

CAMERA IS EVER PREPARED TO KEEP ABREAST WITH THE RAPID FIRE OF PICTURESQUE HAPPENINGS

TOPS AND COPS COMBINE FOR YOUTHFUL MERRIMENT
Policeman Mulhern, of the Ninth District, demonstrates to juvenile residents of Twenty-first street and Fairmount avenue spring pleasures of his own "kid days."

COMBINES PRAYER WITH BUSINESS
As president of the Business Men's Christian League, James R. Grieg, 902 Filbert street, asks all tradesmen to pray five minutes at noon every day

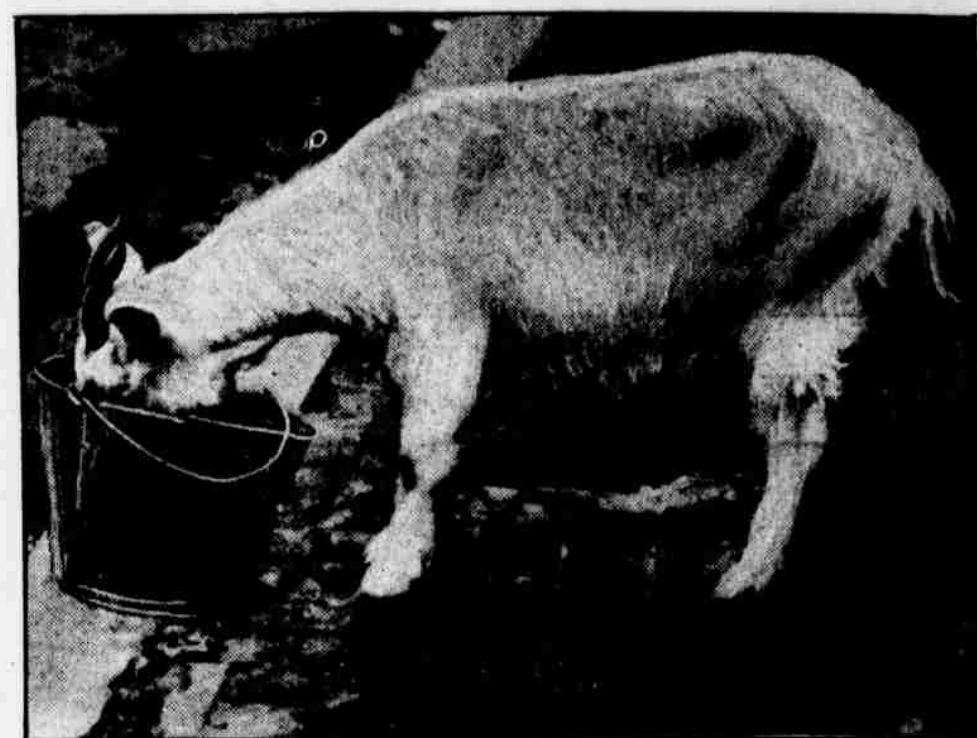

SOUTHPAW LOOKS GOOD TO PAT MORAN
Paul Fittery's work in the South already has virtually assured him a regular place on the Phillies' pitching staff.

WAVING FAREWELL TO THEIR SAILOR SWEETHEARTS
Fair Philadelphia girls signal a good-bye to members of the crews of the interned German commerce destroyers at League Island.

AIRMEN FLY AT COMRADE'S FUNERAL
Three United States army aviators, R. A. L. Allen (left), W. H. Bleakley (middle) and W. H. Bjorklund (right), who dropped flowers at a height of sixty feet over the grave of "Tex" Millman, civilian instructor, United States Aviation School, Mineola, L. I.

IF OTHERS DON'T KEEP THE STREETS CLEAN, WHY SHOULD HE?
Friend William finds an uncovered garbage pail near Third and South and defies city ordinances to obtain a square meal.

