

ISLANDS OFFERS FOOD PRIVATIONS

Submarine Campaign Forces Rigid Regulation of Supply and Prices

POTATOES ALMOST GONE Intensive Cultivation, With Aid of Women, Planned

LONDON, March 24. While Germany's unrestricted submarine war has not starved England, it is causing privations, which are being borne with patriotic fortitude.

WOMEN, ALLEGED DOPE PEDDLERS, UNDER ARREST Reading, Pa., Detectives Say They and Two Men Are Wanted by Wilkes-Barre Police

Elkton Marriage Licenses ELKTON, Md., March 24.—Couples procuring marriage licenses in Elkton this morning were John E. O'Neill and Sadie Habershtadt, Michael Mingo and Catherine Livingston, Theodore T. Marshall and Violet M. Lutz, Joseph L. Horner and Minnie Schneider, Elmer McAffee and Martha Robbins and Antonio Polito and Bertino Cottolengo.

Alleged Shoplifters Weep in Court Mrs. Parker Jones, of Sunbury, Pa., and her daughter, Sarah Snyder, of 703 North Forty-fifth street, wept when arraigned before Magistrate Meekley at the Central Station today, charged with shoplifting.

TODAY'S MARRIAGE LICENSES Cecylie Matrone, 1122 Titan st., and Maria M. Lanza, 1612 S. 17th st.

U. S. SHARE IN WORLD PEACE LEAGUE OPPOSED

Triangular Yale-Harvard-Princeton Debate Results in Verdict Against Plan

The United States should not enter into an international league to enforce peace after the end of the war.

That was the result of the annual triangular Yale-Harvard-Princeton debate, in which Princeton defeated Harvard at Princeton, Harvard defeated Yale at Cambridge and Yale defeated Princeton at New Haven last night.

TWO YOUTHS ARRESTED FOR SCHOOL VANDALISM Charged With Wrecking Rooms at Bartram Institution and Stealing Autos

Charged with wrecking rooms in the Bartram Public School, at Sixty-second street and Greenwood avenue, and with stealing automobiles for joy-ride purposes and then abandoning them on the streets, two youths, Charles Boos, twenty years old, and Louis Gray, sixteen years old, were arrested at 6317 Theodore avenue, where they were held in $1000 bail each for court by Magistrate Meekley at the Central Station today.

City News in Brief SHOCK RECEIVED when he was thrown to the floor of the play of Hughes & Patterson, at Richmond street and Susquehanna avenue, today resulted in the death of Frank Finley, seventy years old, of 3031 Aramingo street.

SPONTANEOUS COMBUSTION is believed to have caused a fire in the rag shop of Joseph Dixon, 231 States street, early today. The fire started on the first floor of the structure, which is used as a sorting room.

GIRL CAMPAIGNERS have raised $10,000 for the Business Women's Christian League. The campaign lasted ten days. The workers solicited contributions only during their lunch hour each day.

PATRIOTIC SPEECHES featured the annual meeting of the Philadelphia Alumni Association of Colgate University in the Hotel Walton, Elmer B. Bryan, president of the university, and Prof. Harold O. Whitehall, of the faculty, were guests of honor.

DESERET OF SAHARA and scenes of the "Garden of Eden" artist and traveler, who lectured at the Academy of Music, Mr. Elmdorf announced that he would not lecture next year, but would return. He does not expect to lecture again in Philadelphia for nearly two years, he said.

RED CROSS RECRUITS are wanted by the Ogontz and Huntingdon Valley Branch of the American Red Cross, with headquarters at Jenkintown station, where the headquarters are located at 425 members since has enrolled more than 1000 recruits.

GERMANTOWN V. M. C. A. will support 140 children tonight in a theatrical performance at the Academy of Music. Mr. Elmdorf announced that he would not lecture next year, but would return.

COLLEGE PROFESSORS take more interest in their students than university professors, according to Provost Smith, who spoke at the meeting of the alumni of Ohio Wesleyan College, held in Hamilton last night.

