Who Changed the Sabbath Day

in Garrick Theatre tomorrow night. Pipe organ and brass concert will precede the lecture.

DR. BENJAMIN G. WILKINSON

DR. BENJAMIN G. WILKINSON

Taking for his subject, "Who Meddled With God's Law and Changed the Sabbath Day from Saturday to Sunday," Dr. Benjamin Wilkinson, who has been attracting large crowds through his unusual preaching, will lecture in the Garrick Theatre Sunday evening. Lymah Abbott's statement that "The current notion that Christ and his apostles authoritatively substituted the first day for the seventh is absolutely without authority in the New Testament," and also Cardinal Gibbons's statement. "That you may read the Bible from Genesis to Revelation and you will not find a single line authorizing the sanctification of Sunday," have created much interest in the question, and no doubt the Doctor will have a crowded house. At times hundreds have been turned away. The lecture will begin with an organ and brass quartet concert at 5:45, with Dr. Irvin J. Morgan at the organ and Prof. Nevin F. Wiest as leading cornet soloist. Both the concert and lecture will be free to the public. Dr. Wilkinson will lecture every night this week in the Parkway Auditorium at Broad and Cherry. Monday on "Why the Gospel Does Not Stop the War." Tuesday's theme will be "Did Satan Nearly Overthrow God's Throne?" The Doctor will give a neonday address for business men today in the Parkway Bullding.
