

PHILADELPHIA, MONDAY, MARCH 5, 1917

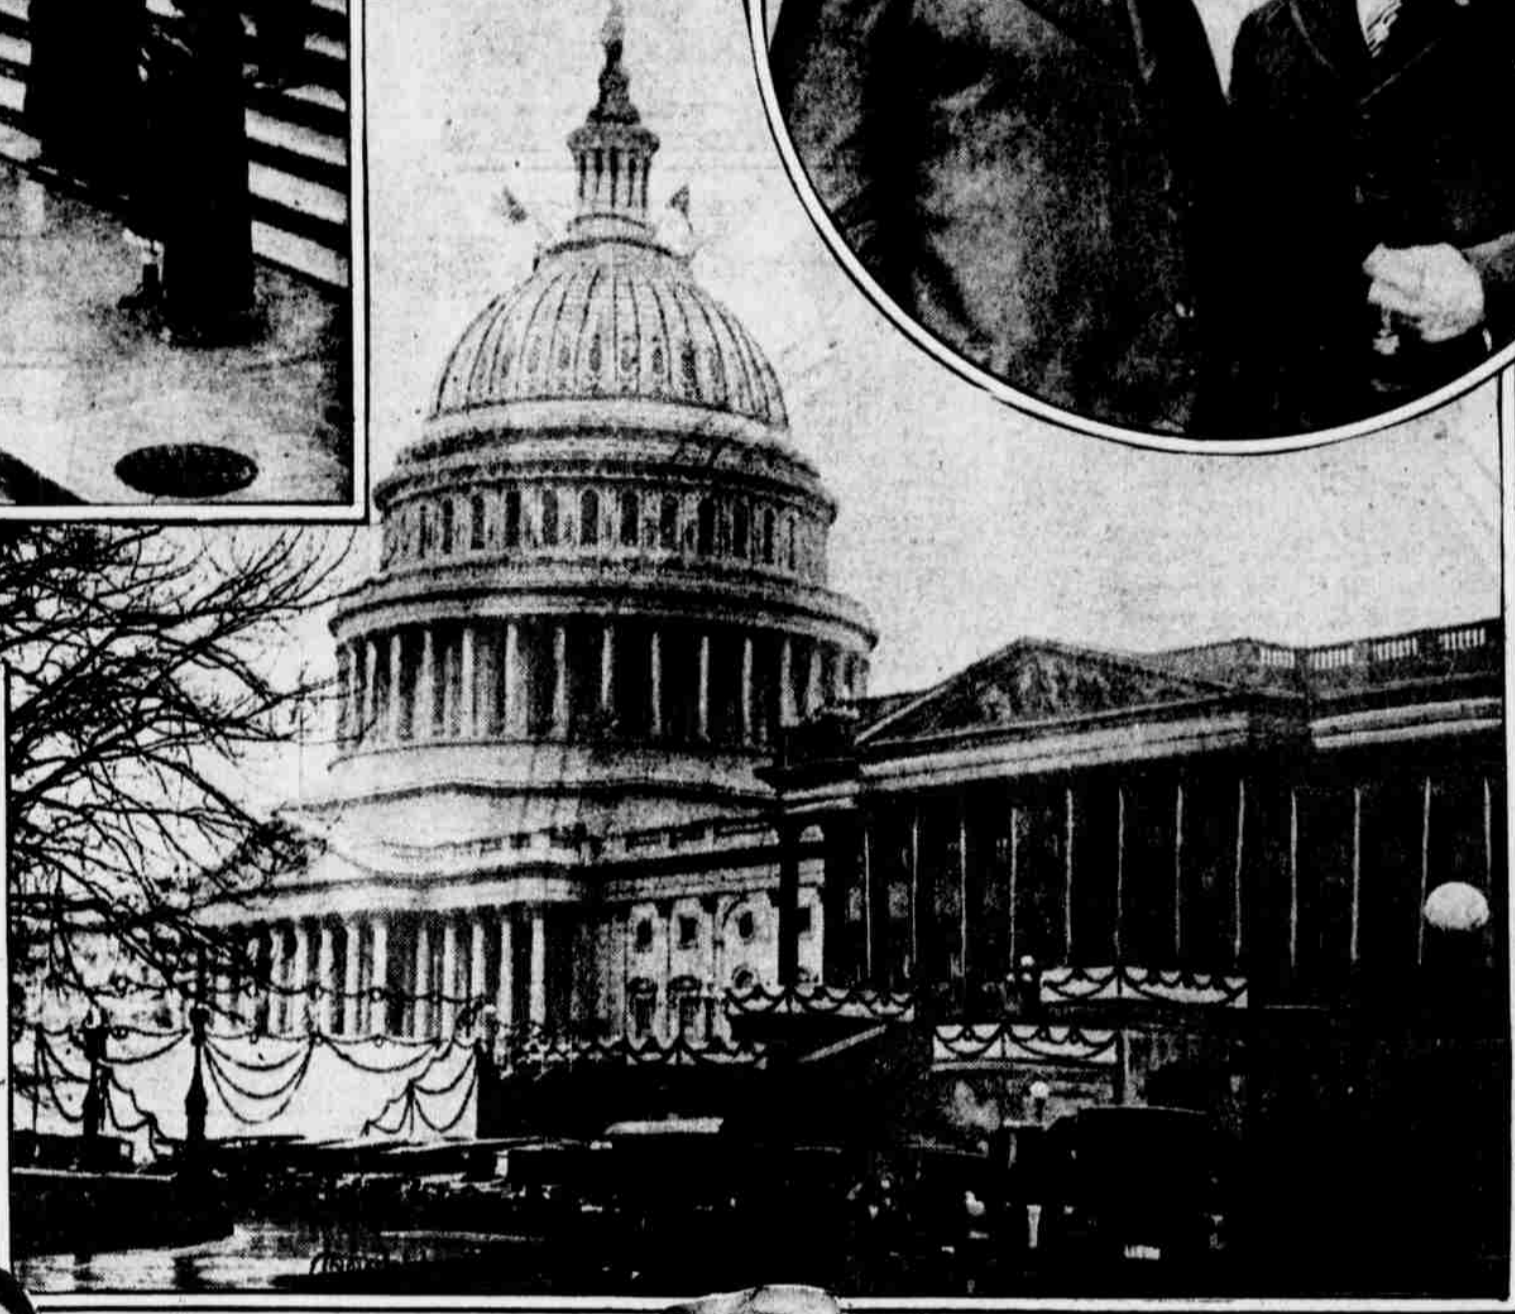

PRESIDENTIAL AUTO WAITING AT THE CAPITOL STEPS TO TAKE THE NATION'S CHIEF EXECUTIVE BACK TO THE WHITE HOUSE AFTER SUNDAY'S OATH OF OFFICE WAS ADMINISTERED

MAJOR GENERAL CLEMENT AND ADJUTANT GENERAL STEWART AMONG THE DISTINGUISHED PENNSYLVANIANS STOPPING AT THE RALEIGH HOTEL

WOMEN MEMBERS OF THE JEFFERSON MARCHING CLUB HIKING ALONG BROAD STREET ON THEIR WAY TO THE STATION AND WILSON'S INAUGURATION

THE CAPITOL LOOMING OUT OF THE MISTS OF MARCH 4, SYMBOLIZED THE STRENGTH OF THE NATION

GOVERNOR BRUMBAUGH AND LOUIS KOLB WERE TOGETHER MOST OF THE TIME AT PENNSYLVANIA'S HEADQUARTERS AT THE RALEIGH

THE BATTALION OF CADETS FROM THE CULVER MILITARY ACADEMY CONTRIBUTED A MUCH-NEEDED DASH OF SPLENDOR TO THE GLOOMY MARCH DAY

LAST, AND OF COURSE NOT LEAST, THE MARCHERS WERE MET BY THE WELCOME OF THE PHILADELPHIANS
