EVENING LEDGER-PHILADELPHIA, THURSDAY, MARCH 15. 1917

JUST GOSSIP 'ABOUT PEOPLE

JUST GOSSIP ABOUT PEOPLE Large Sale for Crippled Home Will Be Held Next Large Sale for Crippled Nome Will Be Held Next Week at 1024 Chestnut Street-Nancy Wynne Chats of Other Things

Talking about rummage sales, did you know there is one on for next week? In is to be given at Blank's old store, 1024 Chestnut street, and will be for the All is to be given St. Edmond's Home for Crippled Children, at Forty-fourth street summer, was formed recently and great interest is being taken in it. The auxiliary, and Haverford avenue. A women's auxiliary to this home, which opened only last headed by Mrs. James Mundy, who a president, has dedid to hold a sale an March 20, 21 and 12, and everything in the way of carpets, rugs, clothing, inderclothing, hats, shoes, pictures, books, toys, glass, ornaments, china. jewelry, fans, paramis, fancy work, fowers, preserves, baskets; in fact, all things salable will be found in the old Blank store on these days. So if you have not yet bought your Easter bonnets nor given your best girl a jewel of late, haste to the market place and haste ye early, say I, for the is always picked out first, you know. Who knows but some one else's white elephant may prove a household pet to you? I would not miss it, I really wouldn't. Of course the usual indefatigable workers are interested in the Sale and Home and Mrs. Mundy has working with her Miss Adele Tack, Miss Agnes Levis, Miss Matilda Jenkins, Miss Katherine Raleight, Mrs. Ashton Devereux. Mrs. Ignatius Dohan, Mrs. Thomas P. Hunter, Miss Florence Sibley, Mrs. Robert M.

MISS ELEANOR G. DULANY

Miss Dulany is the daughter of Mrs. Walter Dulany, of Baltimore. Her engagement to Mr. Walter W. L. Fotterall, of this city, was recently announced. Miss Dulany is a sister of Mrs. Philemon Dickinson, of Chestnut Hill.

at the Union League.

third

Stanley Smith, Miss Ellen Phelan, Mrs.

Quennell, Mrs.

Stanley Smith, Miss Eller Friend Konschol entertain in a box on Thursday evening at the performance of "Mr. Rip Van Winkle." the younger set.

Mrs. George Masters, of Mermaid lane The home is under the care of the good Mrs. George Mastera, of Alerinaut Chestnut Hill, will also entertain at a box party on Saturday afternoon in Easter week at the Mask and Wig production. The affair will be in honor of her small daughter. Miss Margaret Masters. The Sisters of the Bon Secours, who have ome here from Baltimore to undertake the work. DLANS are being made for several dinner-dances which will take place at the Germantown Cricket Club during the next few weeks. This Saturday the ballroom will be elaborately decorated with greens, and green candle shades will give he desired effect for the St. Patrick's Day dinner.

Thursday of Easter week has been set aside for the Easter dinner - dance. which is a new feature this year. The opening of the ladies' clubhouse and the beginning of all outdoor festivities and rames will take place on May 5. Lunchon will be served as usual on the bal-

The engagement of Miss Sadie Green-burg, daughter of Mrs. Bertha Greenburg, of 1541 North Franklin street, to Mr. Maurice M. Kaufman, of 1822 North Sev-enth street, was announced at a surprise party which was given by Mrs. Greenburg in homor of Mr. Kaufman's birthday last Sandar Sunday,

LUCY PORTER IN RECITAL IN CANTAVES SERIES

Church Soprano Assisted by Carl F. Weihman and Bertha Lee in Program

Lucy A. Porter, solo soprano at the Woodland Presbyterian Church, was pre-sented in recital last evening in the rooms of the Orpheus Club by the Cantaves Chorus. She had as assisting artists Carl Weihman, tenor, and Bertha A. Lee, anist.

