Delegation Argues Against Bill Pending in the Delaware Legislature

DOVER. Del., Feb. 27 .- A large delegation of Wilmington business men appeared before a joint meeting of the Elections and Temperance Committees of the House this norning to protest against the bill pending in the House providing for a special elec-tion in Wilmington on the liquor license questions. A number of the leading mer-chants of the city were in the delegation, and they declared that such an election would be an unwarranted expense to the State.

State. The Highway Committee of the House today reported favorably upon the affili-ated bills providing for a State Highway Department with power to construct a high-way through the State. The Senate today passed Senator Hart's bill providing for an unreconstitute of State support. appropriation of $3000 annually for two years to be expended for improvement of the colored schools of the State.