FRANKLIN BENTON ELLIS, former University of Pennsylvania football star and athlete, has sent pictures to friends in this city from France showing small sugar refinery which are being run behind the fineries which are being run by German prisoners and supply the troops.

MEN ELIGIBLE for battalion engineers are being listed by Major Harry C. Kramer, of Camden, under orders received by Adjutant General C. W. Barber. The first to be listed are: Basil W. Smucker, assistant

FRENCH BEGIN DRIVE INTO FOE'S LINE

General Nivelle's armies are pounding at the German line between St. Quentin and La Fere, attempting to drive a wedge between the two fortresses and thus compel von Hindenburg to retire from the entire Cambrai-Laon front.

TREASONABLE REMARKS SEND MAN TO MEDIA JAIL

Munition Worker Decries Acts of President Wilson CHESTER, Pa., March 24.—Charged with making treasonable remarks against the President, B. Garvin, alleged to be a German, is in the media jail, following an exciting scene at the Remington Arms Company.

U. OF P. MEN SHOW SPIRIT OF PATRIOTISM

Alumni, Faculty and Students Respond Eagerly to Call to Aid Government Twenty-five hundred and ninety-one replies have come from University of Pennsylvania graduates offering their services to the United States in case of war, according to an announcement made this morning by Dean John Frazer, adjutant of the University of Pennsylvania branch of the Intercollegiate Intelligence Bureau.

CONGRESSMAN RANKIN WILL AID REPUBLICANS

Montana Representative Also Declares She Will Speak on "Women in Navy" CHICAGO, March 24.—That she would line up with the Republicans in the fight to gain the speakership and control of the next House was indicated by Miss Jeannette Rankin, Congresswoman from Montana, who left Chicago today, she is on her way to Washington for the extra session April 2, but may stop over in Toledo and several other cities where suffragette leaders are anxious to have her speak.

WOMAN GETS DIVORCE ON DESERTION GROUND

Husband Left Her in Theatre and Failed to Return, She Testifies A divorce was granted today in Allentown to Mrs. Stella T. James, who was left by Richard L. James, a clerk, who lives with his mother at 3721 Locust street, this city, on the ground of desertion.

Victim of Sleuth's Bullet Dies

Infection which set in in a gunshot wound caused the death today of the Jewish hostess of Henry Minifee, a twenty-six-year-old negro, of Fitzwaterpark, Pa. On March 13 he was shot in the right leg by Charles Hofnagle, of Bancroft street near Susquehanna avenue, a Reading railroad policeman, at Wayne Junction.

Ready Money United States Loan Society

117 North Broad St. 416 S. 8th st. 2548 Germantown ave.

Leg Comfort

Seeley's Adjusto Rupture Pad becomes a deficiency that all those who suffer from hemorrhoids, piles, and other ailments should know of.

RECRUITING KEEPS UP AT ALL STATIONS

Many Races and Many Types of Men Represented Among Patriots

Recruiting continues apace today at all the stations, permanent and temporary. Many types of men and many races of men were represented in the throng of patriotic recruits.

- ARMY, 1229 ARCH STREET JOSEPH MARKETKA, twenty-two, teamster, 229 North Arch street, seaman. HARRY J. SKORASZEWSKI, twenty-six, bar-tender, 229 North Arch street, seaman. ARBAHAM SELTMAN, medical corps, 1229 Arch street, seaman. FRANK A. SCHULTZ, eighteen, laborer, 915 South Houston street, 1 entry. PAUL B. SCHILLER, twenty-one, lineman, 1121 Brown street, signal corps.

ACTING PATROL SERGEANT DISMISSED FOR GRAFTING

Said to Have Confessed Demanding and Receiving $200 From Officers of Japanese Steamship Acting Patrol Sergeant Christian Mattie, of the Fourth street and Snyder avenue station, was discharged today from the police force by Director Wilson, after having been found guilty by the police trial board on March 11 of having accepted $200 from officers of the Japanese steamship Yessen Maru, moored at Point Breeze.