The program of herself and associates was one in the series of weekly recitals which the Cantaves Chorus is giving to exhibit the individual talents of its members. This singing club of women, under the energetic and efficient direction of May Porter, Mus. Bac., has taken very high rank among similar choral bodies of this city during its career of about five years. Its various concerts, both "on its own" and in the Drexel Institute public programs. have improved from season to season, and have justified the poetic appellation coined as the name of the club by Dr. Hugh A. Clarke, professor of music at the University of Pennsylvania. Thanks to the enterprise of the Cantaves in adding these pleasan weekly song recitals to the local musical life, the public is gaining an idea of the quality of the membership as solo artists.

Miss Porter at once affirmed her right o the distinction of a personal program by the richness and sweetness of her voice. the easy and effective production of he tones, and the surety of her grasp on the meaning of her texts and the notes of her musical settings. She is evidently a stu-dent as well as an artist, for her interpreations, while they originated no novel ef-fects, were sound and distinctive. After so much straining after novelty it is more than agreeable to have same instead of sen-sational interpretations. She showed a fair amount of dramatic force in the hackneyed but beautiful aria from "Madame Butter-fly." but she won most favor in lyric exhibitions of such things as Philips's "Wake Up," Dvorak's "Songs My Mother Taught Me," Rachmaninoff's "Lilacs," Spross's "Come Down, Laughing Streamlet," and MacDermid's "Sagraments" MacDermid's "Sacrament." Mr. Weihman displayed a tenor volce of

arr. we numan displayed a tenor voice of very pleasing quality, a bit light in char-acter as yet, but rounded and smooth in its tones. It has been carefully schooled. He sang the "Celeste Alda" from Verdi and two interesting songs, Cadman's "At Dawning" and Rogers's "The Star."

ing" and Rogers's "The Star." The two vocalists were heard at the be-ginning of the concert in Hilbach's "The Passage Bird's Farewell" and a dust from "Madame Butterfly" as its conclusion. Henry Hotz, the celebrated basso, was the guest of honor, and an informal recep-tion was held at the end of the program. Mer. Cluston A. Strong provident of the

Mrs. Clinton A. Strong, president of the Cantaves Chorus, and the soloists received. At the recital next Wednesday evening MTH. Loda Goforth, soprano ; George Koch bari and William Svivano Thunder, planist will be the soloists. The annual spring concert will be given on Thursday evening. April 19, in the Rose Garden of the Belle vue-Stratford Hotel. Sascha Jacobinoff, the brilliant young Philadelphia violinist, will be the assisting artist.

UNHACKNEYED MUSIC BY SCHMIDT QUARTET

Dvorak, Franck and Norse Melody, With Giorni as Soloist

principal speaker. This will be the d of the addresses on government. Doctor La Fontaine is a native of Belgium a member of the Brussels bar and since 1892 has been professor of International Law at the University of Brussels. He became a member of the Senate in 1895. In Variety in program-especially in cham-ber music-is not as easy to achieve as some of its devotees would have us believe. On that account, the highly interesting concert of the Schmidt Quartet in Wither-spoon Hall last night was both a diversion and a defi. It did not insist, with strepi-tant vim, on the severely classical, and it did hold attention through stretches of time At the dinner which Mr. and Mrs. Will llam Morice will give on Saturday at the eon will be served as usual on the bal-cony at 1 o'clock, while the first cricket match of the season will be in progress on the green. Dinner and informal danc-ing will take place later in the ballroom. On Saturday evening, March 24, a dinner Germantown Cricket Club the guests will

GREAT AMERICANS

Copyright Life Publishing Company. Beprinted by special arrangement. B. Porkington Packer, who has several times succeeded in being mistaken for an Englishman.

THE AFTERGLOW A Sequel to "Beyond the Great Oblivi By GEORGE ALLAN ENGLAND

"The child, O Kronino, hungers. It is CHAPTER XXV-Continued

WITH passionate strength he drugged it Crying for food ?" Alian thought. He saw at once the im W to the parapet. Below, down the path, he caught a swift of grouped Folk, wondering, stare made. gtimpse

"Ah !" thought he. "I have it !" ing, aghast. To them he gave no heed. An mought ne. I have it. He gestured toward the door. "Go," he commanded. "Go up the path, to the pathaded place. Take this rope. Bring back with you a she goat. Thus shall the child be fed." He lifted the body, dripping bright bood.

