

CONNIE MACK'S MAINSTAY BEHIND THE BAT
Wally Schang is one of the veterans upon whom the wizard leader is depending in building up another great team.

HE SAYS "HIP" TO CONNIE'S ROOKIES
Sergeant William E. Smart has been assigned to put the Athletics through preparedness drills when they are not busy practicing baseball.

PICINICH SHOWS UP WELL IN EARLY PRACTICE
He is counted on to relieve Schang in the catching department of the Athletics.

ANOTHER OF PHILADELPHIA'S WATERWAYS
Residents in this neighborhood, Laycock avenue near Eighty-eighth street, say they have appealed to the city authorities for relief, but without avail.

The Young Lady Across the Way

The young lady across the way says that all literature contains nothing finer than Lincoln's address at Valley Forge.

All in the Family
"Well, come in, son. What do you want?"
"Father, I think it only fair to tell you that I want to borrow fifty cents; I would rather owe it to you than to some rank outsider."—The Lamb.

A Slight Jolt
Young Boastem—It will cost me all of ten thousand a year to live.
Miss Cautique—Don't you think such a waste of money sinful?

THE PADDED CELL

SCHOOL DAYS

Only One Look Required

Village Magistrate (to prisoner)—Did you really call this gentleman a fool last night?
Prisoner (trying to collect his thoughts)—The longer I look at him the more probable it seems to me that I did.

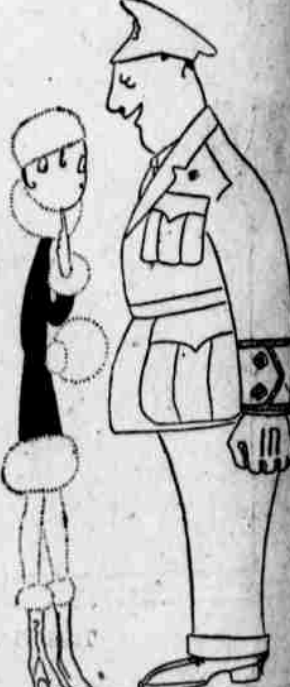

How It Struck the Boy

A divine was entertaining a couple of clergymen from New York at dinner. Their guests spoke in praise of a sermon their host had delivered the Sunday before.
The host's son was at the table and one of the New York clergymen said to him:
"My lad, what did you think of your father's sermon?"
"I guess it was very good," said the boy, "but there were three mighty fine places where he could have stopped."

Tender One

"Here, waiter, you've brought me two eggs, and I only ordered one."
"I know it, sir, but I didn't have the heart to separate them after all these years."—Lampoon.

Adam and Eve

The sad result of rationing at home and trench warfare abroad.

A Miniature Britain

English Rector (to parishioner)—Good morning, Thompson. I hear you have a son and heir.
Parishioner—Yes, sir; our household now represents the United Kingdom.
Rector—How so?
Parishioner—Why, you see, I'm English, my wife's Irish, the mother is Scotch and the baby walls.
