PUBLIC LEDGER COMPANY CTRUS H. K. CURTIS, PRESIDENT rise H. Ludinaton, Vice President; Jo artis, Secretary and Treasurer; Phillip 8, John S. Williams, John J. Spurgeon, haley, Directors.

EDITORIAL BOARD: H. K. Curre, Chairman. H. WHALEY..... JOHN C. MARTIN ... General Business Manager

blished dally at Punite Levers Building.
Independence Square, Philadelphia.
Im Carrat. Broad and Chestnit Stressing Carrat. Press I ston Building.
Your. 206 Metropolitan Townort Stressing Carrat. Stressing Ford Building.
Levis 409 Globe Democrat Building.
Levis 1207 Tribuse Building. NEWS BUREAUS

NEWS BUREAUS

FOR BUREAU

COR BUREAU

COR BUREAU

BUREAU

BUREAU

Marconi Bureau

Marconi Bureau

Bureau

Marconi Bureau

Bureau

Marconi Bureau

Bureau

Marconi Bureau

Marc SUBSCRIPTION TERMS

to the carrier. By mail to points outside of Philadelphia, in the United States. Canada or United States possessions, poetage free, fifty (50) cents per sensions, lix (50) dollars per year, payable lo To all foreign countries one ($1) dollar per BELL, 1000 WALNUT KEYSTONE, MAIN 1000

Address all communications to Evening Ledger, Independence Square, Philadelphia. ENTY TO AT THE PRITADELPHIA PORTOFFICE AS SECUND-CLASS MAIL MATTER

THE AVERAGE NET PAID DAILY CIR-TION OF THE EVENING LE

Philadelphia, Tuesday, March 5, 1917

How many calories were there in your breakfast?

Chicago hog prices continue to mar.

This does not refer to the food hours.

Nets for U-boats are ready to be set in the Delaware, but let us hope that the eatch will be small.

ties of foreign trade after the war. It is part of his business to see to it that this city is kept awake to the same possibiliin the mud can sue the city for damages. what means of redress are open to the friends of a man who is killed by an automobile because the police do not enforce the speed ordinances?

be puts in words what every man in the he sought was the vote of confidence May, three matter to take a which he undoubtedly has received. But Wednesday and Thursday, he are the every man the every man in the sought was the vote of confidence May, three matter a which he undoubtedly has received. But ing ever since the crisis developed.

Ponce de Leon sought the fountain of perpetual youth in Florida, thereby setting the precedent which the local facan amicable division, of the spoils. This McNichol candidate is to be indorsed by the Vares and that Vare candidate is to be supported by McNichol, and the people are to be bamboozled some more.

The License Court has responded oughfare. Judge Finletter's remark that. general view. Whether a saloon is good or bad per se did not enter into the reasons for the decision. The new highway is to be one of the heauty spots in the city. It must be reserved for structures and businesses, if business is to encroach upon it, which will not destroy tte character.

Notwithstanding the announcement that Secretary Baker would retire from the War Department on March 4, the President has asked the Senate to confirm his reappointment. The Cabinet changes in prospect will be made when the President has more time to give to such matters. There are rumors that the Secretary of the Treasury, the Attorney General and the Secretary of Commerce will retire within three months. If the comes, the President would be justified in disregarding party lines in filling these places, and it would not be difficult to find men politically opposed to him on other issues ready to co-operate with him

Vance C. McCormick's name bobs again as a probable Cabinet appointee. There are more reasons for appointing et of Mr. Wilson toward his campaign ger. He is an energetic and patriotic and has shown great executive and grasp upon national affairs, the political standpoint, which Mr. on rarely forgets even in time of Mr. McCormick would strengthen senting progressivism of Pennsylvania, and that for Taft as representing its reac tionary party. Mr. McCormick's boom for Governor would be immeasurably strengthened by recognition from Washington.

A UNITED NATION

It is imperative that we stand to-gether.—The President's haughtrai ad-soldiers on their comrades in the face of the every action, too, shows that he knows an enemy. As the President says, "We Individuals may disagree on the specific one to help blue. The broker of today are made for way position as a sovereign power among clar mores of study proposed by the equals, but there can be no disagreement on the importance of maintaining it which have amounted to between four and five minimum delians in the last size then years. But Ponnecivania position from the husiness done on our substraint. There is no doubt that the actual value of exports passing through this position of the value passing through this position are proposed in the color than any other colors. There is no doubt that the actual value of the variety to the large part of the remainder have been a color of the value of the v which originate in the other counties is Philadelphia Early in the Field here. The fact that a large part of the expended parts originates in other states as listing cation for congressional appropriations for the benefit of the part to be expended within the city limits. The expenditure upon the General Assembly is that there upon the General Assembly is that there bankers met at the form Exchange Sational is moral obligation on the State to dee Bank to consider the Erganization of a its funds for the benefit of water-borns chapter here and subsequently the chapter commerce, a duty as pressing as that was formed which impels it to spend money for making good roads.