Silent, indomitable, disheveled, he raised to a high. Then, with a cry: "See, ye people, how I answer traitors?" he whirled it outward into the vold. Over and over it gyrated through vacant shall the child be fed." The old woman obeyed. In a quarter hour she had returned, dragging a wild goat that bleated in terror. Then, while she watched with amaze-ment, Allan succeeded in milking the creature, though he had to lash securely all four feet and throw it to the cave floor space. Then, with an echoing splash, the river took it, and the swift current, white foaming, boisterous, wild, rolled it and tumall four feet and throw it to the cave floot bled it away, away forever, into the un-before it would submit. He medified the milk with water and With harsh cries and a wild spatter of known. with harsh cries and a wild spatter of bullets aimed high above them. Allan drove the cowed and beaten partisans of Hyemba josting, fibeing, howling for merey, down the terrace path between the cliff and parahade the old woman administer it by means of a bit of soft cloth. Alian, Jr., protested with yells, but had to make the Only then, when he knew victory was secure and his own dominance once more divan by the fire. "A poor substitute" thought Allan, "but to his boy.

it will sustain life. He's healthy : he can stand it-he's got to. Thank God for that Snatching up the child, he retreated into the home cave again; and now for the first time he realized his wan and sunken checks were wet with tears. goat! Without it he might easily have starved." He tied the animal at the rear of the

CHAPTER XXVI The Coming of the Horde

TOW that, for an hour or two at least, Now that, for an ion non master of the situation. Alian devoted himself with energy to the immediate situation in Cliff certain. Villa. Though still weak and dazed, old Gesa-fam had now recovered strength and wit enough to soothe and care for the child. And day wore on ; and now the hour of noon was at hand. Allan knew that other duties called him. He must go down Though still weak and dazed, old Gesaenough to soothe and care for the child. Allan heard from her, in a few dis-jointed words, all she knew of the kidnap-ping. Hyemba, she said, had suddenly appeared to her, from the remote end of to Cliff Villa, leaving strict orders for Frumues to call him in case of need. Yery beautiful the world was that after-noon. In the soft south wind the fronded paims across the river were bowing and nodding gracefully. Overhead, dazzling clouds drifted northward. It seemed to him he could almost hear the runite of the dry undergrowth, parched by the past fortnight of exceptionally hot weather: but, above all, ross the eternal bable of the rapids. High in alr, a vulture wheeled its untiring spirals. At sight of it he frowned. It reminded him of the Pauliac, now wrecked far beyond the hori-zon, where the Horde had trapped him. He shuddered, for the memories of the last week were infinitely horrible, and he longed only to forget.

week were initiating ince at the scene, over with a last giance at the scene, over which the ominous threads of smoke now drifted in considerable numbers, he which the omnous threads of numbers, he frowned. He re-entered the villa. "No matter what happens now," he mut-tered. "I've got to snatch a few minutes rest. Otherwise, I'm liable to drop in my tracks. And, above all, I must try to pull through. For on me, and me alone, now everything depends !"

everything depends " He sat down by the bed again, too stupefied by the toxins of fatigue and ex-haustion to do more than note that Beatrice was at any rate, no worse. Human effort and emotion had, in fact, reached their extreme climax in him. He feit numb all over, in body, mind and soul. A weaker man would have suc-cumbed long ago to but half the hard-ships he had struggled through. Now he must rest a bit. "Bring water, Gesafam!" he commanded. When she had obeyed, he let her wash his wounds and dress them with leaves and ointment. Then he himself bandaged them, his head nodding, eyes already drooping shut from moment to moment. His head sank on the bed, and one hand sought the girl's. Despite his wonderful vitality and strength, Allan was on the verge of collapse. Vague and confused thoughts wandered varie and contured thoughts wanners through his unsettled brain. What was the destiny of the colony to be now that the Faullac was lost and so many of the Folk wiped out? Were there any hopes of ultimate success? And the Horde, what of that? How long a respite might be counted on before the inevitable, decisive battle? A score, a hundred questions, more and

