

FIRST WOMAN IN THE WORLD TO ENLIST IN AN ARMED NAVAL SERVICE—AND MIGHTY PROUD OF IT!
The young woman so distinguished is Miss Loretta Walsh. She is standing beside an ornamental cannon at the United States Naval Home, Fitzwater street and Gray's Ferry road, where she was sworn in. At her side is Patrick O'Donnell, who served in the navy during the Civil War.

MEDICO-CHI STUDENTS CHEER UNFURLING OF FLAG BY MEMBER OF FACULTY
While members of the first and second year classes gave vent to their patriotic feeling, Dr. J. Hamilton Small flung forth Old Glory from the window of his office.

THEY KEEP THE MACKMEN IN TRIM
Coach Pat Flaherty and Doctor Ehling, who are in charge of the team, are seen here with the team.

DR. J. HAMILTON SMALL UNFURLING THE STARS AND STRIPES
He officiated at the ceremonies at Medico-Chi today. W. P. Varrick, a Porto Rican student, who represented the student body, carried the flag down.

The Young Lady Across the Way

The young lady across the way she saw in the paper that one of the new members of the baseball team was ambidextrous, and she guesses pretty nearly all the nationalities must be represented on the ball field now.

Ask Father; He Knows

Son—Pa, what do the Head Hunters do with the heads after they get them?
Pa—Make noodle soup of them. I guess. Don't bother me again.—Princeton Tiger.

HAYWARD

SCHOOL DAYS

Oh joy!
Spring is here!

THE HAND BEHIND THE "MOVIES"

—Harvard Lampoon.

When Poet Meets Poet

A number of literary men and a number of others with literary aspirations had assembled at a dinner. Two minor poets became engaged in conversation.
"I saw your spring poem in the Wonder Magazine," said one.
"Did you?" questioned the other becoming suddenly animated.
"Yes, and I heard rather a nice compliment passed on it by a young woman."
"What did she say?"
"She wanted to know if I had written it."

His Appropriate Action

"What did you do, sah, when big Brudder Tump called you a liah?"
"Uh-well, sah," replied small Brother Slink, "as de gentleman am six feet high and weighs mighty nigh a ton, what could I do but move dat, we make it noonanimouse?"
—Judge.

"L'Enfant Prodigue"

—London Opinion.

Dear Old Lady—I suppose you'll follow in your father's footsteps when you grow up?
"I can't, he's an airman."

Adapting Himself

The impetuous suitor was suing for the hand of the heiress.
"But my daughter has been accustomed to every luxury," remonstrated her father.
"Oh, that's all right," replied the impetuous suitor. "You'll find that I'm a sort of luxury myself."

SAFETY FIRST

Very Plain Tommy—Look here, miss, next visiting day I want you to and for me have a change.