PIRATES OF 1819 AND 1917

FORMER Attorney General Wicker-sham has declared that President Wilson is using "strained reasoning" if he There will be delight in Kensington our merchantmen on the law of 1812. "If the course four years instead of two as bases his present attitude toward arming. If the member of the School Board knows you go finetooth-combing through the what he is talking about when he says laws on the statute books of the United into two sections and then sundivided which labor will accept in national de- branches of Congress as the equivalent fense and in which it will co-operate." of a formally passed measure; that all some one had "finetouth-combed" back this the students have the intransings to 1812 and discovered that there were to 1819 and discovered that there were restrictions in the law of that year permitting armed protection against plants. and that those restrictions might legally adsophin Chapter has graduated 171. have come back from the South with what they think is a plan to insure perpetual political life to them through a division. political life to them through a division, with which the United States was at peace, and, as it could not be foreseen in 1819 that we could be in 1917 at peace with a nation which had at the same time become piratical, it may be that the old statute must be superseded by a new net

The President would not be consured. to an undoubted popular sentiment in for violating the letter of the dead law, refusing to the transfer of the licenses of but many will feel that it is asking too the razed saloons in the line of the Park- much of a man, who has just solemnly way to other sites on or near that there sworn to uphold the law, to break it. If it is decided that the law of 1819, com-"We do not want the Parkway looking bined with the flibuster, really limits the like a line of beer signs," epitomized the President's authority, the extra session of Congress should be called without delay.

GOVERNMENT BY MADMEN?

THE manifesto signed by all the Sena-Ltors who were on the spot to do so, except the eleven notorious filibusterers. commits by implication an overwhelming majority of the body to revise its rules at once so that never again will a small group of members be able to use high wayman methods to halt legislation in the closing hours of a session. Nearly a majority is specifically pledged to do so.

An extra session will be necessary in any event before the end of the fiscal year, June 30, because the filibuster left the Government of the United States with out funds either for national defense or indeed for its own existence, unless civil and military officers will consent, out of charity, to work for the nation without pay. Even in an extra session called at once the obsession of men like La Follette, if it logically progresses toward the madness for which it is headed, can delay a vote on any measure indefinitely. They can talk on a resolution to stop unlimited debate-using their present right to unlimited debate to prevent a vote on a change of rules. The Senate, now in extra session without the House to confirm Cabinet appointments, can change its rules before the extra session of the whole Congress. Until it changes those rules there is no reason to summon the new House to the Capitol. It is better to focus the attenprogressive movement in Pennsylva.

Capitol. It is better to focus the attention of the nation on the antics of the wild men in the isolated branch of Congress and the control time. Pennsylvant is his campaign speaches last wild men in the isolated branch of Congress now meeting, so that they can talk wild men in the isolated branch of Con-gress now meeting, so that they can talk thereeless into sitence or the nervous a

THE MAKING OF A MODERN BANKER

Bank Clerks Go to Their Own Night School and Are Graduated Into Higher Positions

THIS is the sentiment of every patriotic American made vocal on the east front of the Capitol yesterday.

We are on the eve of events which are likely to test the nation to its uttermost.

Factional or

Factional or partisan attempts to create discord are as disloyal and treasonable as the firing by a disaffected company of some pears and not infrequently compare to some pears and not infrequently compared.

are being forged into a new unity amid the first that blaze throughout the world."

These two wide differences in time representation of testary and the banker of yesterday and the banker of testary. The banker of yesterday made play way alone He got to the top of the ladder by his own efforts his assets.

WHY THE STATE SHOULD HELP STATE SHOULD HELP STATE SHOULD HELP

WHY THE STATE SHOULD HELP THE PORT

A MILLION dollars is a small sum for this city to ask the State to appropriate for the improvement of the harbor, if the State had no more direct interest in the development of this part than it has in the building of the Pulkway, there would be no excuse for genus in Marie burge in the excuse for genus in Marie burge for money that the port is a State and mational as well as a local institution.

and national as well as a local inelitation.