A score, a number and faded and re-formed in his overtaxed mind. Then, blessed as a baim, sleep took him. A violent shaking roused him from dead slumber. Old Gesafam stood there beside him. She had him by the arm. "Waken. O master!" she was crying. "O Kromno, rouse! For now there is great need!" Dazed, he started up. "What-what is it now? More trouble?" She pointed toward the door. "Beyond there, master! Beyond the river there he many moving creatures! Darts and arrows have begun to fall against the cliff. See, one has even come into the cave !

What shall be done, master?"

Broad awake now, Allan ran to the door and peered out. Daylight was fading. He must have slept an hour or two; it had seemed but a sec-ond. In the West the sun was burning its way toward the horizon, through a thick set of haze that cloaked the rim of the earth. possibility of letting the boy come near ts mother. Some other arrangement must

"Here, master! See !" Stooping, she picked up a long, slight object and handed it to him. "One of their poisoned darts, so help me!"

he exclaimed. he exclaimed. "Cast that into the fire, Gesafam. And have a care lest it wound you, for the slightest scratch is death." While she, wondering, obeyed, he hastily reconnoitered the situation. He had felt positive the Horde, after his escape from it by devious and terrible ways, would track him down. And with a bitter curse he shock his fist at the dark forest across the canyon where "Cast that into the fire at the dark forest across the canyon where —even as he looked—he saw a movement of crouching, furtive things; he heard a dull thump-thump as of clubs beating hol-BY REX BEACH REGINNING MON MAT. SEATS NOW THE HIG PATRIOTIC SPECTACLE low logs. "You devils!" he exectated. "Oh, for a ton of Pulverite to drop among you!" "Look, master, look! The bridge! The best of hard necessity; and, after a long and painful process, was surfeited and dozed off. Gesafam put him to bed on the bridge !

He turned quickly as old Gesafam pointed upstream. There, clearly outlined against the sky.

he saw a dozen—a score of little, crouching figures emerge from the forest on the north bank, and at a clumsy run deflie along the swaying footpath high above the rapids.

CHAPTER XXVII

Wart AT SIGHT of the advance guard of the Horde now already loping, crouched Beatrice's condition remained unchanged. Now and then she called for water, which and ugly, over the narrow bridge to Sethe gave her plentifully. Once she thought she recognized him, but he could not tlement Cliffs Allan's first impulse was one of absolute despair. He had expected an attack ere night, but at least he had hoped an hour's respite

A DRAMATIC SURPRISE Every Man and Woman Should See It Prices Mats., 500 Lower Floor B See to 75c: 500 Gec. Every Sights, 25c to 11 ARKET Above 19TH MARKET Above 16TH CLARA KIMBALL YOUNG Palace 1214 MARKET STREET

ANITA STEWART "THE GIRL PHILIPPA"

FOX Super De Luxe Freduction

fetro Production "SECRET OF EVE

WITH 100 LIVING MODELS

BALL'OM. BELLEVUE-STRATFORD

MARCH 14, 15, 16, at 8:15 P. M.

Knickerbocker MARKET Above 4075

Week MONDAY, Victor Herber's Sparkling Musical Success "THE PRINCESS PAT"

WALNUT Mat. Today, 25c, 50c

Evgs., 25, 50, 75c, $1, Sat Mat., 25,

Extra Mat. Tomor., 25c & 50c

Her Unborn Child Matiness

for Lad Only S't W'k-"Cliff of Mine." with Sylvia DeFran

BROAD-Extra Mats. Totay & 3:30

TREASURE ISLAND

FORREST-Last 3 Evgs. Last Mat

THE TOY MITZI PHIMA DONNA MITZI In the New Music POM-POM and Fut Plas With TOM MCN AUGHTON and 6 Others Next Week - Henry W. Havney & Musical Comedy Triumph. "Have a Heart." State N

GARRICK Mainers at 5:15 Mainers Wel 4 Bat FAIR and WARMER With JANET RESCREEN

GLOBE Theatre Man

Mme. Bera and Beautiful .

