DELAWARE METHODISTS IN CONFERENCE ROW

Charges Against Wesley Pastor and Wilmington District Superintendent to Be Heard

SEAFORD, Del., March 29.—Arrangements for hearing charges against the Rev. Dr. Robert Watt, superintendent of the Wilmington district, and the Rev. George A. Cooke, suspended from the pastorate of Wesley Church, Wilmington, were made by the Wilmington Methodist Episcopal Conference today...

At this morning's session Doctor Watt presented Mr. Cooke's appeal from rulings by the district superintendent at meetings of the quarterly conference of Wesley Church. The appeal was not read, but Bishop McDowell said he would take it under advisement...

When Doctor Watt's name was called during the reading of charges, Mr. Cooke arose and said he had preferred charges against Doctor Watt, which, on the suggestion of the bishop, were referred to the executive session...

Doctor Watt stated that the subject matter of the charges was contained in the appeal and demanded that the charges be read in open session. Mr. Cooke agreed to this, provided the same publicity be given the charges against him...

Mr. Cooke charged that Mr. Watt made partisan rulings at the second quarterly conference held in Wesley Church in favor of a disloyal pastor against the pastor, and the loyal members of the quarterly conference that he made judicial rulings, the intent and effect of which were to prevent the church and the quarterly conference exercising their right to remove trustees...

When Doctor Watt's name was called during the reading of charges, Mr. Cooke arose and said he had preferred charges against Doctor Watt, which, on the suggestion of the bishop, were referred to the executive session...

Corporal George T. Bennett and Miss Elizabeth Deely Married Secretly

Announcement of a secret "war wedding" was made today, when it became known that Corporal George T. Bennett, of Company D, Third Pennsylvania Infantry, N. G. P., and Miss Elizabeth Deely, of Carney's Point, were married Monday night.

The wedding was originally set for June, 1916, but the call to the Mexican border caused a postponement and the date was set for April 16, next. With the outbreak again being mustered into Federal service they decided not to let war again interfere with their plans.

The ceremony was performed at Trinity Lutheran Church, Eighteenth and Wolf streets, by the Rev. Dr. S. A. K. Przewski, pastor emeritus. The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James D. Deely, in living with her husband's parents, at 2318 South Twentieth street, Corporal Bennett, who is a railroad fireman, has been a member of the Third for ten years. He has two brothers in the regiment, Corporal John Bennett and Private Louis Bennett, both of Company I.

Stranded Soldiers Sent to Their Homes WILKES-BARRE, March 29.—While going to their homes in Allentown, James Hilton and William Frank, soldiers in an Ohio regiment, just back from the border, have been stranded here. Employees at the Courthouse collected $17 which was more than they needed to get home.
