Navy Construction, Munitions, Transportation and Industry All Speed Up

From a Staff Correspondent WASHINGTON, March 23.

WASHINGTON, March 23. Preparedness for war with Germany, ranging from immediate construction of five $25,000,000 battle cruisers to the stand-ardisation of lenses for fieldglasses will be considered at a joint meeting tomorrow of the Council of National Defense and the Advisory Council. The meeting will be held at the War Department. Secre-tary of War Baker is chairman of the Na-tional Council, which is made up of six Cab-met officers. The Advisory Commission is t officers. The Advisory Commission is de up of military experts and heads of big industrial enterprises.

Special attention is being given at this time to the question of industrial pre-paredness, the ability of the manufacturing concerns to produce the wide range of equip-Fere, di modo che i francesi avrendero tutto il peso della lotta. Soltanto la battaglia campale, che finora i tedeschi hanno estisto mere debia contriverti atti The British Admiralty announced this afternoon that, according to a German wireless dispatch, the raider Moewe had sunk these vessels: battaglia campale, che finora i tedeschi hanno evitato, pare debba costringerii ad abbandonare la famosa linea di difesa di von Hindenburg. I francesi attaccano ora la linea principale tedesca nella speranza di capovolgere i piani del maresciallo del kaiser, ed infatti la lotta e' vivissima nel settore compreso tra St. Quentin e La Fere, dove finora il generale Nivelle ha avuto per se' e per le sue truppe tutti i vaniaggi. dove finora il generale Nivelle na avuto per se' e per le sue truppe tutti i vantaggi. Nel settore tenuto dalle forze inglesi la resistenza tedesca e' andata aumentando considerevolmente da Arras a St. Quentino follows considerevolmente da Arras a St. Quentin e le nevicate fortissime di questi ultimi giorni hanno piuttosto favorito la difesa che non le truppe attaccanti. Pero' l'estrema ala destra inglese e' in continuo contatto con l'estrema ala sinistra francese nella zona di St. Quentin, in modo che e' assicu-rata la solidita' della linea di battaglia. Sembra che la grande prova campale vada determinandosi nel settore St. Quentin-Le Fere, di modo che i francesi avrebbero tutto il peso della lotta. E' anche possibile che

HERE it is -a sequel to Burroughs's smashing caveman romance, "At the Earth's Core"-the identical story Evening Ledger readers have been calling for.

It contains the same cast which made such a hit. with Philadelphians-David Innes, the two-fisted hero; Professor Perry, who invented the wonderful iron mole; Dian the Beautiful, belle of the cave-women; Hooja the Sly One, traitorous outlaw.

"Pellucidar" has the same setting-another world, five hundred miles 'neath this earth's surface, and the same author, Edgar Rice Burroughs, Philadelphia's favorite serial story writer.