That it is of national concern is proved to their subsumptions by the congressional appropriations, which have amounted to between four and five million dollars in the last size their substances of the American Finditus of Each top and five million dollars in the last size their correction. The exemption

The police did not know how to drive the fortune-tellers from the city until some one called their attention to the law.

Director Webster finds that the southern ports are awake to the possibilities of others.

The point however, to be impressed upon the color of the American Raphers of money by the national Government in decreming the channel above and below Friindelphia is justified by the fact that the river is an interstate highway directly serve the formed as a section of the American Raphers of money by the national Government in decreming the channel in the city limits. The expenditure of money by the national Government in decreming the channel in the city limits. The expenditure of the American Raphers of American Raphers American Raphers of Monocation, and its improve set American Raphers of American Raphers of Monocation and its increase and its litime of the chapter is in the Hornor Building at Tenth and Chestma streets. Here the classes are local and kerr the ministers are local and kerr the ministers are localized for discussions on tasking and husbress topics. The chapter task of view large and connects library, which is constantly being added to.

The Fouriers of all of the chapters are hira is constantly being added to. The Fouries of all of the chapters are letterly the Tome, so that an explanation sold from 8 Nince its organization the Phil month, when the members discuss any new developments in fashing or "short cuts" discovered by any of them. When any member of the forum fields some bet-

Working in a country bank where there is no chapter does not deprive a young clerk from gaining knowledge. For him there is a correspondence course, which cov-ers substantially the same things which are taught the students who attend class. Fin Pennsylvania State Bankers' Associa-

The Personal Touch

Much attention to given by the various chapters to the medal side. An entertain-ment and dance is given nomially, two amokers, one at the beginning and one at the close of the season and an annual ban-quet. This banquet will be held in the Bellevue-Stratford on Saturday evening of this week. To bind the students closer together the chapter publishes a small pacalled the Chaptergram once each th, in which is carried all of the doings of the chapter in this and other cit-ies, and the monthly journal of the Ameri-Bankers' Association is also sent to Greater success in business can be had through personal touch than in any other way, and the banks realize this as much as one else, and the different institutions get it through the work of the chapters. When a bank, say in Philadelphia, has some business to do with a bank on the Pacific coast it does it through some memher of its force who happens to know some one in the Pucific coast institution. Instead of writing a cold business letter the chapter ober here writes a personal letter to his friend in the western bank, whom he mot at one of the conventions of the A. L. B. A personal contact has been formed and the results, any one can see, are much bet-ter than would have been had by a purely business letter. Each year there are 100 or more graduates of the different chapters who are advanced to official positions, and this is true of the banks in this city to a very great ex-

The officers of the Philadelphia chapter are: President, Norman T. Hayes, Philadel-phia National Bank; vice president, An-thony G. Felix, People's Bank; secretary, William A. McCamy, Fourth Street Na-William Bank; treasurer, Howard E. Delly, Tradesmens National Bank; assistant sec-retary, Paul D. Cressman, Franklin Na-tional Bank, and chief consul, Elmer J. Schall, Philade-phia Trust Company. O. W. M.

TELL IT TO BRYAN

"THERE ARE OTHERS!"

THE VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

A Poor Man Discusses the High Cost of Living-Reason for Railroad Wrecks-The Irish

that all opposition to the appointment of Miss Fenimore to the principaliship of the high school has disappeared.

Samuel Gompers's appeal to organized about its bear on every modern issue, patriotism. When he writes that it is imperative that the responsible representatives of the labor movement "shall agree upon the fundamental principles which labor will accept in national designed of the majority in both which labor will accept in national designed with a spirit of the design of the majority in both which labor will accept in national designed with a spirit of the design of the majority in both which labor will accept in national designed with a spirit of the majority in both which labor will accept in national designed with a spirit of the majority in both increased which labor will accept in national designed with a spirit of the majority in both increased which labor will accept in national designed with a spirit of the majority in both increased which labor will accept in national designed with a spirit of the majority in both increased which labor will accept in national designed with a spirit of the majority in both increased find a spirit of the majority in both increased which in the spirit of the majority in both increased which is a spirit of the spirit and commercial law and commercial la

During that compage what a bright future was painted for Mr Workingman. He was to be protected against the pauper labor of Europe, and we will all have to admit that he was. But what is the result? In some he should the trades and industries, wherever they see it sould forganize, there have been strikes—and how many have wen? A few, 'tis true; printers' trades, masons, structural iron ained by strikes for a strike worse off inter-have had practically no increase in

What a mighty power are the working-en if only united for their own good! But our worthy employers in lots of cases take measures to prevent that by threats of lessing them their jobs if they do not vote as or there is getting to be two classes. New there is getting to the property years millionairee and paupers. Twenty years again man could take a dollar and get what is to duplicate. What is mor will cost $2 to duplicate or cause? The trusts or The trusts or combinations of hig husiness.

