

"A" STANDS FOR "ATTENTION" ON ATHLETICS' UNIFORMS
At any rate, that assumption is justifiable now that the candidates for the Philadelphia ball team are mixing in preparedness drills with their playing at the training camp down South.

NEW ALTAR GIFT OF ANONYMOUS BENEFACTOR
It was blessed and used for the first time yesterday at St. Michael's Chapel, 19th and Lombard streets.

STREET IN MANAYUNK AS IT APPEARS ON CANVAS
One of the interesting paintings of Philadelphia at the Academy of the Fine Arts exhibition, painted by C. Joseph Warlow.

DOROTHY TIBBETTS (LEFT) AND DOROTHY SIMPSON

ALMA T. KNOX

ALLEN BURROUGHS

ALLEN BURROUGHS (LEFT) AND MARY ABRAMS

The Young Lady Across the Way

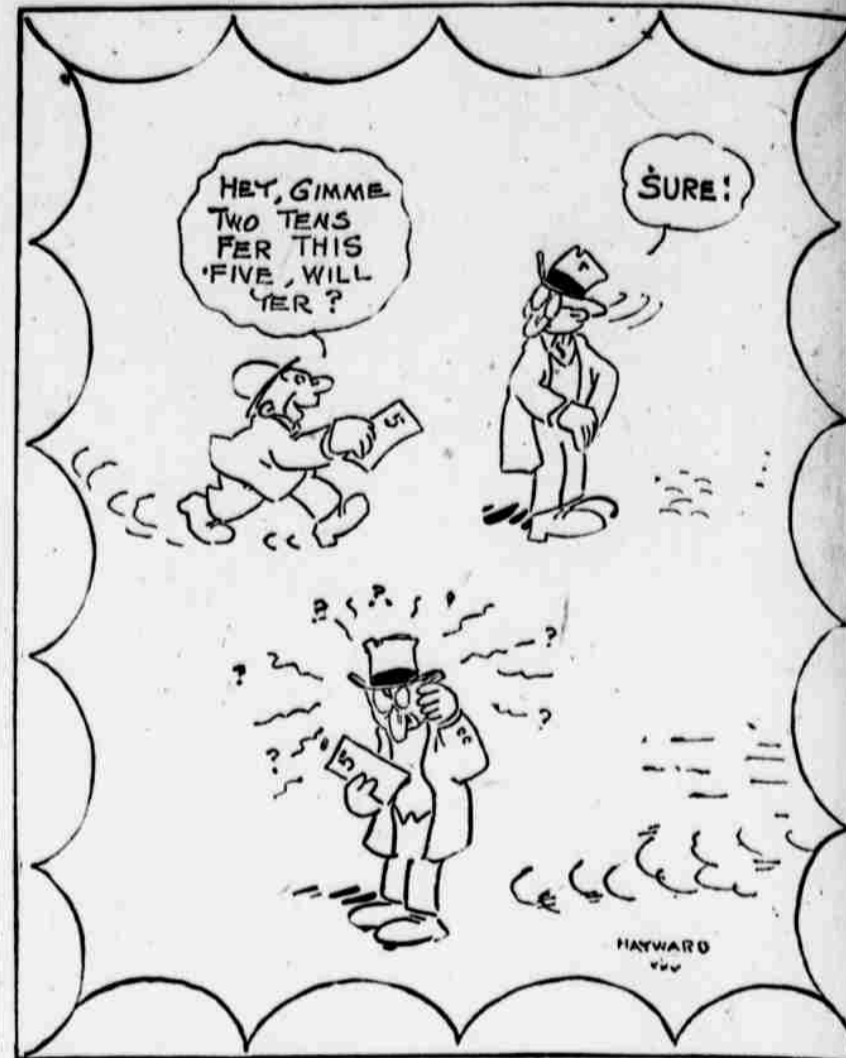

The young lady across the way says there's no place for snobs in a republic and the hot polloi should remember that the common people are every bit as good as they are and often better.

A Frame-up

"At the show the other night the curtain didn't fall at the right time and Jimmie had to kiss the star about a dozen times."
"That's easy. The curtain man was Jimmie's roommate."—Stanford Chaparral.

THE PADDED CELL

SCHOOL DAYS

LIFE'S LITTLE TRAGEDIES

She—I'm surprised you never married.
He—Well, you see, I was placed in this dilemma. When I was twenty the girls were either too old, or else I didn't know them, and when I was fifty, the girls were either too young or else they knew me.

