

THE ALL-SEEING CAMERA VISUALIZES BRIGHT SPOTS IN THE MYRIAD HAPPENINGS OF THE

Miss Florence Cowan, 1336 South Broad street, claims the title of Philadelphia's youngest versatile dancer.

THE MARKET PLACE AND SHOPPING CENTER OF OUR GRANDSIRE'S IS STILL A MART OF TRADE
Viewed northward from South street, the old Second Street Market is an interesting relic that is visited weekly by many up-to-date housewives.

Photo by Kilnbeck Studio.
Mrs. George Harrah Ralston, wife of a former Philadelphian now commanding a Canadian regiment, will become a Red Cross Nurse and donate her home on Lake Ontario to hospital purposes.

ESCORTING GERMAN SAILORS TO THEIR SPECIAL TRAIN
Crews of interned liners going aboard cars backed up on Navy Yard siding under guard of marines and police. Freight cars loaded with baggage at right.

OBJECT LESSONS FOR MONDAY CONFERENCE DISCUSSION
A few fragments from city highways which illustrate the purpose of today's consideration of "Clean Streets" at the New Century Club.

OTHERS BESIDE ALEXANDER ARE CIRCUS BLAZERS
Gandy, Bancroft and Muggerty show that baseball is not their only game.