We all know how the price of coal has risen in the last few years. When will we get central heating plants to save coal and Whet, will ment stop going up? The present Administration took the tariff off. What was the result? I think this was done to enable the packers to bring South Amerito ename the packets to dring could never the configuration from the could get a little more profit than they get for native cattle. Then they can force the cattle raisers here to sell at packers' figures, and then no independent denier can get refrigerating space on the steamers, as the packers have a lease on the same. And what a blessing the cold storage has been to them. The tariff does not make any difference to them. They are so strong that even the Government dares not molest

Before the Spanish-American War Mr. Before the Spanish-American War Mr.
Poorman's package of tobages was two ounces for five cents. A war tax was put on tobacco. The trust would not raise the price (hard thing to do, anyway, as if was only a fraction of a cent on a package). So they kindly paid the tax and took one-third of an ounce out of each package. They are to this day putting one and two-thirds of an ounce in each package. We are still paying the war tax. Are they?
When we sum up and find out who is to blams; first, it is the banker; second. Big blame; first, it is the banker; second. Big ONE OF MR. POORMAN'S FAMILY.

THINKS IRISH INCONSISTENT To the Editor of the Evening Ledger:

Sir-Why do the Irish rage? They are for the French as the champions of civilifor the French as the champions of civili-sation as a rule, but they are against the English. They are the hereditary friends of France, they would want France to have all possible aid in her gallant fight, and yet legainst the English, who are doing their level heat to help the French, the Irish wrath is hurled day after day. They seem to want France to win and England to lose, simultaneously, liow is this pos-sible? I humble myself before such wild imaginations. I pity myself that I am not an Irishman, for my limitations are such that I can stand only for the right, and I sannot want the right to both win that than the English Liberals. In Chesterton's 'The Crimes of England,' it is frankly set forth by an Englishman, in a book printed in wartime, how the English committed the same crimes in Ireland in the past as the Programs have committed in Belgium. Admitted The Irish Nationalist party has been, on the whole, a branch of the English Liberal party. Parliament, it has been said, has done more for the Irish poor than for the English part. When we get down to cases, then Germany must be heaten for she is the enemy of all the good things in Ireland. England and France. Why can't England get all Irish and Irish-American assistance.

trouble is and note of the newspapers that the cause, the true go back to President McKinier's note on the recent wreck on the Pennsyl-first term. We not what we voted for, "protection," and we have had it ever since. this instance by stopping the freight engineman knew there was a signal there. labor of He knew his instructions were to see it. If dmit that he did not see it that of itself required that in some he should stop—if necessary—in order to ever they see it. He did not stop. He killed twenty Philadelphia, March 1.

THE GREATEST PICTORIAL DAILY an they were before. The great majority of workers—unskilled LEDGER is more than a mere innovation in journalism. It is a positive treat, and the variety of subjects which it embraces. and which are all live news of the day, most remarkable. E. J. COY. Philadelphia, February 26.

A CENSOR BECOMES HUMAN

Ohio is to see "The Birth of a Nation" for the first time this week, illustrating he fact that even the censors are human thin censor has changed his mind. though it took him more than a turn the trick.—St. Paul Dispatch All Points of the Compass

Rubaiyat of a Commuter

XCV When I commute, I always try to Conductors, yes, and Trainmen that I like; So when I get my early Morning Train, I hear their Cheerful Greeting, "Howdy, Mike;" "Of the various executive abilities, one excited more anxious concern than that of placing the interests of our fellow citizens in the hands of honest men, with understanding sufficient for their stations. No duty is at the same time more difficult to fulfill. The knowledge of character possessed by a single individual is of necessity limited. To seek out the best through the state. whole Union, we must resort to the in-formation which from the best of men, acting disinterestedly, and with the motives, is sometimes incorrect." True all of it, and just as true today as all of it, and just as true today as it was when Thomas Jefferson wrote it to Elias Shipman, of New Haven, on July 12, 1801. Yet we are treated to the spectacle of fifty Senators of the Congress finding it necessary to protest in a signed document that they were ready—a majority—to support the President in his endeavor to sustain a certain too-long-forgotten dignity of a nation as against the filibustering exploits of Gum Shoe Bill Stone and a few others. Which simply goes to show that some folks cannot understand truth even after a period of a hundred and sixteen years, in which time was given to let it percolate.

