

NEWSY EVENTS ARE NEVER TOO DISTANT FOR THE RANGE OF THE CAMERA'S TINY EYE

Copyright, International Film Service.
FORMER RIVALS ARE NOW CLOSE FRIENDS
Robert Fitzsimmons, vaudeville artist and evangelist, visits James J. Jeffries, dairy farmer, at Burbank, Cal., just seventeen years after their first meeting at Coney Island.

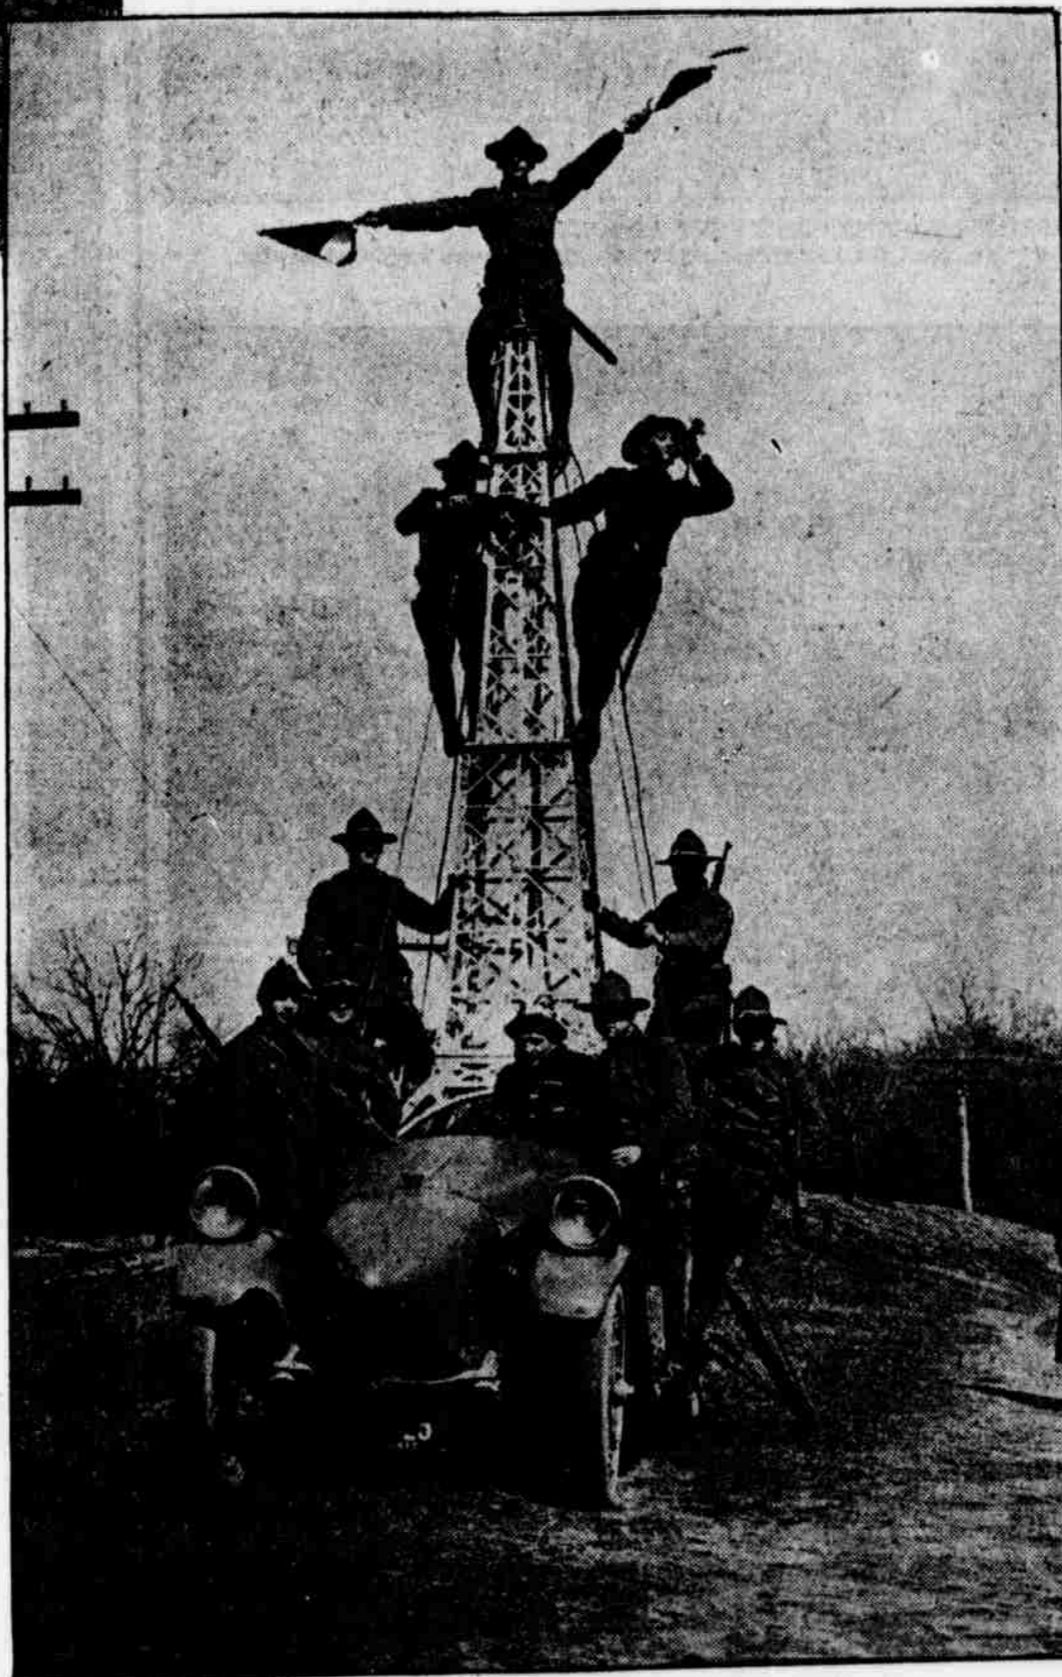

THAT'S WHY THEY CALL IT COFFEE POT PARK
Being a lunch-hour intermission at the Southern training quarters of the Philadelphia baseball team.