CROSS KEYS

BROADWAY PROAD AN

LONG TA NAZIMOVA in

25c to $1.50 at Extra Mats, Today & and Usual

"SAPHO"

Farewell Week of EUGENIE BLAIR and Nate schocker Players

ittmar's "Living Book of Nature"

WILLIAM FARNUM

Arcadia CHESTNUT Below J

What's Doing Ton

Lecture on "Design, Construction Equipment of a Modern Military A plane," by Jerome C. Hunenker; Pray Institute, 8 o'clock. Admission by card "Institute, 8 o'clock. Admission by card "Institute, 8 o'clock and the second second "Institute, 8 o'clock and the second second "Institute, 8 o'clock and second second second second "Institute, 8 o'clock and second second second "Institute, 8 o'clock and second second second second "Institute, 8 o'clock and second second second second second "Institute, 8 o'clock and second second second second second "Institute, 8 o'clock and second second second second second "Institute, 8 o'clock and second se the auspices of the Dramatic Club of vision No. 22, A. O. H., St. Patrick's Twenty-first street above South, o'clock. Admission charge. Lecture on Booth Tarkington's " teen." under auspices of University tension Society; Central Y. M. C. A., Arch street. S o'clock. Admission c Dinner of the Executive Club of delphia; Bellevue-Stratford, 7:30

Illustrated lecture on China, by J. I Ty; Central Y. M. C. A., 8:15 o'clock.

Ty, Central Y, M. C. A., Sibe o cook. A mission charge. Meeting for men under the suspires the Brotherbood of St. Andrew; Church the Holy Trinity. Nineteenth and Waim streets, 8 o'clock. Free. Members' night, West Branch T. M. 4

Fifty-second and Sansom streets, Free.

Testimonial banquet to Blakely D. M.

Caughn by Twents-fourth Ward Republican Club: Lu Lu Temple, Broad and Spring Garden streets, 7:30 o'clock, Hiustrated lecture on the Philippines, by Congressman George W. Edmonds: paring house, Church of St. Jude and the Nativity, Eleventh and Mount Vernon streets. 8:15 o'clock, Admission charge. Admission charge.

o'clock. Admission charge. Pennayivania Prison Society, 500 Chest-nut street, 8 o'clock. Members. George's Hill Improvement Association Franklin Theatre Building. Fifty-second street and Girard grenue, 8 o'clock. From Philadelphia Section American Chestical Society: Engineers' Club. 1317 Spruce Philadelphia Section American Che ociety; Engineers' Club, 1317 S treet, 8 o'clock. Members. Society; Engine street, 8 o'clock.

Entertainment of Alumni of Girle' Right and Normal Schools; Girls' Normal School Auditorium, Thirteenth and Spring Garden streets, 8:15 o'clock. Admission charge, Club members' night and production of the "Persian Princess"; Philomusian Club, 2944 Walnut street, 8:15 o'clock, Members. Food Fair, Horticultural Hall, Admisdon charge. Fashion Show of Walnut Street Business Association; Bellevue-Stratford, o'clock, Admission charge.

Lyceum Institute, Teller Memorial school, Broad and Jefferson streets, School, Broad an o'clock, Members, Testimonial dinner to James E. Lennan, president of Select Council; Pen and Pencil Club, 7:39 o'clock.

Annual dinner of Vessel Owners and Captains' Association; Hotel Adelphia, 7:30 Captains Association, Post Association, Cock, Members, Philadelphia Conference Methodist Episcopal Church, sessions continue, Cookman Church, Twelfth street and Lehigh avenue. Tee. Artists' discussion on "How Artists Can tender the Most Effective Service in Event Render the Most Effective Service in Ex of War": Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts, Free. Market Street Merchants' Association Market Street Merchants' Association neeting; Bingham Hotel, Free. Brotherhood Mission, tenth saniversary: (91 East Girard avenue, Free. Pennsylvan's Railroad branch of X. M.