TWO-YEAR-OLD YOUNGSTER KILLED BY MOTORTRUCK

Maurice Brademan Run Over While Crossing Street to Have Picture Taken Anxiety to have his picture taken cost Maurice Brademan, two years old, of 475 North Thirteenth street, his life today, when he was run over by a truck near his home.

ALLEGED GAMBLING HOUSE RAIDED BY THE POLICE

An alleged gambling house at 425 North Eighth street, masked by a cigar store front, was raided by the police of the Tenth and Buttonwood streets station early today. Seven men and Jacob Cohen, the alleged proprietor, were arrested.

SMALL ARSENAL FOUND ON CUBAN MAYOR'S FARM

HAVANA, March 24.—Charged with maintaining a small arsenal at his country estate, Manuel de Lastra, Mayor of Santiago de Las Vegas, is under arrest. Formal charges of conspiracy against the Cuban Government have been lodged against De Lastra and eight others, who are alleged to have been in contact with him. Officials claim they found large supplies of guns and ammunition at De Lastra's farm, thirteen miles from Havana.

Manuel de Lastra Arrested With Eight Accomplices on Charge of Conspiracy

HAVANA, March 24.—Charged with maintaining a small arsenal at his country estate, Manuel de Lastra, Mayor of Santiago de Las Vegas, is under arrest. Formal charges of conspiracy against the Cuban Government have been lodged against De Lastra and eight others, who are alleged to have been in contact with him.

Try Our Sunday Dollar Dinner

The high cost of living and the excellent reason for bringing the entire family here tomorrow.

THE NEW HOTEL ANOVER Twelfth and Arch St. (Entrance on 12th St.) CLAUDE M. MOHR, Mgr.

BONE DRY FOR SLAVE OF

If Rose Lewis, Alcoholic, to Go to Oregon She Can Buy Mrs. Murphy's Family

An article in the EVENING LEDGER some time ago about Rose Lewis, a comely alcoholic who has spent twenty-five or forty years of life in the House of Correction, found its way to the Pacific coast, and now Magistrate John Dietz, who sent Rose away to the "Correction" some time ago, has received a letter from a Washington woman who offered to give Rose a home and introduce her as one of the family.

RESPOND TO NATION'S CALL Thomas J. Entwistle (upper), was first to enlist today at the United States navy recruiting station, 1310 Arch street, where Frank Hartman (lower) headed yesterday's enlistments.

PRINCETON REFORMS GAIN MORE RECRUITS

Movement Inaugurated by Richard Cleveland Joined by 167 Students PRINCETON, N. J., March 24.—Richard Cleveland's plan to reform the club situation at Princeton has been furthered by the withdrawal of one or more of the smaller clubs of Prospect street. To date there are three clubs which have not signed up a man, while two others list four and five prospective members respectively.

Paralyzed Six Years, She Ends Life A sufferer for several years, Mrs. Sarah Hoffman, fifty-four years old, is said by the police to have committed suicide by inhaling illuminating gas in her home, 157 East Westminster street, today. Mrs. Hoffman was found in the bathroom by her son. Gas was flowing from a jet. The son summoned the ambulance of the Franklin Hospital, and physicians worked over the body for an hour without avail. Mrs. Hoffman suffered a stroke of paralysis six years ago and never fully recovered from its effects.

J. E. Caldwell & Co. Chestnut-Juniper-South Penn Square WEDDING GIFTS Jewels Silverware Goldware Watches Clocks Chinese Lamps Jades & Porcelains Glassware China Leather Articles

The Philadelphia Art Galleries S. E. Cor. 15th and Chestnut Streets REED H. WALMER, Auctioneer NOW ON FREE VIEW IMPORTANT EXECUTORS' SALE Valuable Paintings, Rich Furnishings, Costly Appointments Aubusson Carpets, Oriental Rugs, Old Silver Sheffield Plate, Diamonds and Jewelry Collection of Sportsmen's Trophies

Excursion TO Atlantic City, Ocean City, Sea Isle City, Stone Harbor, Wildwood and Cape May EVERY SUNDAY 7:30 from Chestnut or South Street $1.00