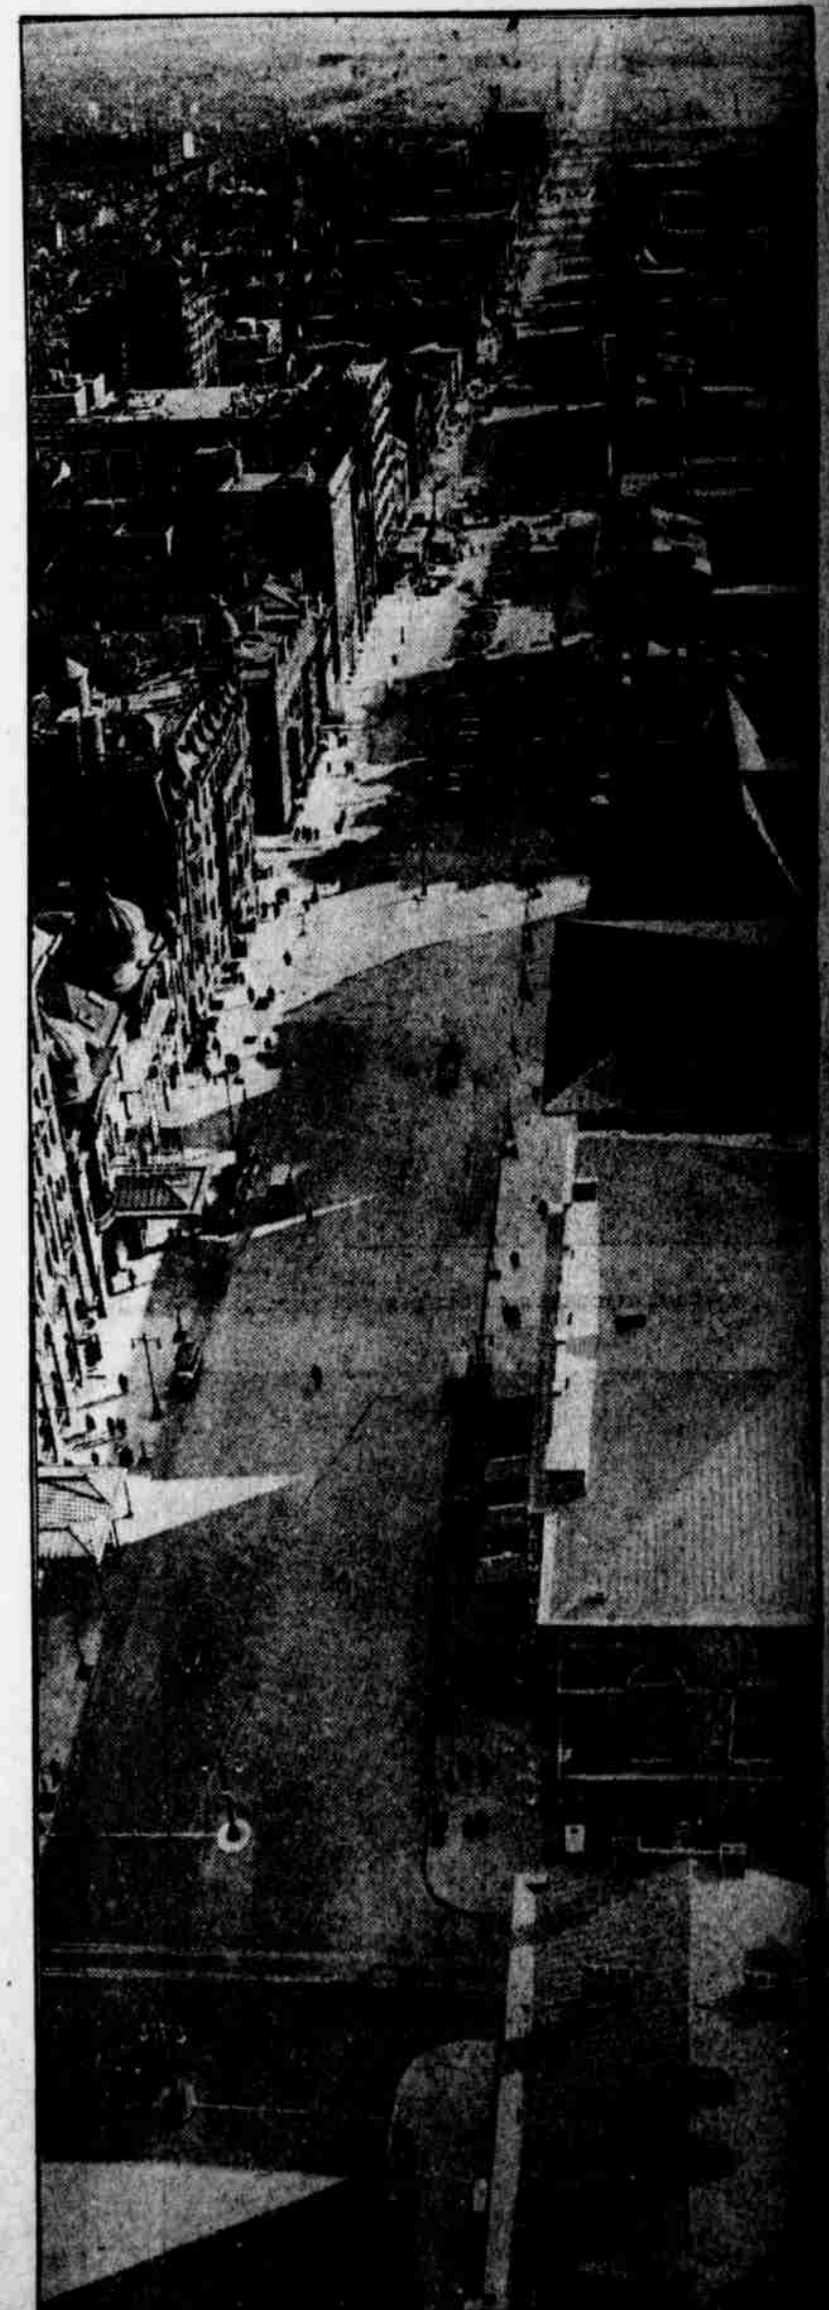

LATEST UNIFORM WORN BY A FIRE CHIEF
Maybe "Bill" Shettsline will not be recognized in Glenolden, but as a ballplayer he is "some fireman."

JUVENILE DOG FANCIER AND HIS PRIDE
Howard L. Vandyke, youngest exhibitor at the Interstate Collie Show, and Honeybrook Betty.

Copyright, American Press Association.
NEW MILITARY DEVICE HAS MANY USES
Steel tower mounted on armored automobile, which can be employed for signalling, observation, outpost station work and in military field wireless. The United States army is being equipped with them.

A DOWNWARD GLANCE SHOWS AN UPWARD TENDENCY
Looking southward from the Bellevue-Stratford hotel, a long vista of industry and prosperity shows itself.

EASTER SUITS FOR UNCLE SAM'S SOLDIER BOYS
Not made at the Schuylkill Arsenal but at outside factories adept needlewomen are busily working upon thousands of these latest types of army uniforms.

QUAKER CITY GOLFERS AT PALM BEACH
Who will be recognized speedily as W. J. McCloskey, Richard McAllister and Frank Harder.