EASTERN CAGE

RACE DEADLOC

The Eastern League basketball race i now a deadlock and when Greystock plays Trenton this evening it will be necessary for the Churchmen to come across with a win to retain their hold on first place. The boys from Gray's Ferry are now playing remarkable basketball and should have no trouble in landing tonight's clash and going to the front again.

to the front again. Last night's contest at Nonpareil Hall was one of the most exciting of the current scason, and it was anybody's game until the finish. The Jewels took the floor with Kid Dark at forward alongaids of Barney Sedran, but as could be expected did not get going right off the reel with the Jewels. The play on both sides lacked the finish and finesse generally observed when Jasper and Greystock perform, and there was a noticeable amount of nervousmens displayed by the men in the cage. The Jewels missed many chances by a hair's breadth and the Greys were almost as nulucky.

The field goals were even at five aplece and they were almost as unlucky. The field goals were even at five aplece and they went to Fogarty, 2: Cross, 1; Sugarman, 1: Lawrence, 1; Leonard, 1; Fox, 1, and Friedman, 3. At foul tossing Dark landed 15 out of 22 and Fogarty, 16 out of 18 out of 18.

Reading Signs Youngsters

The Reading Signs foungaters The Reading basketball management will evidently try a few youngsters in the clos-ing weeks of the Eastern Lear's cam-paign. They are reported to ht is signed the two Gaul brothers from Olivet of Read-ing, and are also credited with setting a player named White from Bridgepow, Conn. The latter is not known and his ability is therefore an unknown quantity. He is said to be a utility man in Bridgeport.

to be a utility man in Bridgeport. Bactzel's Great Work The work of the eleventh man in the cage at Nonparell Hall last night, Herman Bactzel, was about the best seen in these parts for quite a time. He had a hard task cut out for him, but how well he did his work is now history, and his tooting of the whistle was the subject of favorable com-ment not only from Jasper, but also from Greystock rooters. Bactzel held the playere under his thumb all during the forty min-utes of play, and barely a decision was questioned, and this is really remarkable. Baetzel's Great Work
