

PERSONS AND PLACES IN TODAY'S NEWS OF PHILADELPHIA AND ITS ENVIRONS

SIMULTANEOUSLY IN "LIMELIGHT" AND "FIRELIGHT"
Mrs. Lizzie Munyan, cook for the diet squad at the Lighthouse, 152 West Lehigh avenue, is too busy these days to leave her kitchen.

WAR NOTE: BAD ROADS RENDER PHILADELPHIA IMMUNE FROM CAPTURE

Approach, even by friendly force, is well-nigh impossible from this Holland-like bit of the old Lazaretto road, between Prospect Park and Essington

A SUNNY JIM OF ST. EDMOND'S HOME
Little Charles Grapp is happy on his hobby-horse with a happiness that permanent disability cannot dampen.

METHODIST PASTORS WHO FACE TRANSFERS
The Rev. Robert Bagnell to leave Park Avenue Church Harrisburg.

THE REV. MILTON H. NICHOLS
First Church, Johnstown, wants the energetic pastor of St. Andrew's.

THE REV. GEORGE L. SCHAFER, JR.
Wesley Church has called him from his present charge at Calvary, Allentown.

THE REV. JOHN FOX
He is to leave Grace Church, Harrisburg, to join the Philadelphia Conference.

THE REV. W. E. P. HAAS
Frankford Church will lose him if the call of Wharton Street congregation is accepted.

SANTA CLAUS OF GRANDPA'S DAY RETIRES
After fifty-eight years of business in his Chestnut street store, Gustavus A. Schwarz is about to quit the toy world at the age of eighty-five years.

AN IDEALISTIC CITY SHOPPING CENTER
Walnut street west from Thirteenth, trackless, wireless and with signs, awnings and other obstructions removed, the sidewalk narrowed to permit wider roadway, a project of the Walnut Street Business Association.