs	33.00	14.50
1	Persian Lamb Scarf	50.00	19.50
5	Black Fox Scarfs	39.00	19.50
3	Skunk Scarfs	39.00	19.50
3	White Fox Scarfs	45.00	22.50
5	Cross Fox Scarfs	59.00	29.50
4	Dyed Blue Fox Scarfs.	65.00	32.50
1			112.50

Muffe

Mu	Mulis
	Regularly	Now
10 Black Fox Muffs	19.00	9.50
5 Natural Raccoon M	Auffs 20.00	10.00
7 Hudson Seal Muffs	23.00	9.50
6 Australian Opossu	m 25.00	12.50
4 Skunk Muffs	27.00	13.00
4 Black Fox Muffs	29.00	14.50
5 Hudson Seal Muffs	29.00	14.50
7 Black Fox Muffs	35.00	17.50
10 Skunk Muffs	44.00	22.00
7 Skunk Muffs	50.00	24.50
5 Black Lynx Muffs.	The second secon	25.00
4 Battleship Gray Fo	0X	-
Muffs	55.00	27.50
4 Taupe Fox Muffs	55.00	27.50
6 Black Lynx Muffs.		28.00
4 Slate Fox Muffs	75.00	37.50
7 Cross Fox Muffs	80.00	39.50

Charge Accounts Opened

Purchases Will Be Reserved in Our Storage Vaults Until Next Fall on Payment of a Deposit. Payments to Be Continued During the Spring and Summer

Purchasing Agents' Orders Accepted.

Mail Orders Filled