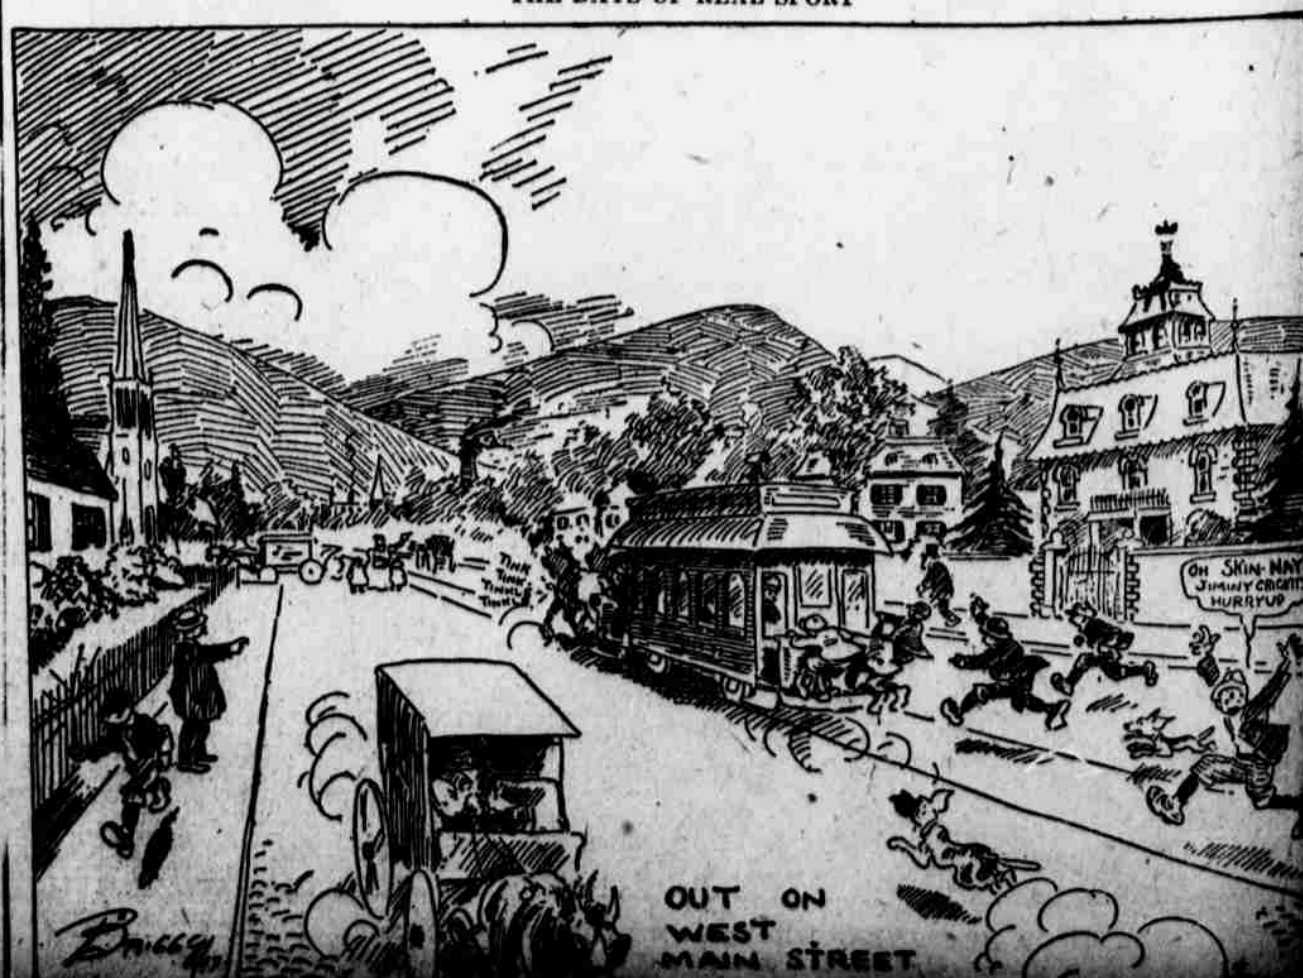

Correct
Sunday-school Teacher—Willie, who was born in Bethlehem?
Willie—Charles M. Schwab.

A Natural Query

Miss Peachy—Marianne has a new hobby. She's taken up art.
John Quincy—Yeah? Art who?

THE DAYS OF REAL SPORT

OUT ON WEST MAIN STREET