A. anniversary, Forty-first street Westminster aven Free Musical benefit for Presbyterian Orphanage, Belgravia, Admission charge, Osteopathie Society; Adelphia Hotel, Lecture, "The Rosary of Ireland's Years," by the Rev. Peter Gilday; Academy of

Chestnut St. Opera House

LAST WEEK

"THE BARRIER"

"WOMANHOOD"

Music. Admission charge.

will be given in honor of the members of the squash teams. Among those who have reserved tables for Saturday of this week are Mr. affd Mrs. William S. Lloyd, who will entertain in honor of their daughter. Mrs. Henry C. Mustin, wife of Lieutenant Commander Henry C. Mustin, U. S. N., in command of the U. S. S. North Carolina; Mr. and Mrs. Alfred S. Weill, Mr. and Mrs. Tolbert N. Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hacker, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Blizard, Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Ansell, Mr. and Mrs. William N. Morice, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Connell, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Brewster Grace and Mr. and Mrs. E. Pusey Passmore.

Mr. and Mrs. William R. Tucker, Jr. Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Shearer and Mr. and Mrs. E. Ross Carver will dine together.

Mr. and Mrs. Ely Smith, of McKean avenue and Clapier street, Germantown, will entertain twelve guests at the club the same night.

HE WAS perfectly serious, oh, yes! There were little furrows between his eyes and a determined look about his chin that meant business. "It is funny," he said to me, "how a girl can twist a man around her little finger. He knows perfectly well he's being twisted, but if the's the girl, he doesn't make any attempt to get away. Now here I am. haven't had a drink for months, wouldn't know a cocktail if I saw it walking to meet me. Somehow, I don't seem to want it either. Funny thing how changed fellow can be, but it's great, the best

He did not enlighten me as to who the good angel is, but I know they have been seen together on every occasion and made an attractive picture as they danced together at the recent Bal Masque.

More credit to that attractive debutante for her good influence over this boy, who in't at all a prodigal son, but a mighty nice suitor, and here's hoping we hear of the engagement within a few weeks. NANCY WYNNE.

Personals

Mrs. Edwn P. Rawle, 6388 City line, Verbrook, will entertain at luncheon fol-wed by bridge on Friday in honor of liss Ruth Richards, of San Diego, Cal., ho is the guest of Mrs. John Sinnott, at 527 Spruce street. street.

A Henry Warrington Doughten, of Pina street, will entertain at a box at the Mask and Wig on Wednesday noon in Easter week in honor of her daughters, Miss Susan A. Doughten Miss Marie Louise C. Doughten, who make their debut at a ten to be given make their debut at a ten to be given make their debut at a ten to be given make their debut at a ten to be given make their debut at a ten to be given her mether during the last week in mber. The guests at the box party

Mr. and Mrs. Morice ; Mr. Paul Pearson and Schumann plano quintet, of like key, Mrs. Frank Green. two really exquisite groups, one devoted to drive, Germantown.

Sampson

guests will afterward be entertained at ter

At the next general meeting of the Civic Club, to be held on March 27 in the Junior Room of the Bellevue-Stratford, Dr. Henri La Fontaine, of the Belgian Senate, will be the principal speaker. This will be the 1913 he received the Nobel Peace Prize

the Franck A major sonato for piano and violin and the other to bits of Norse folk Mrs. Warner G. Earnshaw, of East music. For popularity of appeal and in-trinsic merit, the latter are hard to beat. Johnson street, Germantown, has gone to Atlantic City for several weeks. Mr. Earnshaw left Tuesday for Pinchurst to enter the golf tournament together with They are sane, yet brimful of life; racy with nationality, yet temperate. Mr. Walter Zebley, Mr. Edward Atherton The three sections were composed of the and Mr. John Barnes. Sandhy Scandinavian folk music, a Swed-

The quartet's impeccable refinement of tone and purity of serificient values came Mrs. Herbert M. Tilden, of The Wissahickon, Germantown, is spending several days at the shore.

to the fore admirably in all the numbers. Of especial clarity and beauty were the Mrs. Joseph Darlington Witkinson, who has been spending the last two years in Australia, Japan and China, will return home on April 3. Mrs. Wilkinson, who will be remembered as Miss Jane Burgess, will be remembered as Miss Jane Burgess. Mrs. Joseph Darlington Wilkinson, who slight cello passages.