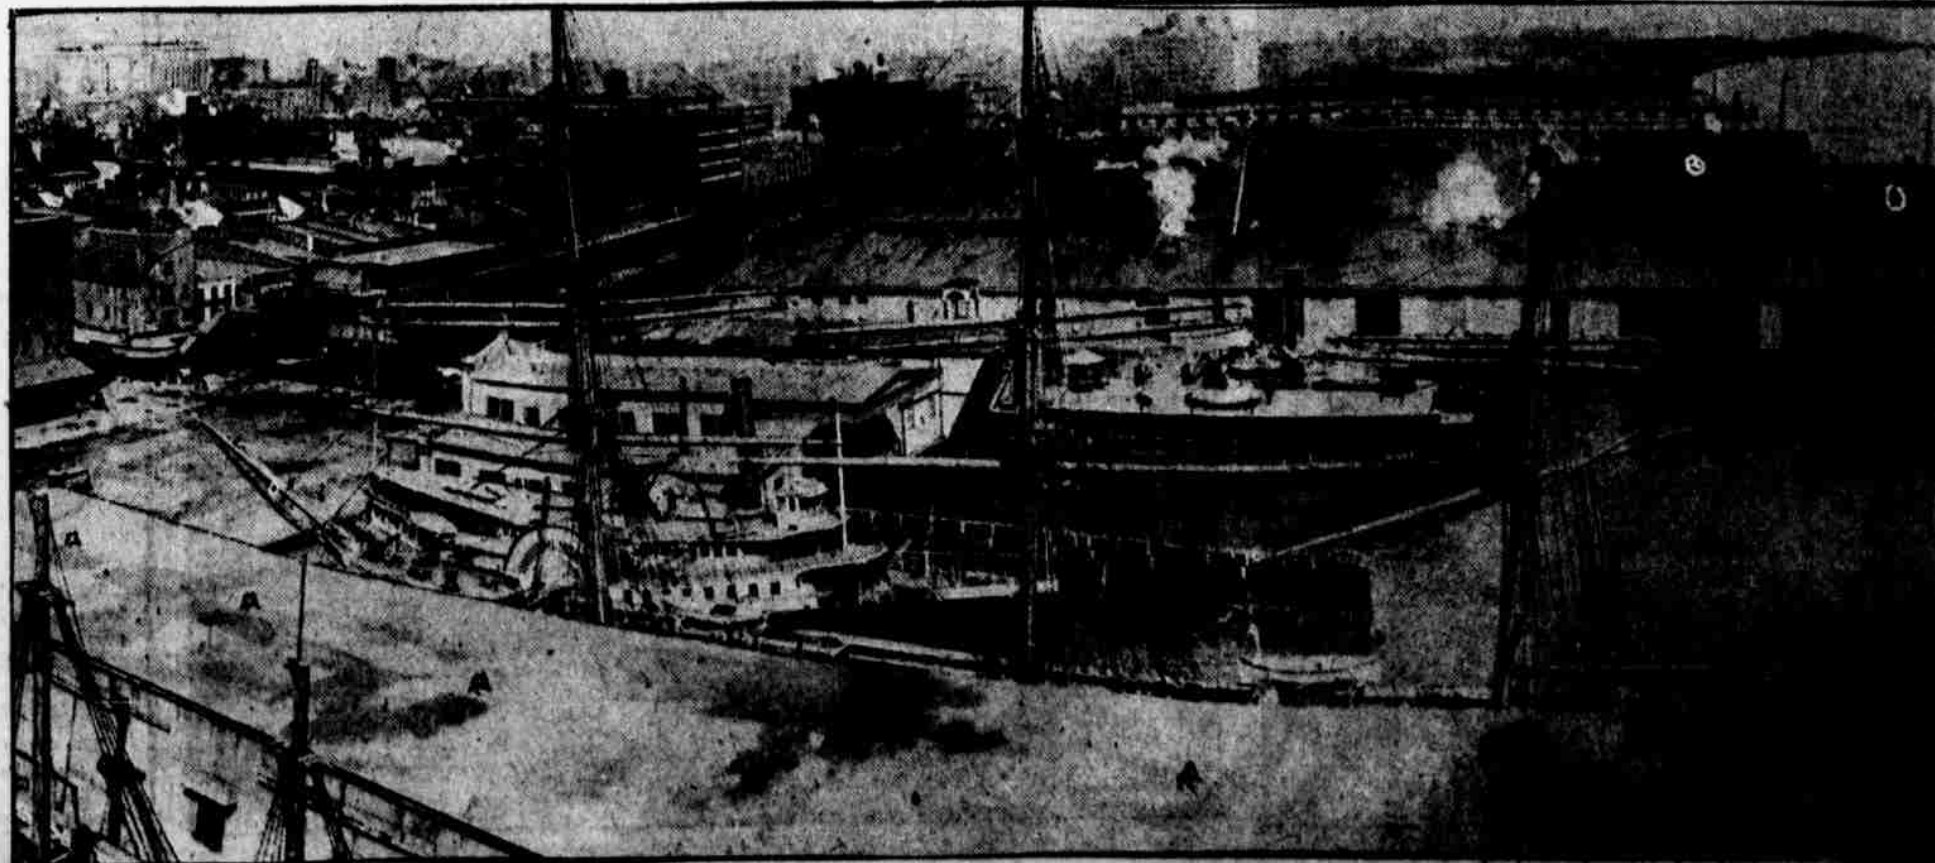

PROUD POSSESSORS OF THE PENN "P"
Recipients of the coveted varsity letter are: Standing, Rofetto, Witherow, Swan, Woll, Borie, Drayton, Urquhart, Jones, Clothier. Sitting, Williams, Henning, Hopkins, Dorsey, Baldwin, Moore, Mohr, Shannon, Wharton. On floor: Wessman, Bacon.

STUBBORN BLAZE IN KENSINGTON PLANT
Smoke baffled firemen at noon today, when the Philadelphia Excelsior Company's establishment, on Beach street near Laurel, was seriously damaged by fire.

ENLIST-TEMPLE STUDENTS IN RED CROSS
Charles D. Hart (left), Dr. Richard H. Harts (middle) and Dr. D. J. McCarthy

DEMANDS OF TRADE STILL LINE THE DOCKS WITH TALL MASTS AND SMOKING FUNNELS
From South street northward the Delaware River front evidences Philadelphia's maritime position. The old