Please, Ma'm

Tell us. Mistress Alice Duer Miller, author of "The Flight." Are you ab-so-lute-ly sure You have got your logic right?

He was asleep in his sent on the train coming up from Washington to Philadel-phia. He was annoyed when the con-ductor waked him to punch his ticket. "Whadja wake me up for?" he ancislmed. "Can't a felier that lives in a rest live

What Do You Know?

Queries of general interest will be gnamered this column. Ten questions, the answers to which every well-informed person should know

1. What is the difference between military strategy and targes? 2. What is a submarine chaser?, How is maple sugar made?

6. What is the meaning of the saxing, "Digging one's grave with one's teeth"?

7. What is the title of the President of the United States? 8. Who is Miss Jeanette Rankin? What President was graduated from the United States Military Academy?

10. What is China's grievance against Ger-

Answers to Yesterday's Quiz

3. The gypales, a nomadic Cauchalan race, originated in India, spreading over Europe in the fourteenth or afteenth century.

tury, with the accent on the third syllable, but the common pronunciation, "aw-to-mo-bed," with the accent on the third syllable, but the common pronunciation, "aw-to-mo-bed," with the accent on the last syllable, also is correct, he annual domestic consumption of wheat in this country is 640,000,000 husbels, arrording to Secretary of Agriculture Houston.

simoom (also simoon) is a destructive hot, dry storm that sweeps the Arabian and Syrian deserts, a typhoon is a violent rycionic disturbance prevalent especially in the China Sea.

6. The Caribbean Sea, a subdivision of the Atlantic Ocean, washes the shores of Colombia, Venezuela and Central America on the south. Central America and Yucatan on the west and the island loop of the Greater and Lesser Antilles on the northeast.

"Our Rosalie" is the French pet name of the baronet and also of a new gun, re-ported to fire a 520-millimeter shell weigh-ing half a ton.

Cassa Grandes, in northwestern Chihushus. Mexico, is about 150 miles southwest of El Paso, Tex., on an qir line. 9. Clairvoyance, coming from the French, literally means "clear-seeing" or "clear-sighted."

Presidente Washington, Jackson, Van Buren, Taylor, Filimore, Lincoln, John-son, Cleveland and McKinley were not college men.

Religious War?

C. B.—No tenable arguments have been advanced to show that the present war is a "religious affair." The conflicting interests do not rest on religion, if the religious beliefs of the countries at war may be taken as evidence. In this war we find Christians. Mohammedans and Jews fighting Christians. Mohammedans and Jews; Catholics against Catholics and Protestants. tians. Mohammedans and Jews fighting Christians. Mohammedans and Jews; Catholics against Catholics and Protestants against Protestants. The countries in which Roman Catholicism predominates are Italy. France. Belgium, Portugal and San Marino, of the Entente Allies, and Austria. Hungary, of the Central Powers. The Orthodox Greek Church predominates in Russia, Rumania, Serbia and Montenegro. The Bulgarian Church is the church of Bul-The Bulgarian Church is the church The Bulgarian Church is the church of Bulgaria. Protestantism is the leading religion of the two chief opponents. England and Germany. Turkey is Mohammedan. Japan, on the other hand, is Buddhist, with a liberal flavor of Shinto.

Railroad Jobs

P. D. K.—Each department of the Pennsylvania Railroad engages fis own employes, so that it is necessary first to state what kind of employment is desired. Write to the general manager, Broad Streat Station, Philadelphia, stating what particular position you wish (e.g., clerk, engineer, firsman, laborer) and you will be directed to the proper department.

Government Books READER-The superintendent of docu ments, Government Printing Office, Wagh-ington, D. C., will furnish you with in-formation as to Government publications on mechanics.

SAM LOYD'S PUZZLE

EACH blank is to be filled with a word cending in "ice":

As the time of summer's the forman, whom no ope should accuse of or put up a on the door of an in an which he supplied with ice, to the effect that with toward none he would give good to all, without or and at uniform

Answers to Yesterday's Pur

Tom Daly's Column

One of our most vivid recollect the Periodical Publishers' dinner in ruary, 1912, at which La Pollette to himself into temporary oblivion, was wonderful patience of Governor Wood Wilson, of New Jersey, who, werray look of polite interest, sat at the m table unmurmuringly through all to three hours' maundering of the nin ing egomaniae.