The sonata was also exceedingly well played by Mr. Schmidt. He is an artist will spend some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Burgess, 515 Lincoln who can blend great grace with a restrained mode too rare among present-day virtuosi Aurello Giorni, a young planist, of ingrati-Miss Elizabeth Jamison entertained at dinner last evening at her home, 3936 Fol-som street, in honor of Miss Elizabeth M.

Aurento children and the sometimes imperfect expression, played the other portion of the score, with laudable understanding of the mood of the work, but curiously chilly ex-A touch on played is arm aroused him fro ecution.

the cave, and had tried to snatch the 12.2.14 child. She had fought, but one blow of his ax had stunned her. Beyond this, she re-membered nothing. Allan sought and quickly found the aperture made by the smith through the

"Evidently he'd been planning this cour "Evidently he'd been plauning this coup for a long time." thought he. "The great catastrophe of the landside broke the last bonds of order and restraint, and gave him his opportunity. Well, it's his last villainy! I'll have this passageway ce-mented up. That's all the monument he'll ever get. It's more than he deserves?" He returned to Beatrice. The girl still lay there, moaning a little in her fevered sleep. Allan watched her in anguish. "Oh. If she should die—If she should die!" thought he, and felt the sweat start on his forchead. "She must not! She hilly ex-B. D. vigit. Turning, he saw Gesafam.

among the Folk and save them, too, if pos ave and had Gesafam fetch a good supply of grass. Thus for the present one problem at least was solved.

Eating a little at random and making sure as always that his pistols were well loaded, he consigned Beatrice and the child into the old woman's keeping and left the

On the terrace he stopped a moment, gazing triumphantly at the bloodmarks now thickly coagulated down the rocks. Then, out over the canyon and the forest

o northward he peered. His eyes caught the signal fires he knew must he there now, not ten miles away, and with a nod he smiled.

"They've certainly trailed me close, the devits !" devils!" sneered he. "Since the minute they first attacked my two men and me, trying to repair the disabled Pauillac in that infernal valley, so far to northward they haven't given me an hour's respite Before night there'll be war! Well, them come. The quicker now the better Well, let Then he turned, and with a determined still clad in his grotesque rags. step, still clad in his grotesque rags, de-scended toward the caves of the Folk, such as still were left.

Where all had been resistance and defiant surliness before, now all had become obe-dience and worship. He understood enough of the barbarian psychology to know that power, strength and dominance—and these alone—commanded respect with the Foik And among them all, those who had not seen as well as those that had, the sudden dramatic, annihilating downfall of H'yemba had again cemented the bonds of solidarity ore closely than ever. The sight of that archrebel's body hurle from the parapet had effectually tamed them, every one. No longer was there any murmur in their caves, no thought save of obedience and worship.

"It's not what I want," reflected Allan "I want intelligent co-operation, not adula-tion. I want democracy' But, dann it ! if they can't understand, then I must rule And rule I will-and they shall while. bey or die!"

Quickly he got in touch with the strution. From cave to cave he went, estimat-ing the damage. At the great gap in the terrace he stood and carefully observed the wreckage in the river bed below. He visited the hospital cave, adminis-tered medicines, changed dressings and labored for his Folk as though no shadow of rebellion ever had come 'twixt them and two most competent and trusted followers, and Allan, too, felt a strong personal af-fection for the man who had saved his life that first night at the cliffs. Beside the body he stood, in the morguo-cave whither it had been borne. With bowed head the master looked upon the man; and from his eyes fell tears; and in his heart he felt a vacant place not soon to be made whole. be made whole.

