

THE DAY AT ATLANTIC CITY RIVALS WALNUT STREET IN PHILADELPHIANS ENCOUNTERED

By a Staff Photographer of the Evening Ledger.

EDWIN WARFIELD, FORMER GOVERNOR OF MARYLAND, AND GEORGE F. KEER, OF THE TRAYMORE

JUDGE C. B. McMICHAEL CHATS WITH EUGENE RAYMOND, OF THE PHILADELPHIA BAR, AND MRS. RAYMOND

MRS. J. E. MARSDEN AND HER LITTLE DAUGHTER, KAROL, ARE BOARDWALK PROMENADERS

JAMES SCHWARTZ IS PRESIDENT OF THE BOARDWALK MERCHANTS' ASSOCIATION

A MILLINERY CONCEIT THAT IS A REAL CONFECTION. A HAT OF CANDY MADE BY TRAYMORE CHEF

AS SUPERINTENDENT OF THE BUREAU OF SUPPLIES LOUIS LIPPMAN IS A BUSY CITY OFFICIAL

A FORETASTE OF STYLE DISPLAYED ON THE GREAT PROMENADE

THREE ATTRACTIVE-SOCIETY "BUDS" OF THE FUTURE

MR. AND MRS. FRANCOIS DE ST. PHALLE AND THEIR LITTLE DAUGHTER. MRS. DE ST. PHALLE WAS MISS HELEN C. VOORHEES

"THE OPENING DIP" FOR 1917 IS AMONG THE EXPLOITS OF DAVID DAVIDSON

WILLIAM F. HANSTEIN, PRESIDENT OF THE HOTEL MEN'S ASSOCIATION

MISS MABEL NUGENT IS AMONG THE MOST POPULAR OF THE PHILADELPHIANS VISITING THE QUEEN CITY

SO MANY MAYORS COME TO ATLANTIC CITY, YET IT HAS NONE OF ITS OWN

But its Board of Commissioners, here shown, proves that five heads are sometimes better than one, even for a municipality. The members, left to right, are Charles D. White, Streets and Public Improvements; William Frank Booy, Public Safety; Harry Bacharach, Public Affairs; Albert Beyer, Revenue and Finance, and J. B. Thompson, Parks and Public Property