IN LA FOLLETTE'S CREW Sure! put down Penrose's name One of that mutinous muster. Haven't we learned to our sheme He is a born Philly-busters ARTHUR SOMERS ROCHE, authors "Loot" and other good things (who, by way, being the son of James Jee Roche, comes by his cleverness homeon handed to his favorite waiter is favorite New York restaurant the ed day an unusually handsome tip. It a so-called Irish potato. The waiter gra fully acknowledged the gift and retained but returned presently with four Sans chips on his small tray. These he sented to Mr. Roche. "Change, sir,"

TO THE WEATHER MAN Order a apring!

One that comes creeping Some night when we're sleeping, With soft warm rains weeping Their last tears away. Send us a rosy morn-Green on the sod and thorn; Flora awake, new-born, Greeting the day.

Give us a spring! Don't hocus-pocus us-Fill it with crocuses; Rook songs as raucous as Crows in a flight. Green banks that dance and thru Yellow with daffodil: White lambs so seldom still. Morn, noon or night.

Send us a spring! Pale winter's sickly-how His breath comes thickly now; Send us spring quickly now-Soon as you can. Coal debts are shaking us, Gas bills are breaking ha; Don't be forsaking us-Please, weather man. Bring on your spring!

HOW MANY HISSES CAN A HISSER HEA "The whole audience hissed when I

VARLET

son's name was mentioned," he said, lantly; and we immediately thought Strick Gillilan's story of the drun gentleman who concluded that the wh world was decayed when he got a whift the Limburger the wags had smeared his mustache while he slept.

NEVER AGAIN may we know oyous discomfort or the draughty deli of traveling by coach that our gra fathers knew, but if ever you she alight in Woodbury-ah! read this fr the advertising columns of the Woods

Times:

Crowds of people use it today On escassions great and small. And sound its praises gladly. Counting first letters of lines above. How can we resist the ride we level No. 36 Penn Street.

nis name be forever lost in kindly obli who was working in Washington du the inauguration and rushing plate the office by Pullman porters and o messengers who were strangers to associates here, sent this classic teles "Meet Mr. R. C. Boger at Broad Station arrive 548 look for man handbag."

Possibly, indeed very probably, if vers in Broad Street Station at the you must have seen the man with andbag.

The Exordium Extr'ord'nary Norristown the biggest, brighest and best borough throughout the whole union of these grand Units whole union of these grand Units parsies settled community, of ious history dating from the period its infancy, when it was but sparseley unsettled community, or sisting of several hundred stur inhabitants to its importance of the present day, if every before in proud record of noteworthy occurrences was deserving of having gold leaf filed into its year to which stands unscratched by Fatt Time's unrelenting hand, in addition to being given possession of impatic key, that is said to gain cess into those wonderfully statiballs, where honorable records inscribed telling of all moments. inscribed telling of all moments events, it was this forenoon with Company F., now a well olled con-the Sixth Regiment, Pennsylvan der. —Norristowa Regi

EVEN our own linetypers, who under sanitary conditions unexcelled unable to dodge the fashionable o the head. One of them, as W. Up. out, set up a date line in yeste paper: "Washington, Barch 5."

RECENTLY the traffic cops sta at Eleventh and Market streets hav calling. "Have a look!" to heedless trians. We first heard that slogan Midway at the Pan-American Expe in Buffalo, in 1901. Does anybody f ber what the barkers yelled on Chi Midway in 1893?

The Thimble Club was enterts by Mrs. Scudder Sunday afternoon most heautiful dinner was served. I progressed with every evidence etiquette.—Woodbury (N. J.) Time The hand that holds the thin the hand that's etiquetty.

A Record in Sale-Thribblin "During the last year," says the se Morrison in the Mount Pleasen at, "I have more than doubled, ye an thribbled my sales of candles it with the second way." parison with former years. Why times better? No. Candies are bett

The other night we peeped in doorway of a large banquet hall Bellevue-Stratford. We saw more dence of superabundant food up board and more richness of appare the dinors and dineresses than evi fashionable inn often shows. We pered in the ear of an attenda were told it was "the Boosters" "Beosters of wheat?" we sake