The news of Bremilu's death moved him profoundly. Bremilu had been one of his two most competent and trusted followers.

his heart he teit a vacant place not soon to be made whole. With profound emotion he took Breinilu's cold hand in his-the hand that had so defty and so powerfully stricken down the gorilia-and for a while held it, gazing on the dead man's face. "Good-by," said he at length. "You were a brave heart and a true. Never shall you be forgotten. Good-by!" He summoned a huge fellow named Frumuos, now the most intelligent of the Folk remaining, and together they directed the work of carrying the bodies up to the cliff-top and there burying them. By the middle of the strenoon name semblance of crown and control had beto recover a little of his strength and to muster all the still valid men of the Folk for resistance. Now, however, he saw even this was to be denied him. For already the leaders of the Horde scouts had passed

"A TALE OF TWO CITIES" the center of the bridge Three or four minutes more they would be inside the palisade, upon the cluft: Regent MARKET Below 17TH 11 A. M. to 11:15 P M Daily. 10c: Evg., 15c. OLGA PETROVA "God: If they once get in there we're gone." cried Allan. "We're cut off from everything. Our animals will be slaugh-tered. The boy will die! They can bombard

Victoria "A. M. to 11:15 P. ... with rocks from aloft. It means anni-Already he was running up the path METRO Mabel Taliaferro Exclusive First Showing "The Barried toward the palisade. Not one second was to he lost. There was no time even to call a single man of the Folk to re-enforce him. Single-handed and alone he must meet the Exclusive First Showing "The Barried died-Dittmars "Living Book of Nature Next Mon., Tues. Wed., W. FARNUM in "A TALE OF TWO CITIES" invaders' first attack. FASHION SHOW invaders' first attack Panting, sweating stumbling, he scram-bled up the steep terrace. And as he ran his thoughts outdistanced him. "Fool that I was to have left the bridge!" choked he. "My first act when I set foot on solid land should have been to cut the ropes and drop the whole thing into the rapids." I might have known this would become foot that I was."" happen-fool that I was!"

hilation

MAL showings on 15th and 18th at 2:30 P. M. DANCING AFTER EACH SHOWING DICKETS ON SALE NOW AT RYAN'S THEATRE TICKET OFFICE. BELLEVUE-STRATFORD HOTEL Bell Phone. Locust 1200. (CONTINUED TOMORROW)

THEATRE NINA PAYNE: MOON A MORRIS: ROCKWELL & WOOD; JIM and BETTY MORGAN. OTHERS. MRS. VERNON CASTLE in "PATRIA"

METROPOLITAN OPERA HOUSE METROPOLITAN OPERA COMPANY, N. Y. ues Evg., Mar. 20, at 8 (First Time Here) e Koven's The Canterbury Pilgrims

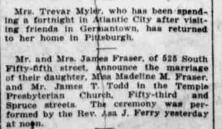

ADELPHI LAST 5 TIMES GOING VERY GOOD EDDIE Popular $1 Matinee Today, Tonight at $:11

STRAND Venance Just East of CONSTANCE TALMAL "BETSY'S BURGLAR"

Little 1"

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis D. Lit. of Jenkintown, have moved into their new house on Green-wood avenue, where they will make their wood avenue, where home in the future.

An afternoon card harty, cake and candy the will be for the bunefit of the building and of the Oak Lake Review Club this menoon at 2 o'clock, at the home of Mrs.

house party over the week-end. Mrs. David T. Young, of Phil-Ellena street, Germaniown, has issued cards for a bridge on Wednesday of next week in honor of her guest, Mrs. James Duncanson

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Moon, of Wyncote road, Jenkintown, will leave the end of the week for Irvington, N. Y., where they the week for averal days as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Nesbitt.

Cairnes, of Hagerstown, Md.

Sampson, whose engagement to Mr. Wil-liam John Jamison has been announced.

A wedding of interest which will take place in Chambersburg will be that of Miss Mary Florence Michael, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Warren Michael, and Mr. Ernest Jones, of Hatboro. The ceremony will be performed in the Methodist Episco-pal Church, of Chumbersburg, on Saturday